

Blue Christmas

The song “Blue Christmas” was written by Billy Hayes and Jay W. Johnson; and was first recorded by Doye O’Dell in 1948. However, it was most famously performed by Elvis Presley, whom recorded the song on his 1957 Christmas Album.

I'll have a blue Christmas without you
I'll be so blue just thinking about you
Decorations of red on a green Christmas tree
Won't be the same dear, if you're not here with me

And when those blue snowflakes start falling
That's when those blue memories start calling
You'll be doing all right
With your Christmas of white
But I'll have a blue, blue, blue, blue Christmas

You'll be doing alright
With your Christmas of white
But I'll have a blue, blue, blue, blue Christmas

You'll be doing all right
With your Christmas of white
But I'll have a blue, blue, blue, blue Christmas

Fun Facts: Elvis’ first Christmas at Graceland was in 1957. Did you know that Elvis had a white nylon Christmas Tree at Graceland that he decorated with red ornaments? He also used to line the driveway with blue lights!
