INGERSOLL'S FIRST

Sporting a pink dress which states she arrived special delivery at Alexandra Hospital in Ingersoll, and wrapped in a pink receiving blanket, Amanda Jane Sims has her hand poised in what almost looks like a wave. Nestled in her mother's arms, Baby Sims, Ingersoll's New Year's baby, is the daughter of Jim and Brenda Sims of RR 1, Thamesford. Little Amanda has a brother, Billy at home waiting to meet her. Amanda, six pounds, 10 ounces arrived at 5:50 p.m., Jan. 2. For the third year in a row, Ingersoll welcomed it's New Year's baby on Jan. 2. James Travis Peterson, the son of Cynthia and Jim Peterson was born at 7 a.m., Jan. 2, in 1986, and Bryon Andrew Baskette, the son of George and Michelle Baskette arrived at Alexandra at 1:59 a.m. on Jan. 2, 1985.

Family and friends gather to remember Lynda Richards

By PAULINE KERR
for The Sentinel-Review

INGERSOLL — There was little sign of the winter storm that claimed the life of Lynda Richards as family and friends gathered at McBeath Funeral Home on Wednesday to mourn the death of the wife of Ingersoll Police Chief Bruce Richards.

Rev. Roger McCombe conducted the service, choosing as his theme a phrase from a plaque hanging in the Richards's kitchen: "There is one gift valued above all others and that is the gift of oneself."

Richards was killed Sunday afternoon in a two-car collision about 20 kilometres east of Perth near Ottawa.

Freezing rain was falling at the time of the accident. Richards's car was travelling east on Highway 7 when it crossed the centre line and collided with a westbound car.

Also killed in the crash was Connie Glassford, 31, wife of Ingersoll businessman John Glassford. Her funeral was held near Ottawa where she met her husband, a former professional football player with the Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League.

The Glassfords's daughter Loren, 1½, was also injured in the accident. She was listed in good condition today at the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario.

Richards is survived by children Katherine Lisa and Adam Bruce, parents Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson of Sauble Beach, brothers William and Michael of Orangeville and sisters Susan Greatrix of Waterloo and Janet Robinson of Owen Sound.

Man killed on Highway 19

An Ingersoll man was killed and his wife injured in a one-car accident on Highway 19 just north of Ingersoll on March 20.

Lawrence Melvin Uncer, 57, of 55B King St. East, was killed when the car his wife was driving went out of control and rolled off the highway into a field. The accident occurred Friday at 1:15 p.m. on Highway 19 just south of Dixon Road.

Lydia Jean Uncer, 54, was still in Alexandra Hospital in satisfactory condition Monday.

Mrs. Uncer was driving northbound when she lost control of the car. The car crossed over into the southbound lane and rolled over an embankment on the west side of the highway.

The accident occurred just across the road from the Zorra Township Municipal Offices. Township Mayor James Gibb, three councillors and the township's PUC chairman were all coming back from lunch when the accident happened.

"We saw the dust flying as the car rolled over the bank and into the field," said Zorra Township Ward Six councillor Rollie Rutherford. "The car must have rolled several times into the field."

Both occupants of the car were thrown out of the vehicle. The five township officials found Lawrence Uncer about halfway between the car and the highway.

"We found (Mrs. Uncer) pinned under the car," Rutherford said. "She was complaining of a sore back but she was very responsive. The five of us managed to lift the car off of her."

Councillor John Huizer managed to flag down an ambulance that just happened to be taking a patient from Ingersoll to London, although Rutherford said the ambulance probably would have stopped anyway. The patient in the ambulance wasn't that sick, Rutherford said, so the ambulance crew attended the Uncers until another ambulance arrived ten minutes later.

Mr. Uncer was declared dead on arrival at Alexandra Hospital just shortly after 1:30 p.m.

Besides his wife, Mr. Uncer is survived by his step-daughter, Mrs. Wayne Dalton of Ingersoll and his step-son, Bob Empey of Port Carlisle.

