

White Christmas

The song “White Christmas” was written by Irving Berlin for the musical film Holiday Inn, released in 1942. The composition would go on to win the Academy Award for Best Original Song.

In 1954 the musical film “White Christmas” was released, starring Bing Crosby, Danny Kaye, Rosemary Clooney and Vera-Ellen. The movie features a new version of the title song “White Christmas” at the end of the film.

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
Just like the ones I used to know
Where the tree tops glisten
And children listen
To hear sleigh bells in the snow, oh, the snow

I said, I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
With every Christmas card I write
May your days be merry and bright
And may all your Christmas' be white

I said, I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
Just like the ones I used to know
Where the tree tops glisten
And children listen
To hear sleigh bells in the snow

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
With every Christmas card I write
May your days, may your days, may your days
Be merry and bright
And may all your Christmas' be white

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
With every Christmas card I write
May your days be merry and bright
And may all your Christmas' be white