He is also survived by four sisters, Frances Longfield of Ingersoll, Florence Neave of Ingersoll, Mrs. Ray Teed of Essex and Mrs. Ernest Kish of Ingersoll. He is also survived by one brother, Jack, of Woodstock, and predeceased by one brother, Gordon.

Mr. Uncer's funeral was at the McBeath Funeral Home at 246 Thames St. South in Ingersoll on Monday afternoon. Interment was at Ingersoll Rural Cemetery.

COOKE: The Rev. John P. Cooke, Grandwood Park Lodge, London, and formerly of Thamesford, passed away at Westminster Hospital, London, March 31, 1987. Mr. Cooke was 87 years old.

Mr. Cooke was predeceased by his wife beloved Vera in 1983, and by his dear son Jack, in 1972.

He is survived by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jack Cooke (Olive) of Ingersoll; by his sisters Mrs. John Butlers (Ada) and Mrs. George Wheeler (Eva), both of Woodham, and by several nieces and nephews.

On his fourth birthday, May 7, 1903, with his family, John Cooke left England's shores to settle in Perth County, where he attended Fullarton Public School and Mitchell High School. He graduated in Arts from Victoria College and in theology from Emmanuel College, and was ordained by the London Conference in 1927.

The United Church minister served the following charges: Pelee Island, Port Lambton, Warwick, Milverton, Orayton, Hickson and Arkona.

In 1965 he retired to Thamesford and served Bryanston as retired supply from 1965 to 1970.

In his interpretation of the scriptures, Mr. Cooke tried to employ the fruits of modern scholarship, in his preaching to combine the evangelical and the social aspects of the gospel, and in his pastoral work to demonstrate Christ's love and concern for people. He became known as the visiting minister.

It was on June 29, 1927 that Mr. Cooke was married to Vera Almira Nethercott. On October 19, 1930, they were delighted by the birth of their son, Jack.

As Jack grew into manhood, the Cookes worked as a family in the church, the Sunday School, the Young People's Society, and in community affairs. Together they took part in many boys' and young people's camps.

Both in the church and in the community they made a considerable contribution by their musical talents. For Mr. and Mrs. Cooke, a special experience for many years was that of singing with the Rev. Stanley and Ethel Johnston. Mr. Cooke also sang with fellow ministers and laymen in a number of Presbytery and Conference quartets.

After retirement, for more than 10 years he was a member of "The Three Saints and An Ain't" quartet - three retired ministers and a layman.

In many communities, Mr. Cooke acted as Scout Master and because of that experience in camps, was given the responsibility of First Aid. That interest and responsibility persuaded him to join the Woodstock St. John Ambulance Brigade, in which for five years he wore the uniform and performed duties along with other members.

Becoming an instructor, he taught many juvenile and adult classes and in 1963, he was invested as a Serving Brother of the Most Venerable Order of The Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem by Governor-General George Vanier.

For 11 months of the year 1978-79, Westminster Church, Thamesford, was without a regular minister. The Presbytery appointed Mr. Cooke supervisory pastor. During that time, and after full retirement, for a number of years, Mr. Cooke continued to make a contribution to the Thamesford community through a weekly article which appeared on the editorial pages of The Town Crier, and later, The Ingersoll Times.

On February 24, 1972, Mr. and Mrs. Cooke and their loving daughter-in-law, Olive, were greatly bereaved by the untimely death of their son and husband, Jack. To the Cooke home bereavement came again on March 22, 1983, when Mrs. Cooke passed to her reward.

Pastor Ross Hargreaves, the Rev. Wells Robinson, and the Rev. Gary Burrello, concluded the Thursday, April 2, 1987 funeral service at Westminster United Church. Spring interment in the Harris Street Cemetery.

Palbearers were Glen Copeland, John Rodd, Calvin Redd, Tom Shule, David Wheeler and David Woods.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Harland B. Betner Funeral Home, Thamesford.

Memorial donations may be made to the missions and service fund of Westminster United Church.

JONES: Margaret Jones, R.R. 2, Thamesford, died at the age of 64 on March 22, 1987 at Alexandra Hospital, Ingersoll.

Born in Bolton, England, Mrs. Jones was a member of St. John's Anglican Church, Thamesford.

She is survived by her beloved husband, Alfred of Thamesford; dear son Paul Robert and his wife Nancy of CFB Borden, and by her dear daughter Patricia Margaret and her husband Roger Bacon of St. Thomas. Also surviving is her brother George Thomas Ashcroft of England, and her four grandchildren, Dawn, Scott, Trevor and Amanda Margaret.

The Rev. Tom Walker conducted the Tuesday, March 24, 1987 funeral service at the Harland B. Betner Funeral Home, Thamesford. Cremation and interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, London.

WAY: Frank Way, 86, formerly of R.R. 5, Ingersoll, died at Woodstock General Hospital Monday, March 30, 1987.

Beloved husband of the late Ruth Currie (1928). Mr. Way is survived by his dear son Currie Way of R.R. 5, Ingersoll, and his wife Dorothy. Also surviving are his grandchildren, Ruth Way of R.R. 5, Ingersoll, John Way and his wife Nena of R.R. 1, Suffolk, Ellen and her husband Ron Johnson of R.R. 2, Mount Elgin, Gene Way and his wife Joan of R.R. 5, Ingersoll, George Way and his wife Tammy of R.R. 5, Ingersoll, Mary and her husband Paul Rooke of R.R. 1, Mount Elgin.

Mr. Way is also survived by seven grandchildren; by his sister Ella Smith of Woodstock, and sister-in-law Edna Currie of Ingersoll.

He was predeceased by his brother, the late Tom Way, and by his sister, the late Caroline Chambers.

The Rev. Audrey Whitney officiated at the Thursday, April 2 funeral service, held at McBeath Funeral Home. Temporary entombment. Interment later in Ingersoll Rural Cemetery.

A Masonic memorial service was held Wednesday, April 1 under the auspices of Dereham Lodge 624, AF and AM. Mr. Way was a member and past master of Dereham Lodge.

Local man dies in train mishap

Arthur James Parsons, 47, was killed Monday when he was struck by a CN Rail freight train near the Thames Street North crossing.

Ingersoll Police said Parsons, of 106 Carroll St. was struck by an east-bound CN freight train about 9:40 a.m. Police declined to give further details until a joint investigation with railway officials is completed.

Mike Mathews, CN's manager of public affairs, said Parsons was spotted "lying on the track" as the train approached the Thames St. crossing. The train, travelling from Sarnia to Toronto at a speed of fifty miles per hour, struck Parsons about five feet west of the crossing.

Parsons, well known in Ingersoll, was an epileptic who in 1978, appealed to the Ontario Human Rights Commission after being denied service at two restaurants. The Commission later worked out a deal enabling the man to get take-out service.

Recently, Parsons was seen wearing a sign protesting being denied access to an area restaurant, allegedly because of his epilepsy.

Mathews said that because of the accident, two freight trains and a west bound VIA rail train were delayed for 45 minutes.

Town police and Woodstock coroner James Towne confer at the site of the train accident that killed pedestrian Arthur James Parsons of Ingersoll.

McIlwrick-Pacheco wed

Brenda McIlwrick of Ingersoll and Duarte Pacheco of Woodstock were united in marriage June 20 at St. Rita's Catholic Church, Father J. Dunne officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McIlwrick of RR 6, Woodstock and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Pacheco of Woodstock.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore a white chiffon off-the-shoulder long gown accented with a satin sash and satin rosettes. Her waist length veil was covered with pearls attached to a wreath of flowers. She carried a white Bible covered in lace and a large satin orchid, with a bouquet of satin yellow roses, white orchids and little blue flowers hanging from the Bible.

Maid of honor was Ann Foster of Woodstock, friend of the bride. She wore a royal blue satin cocktail length dress. She carried yellow roses, white orchids and blue flowers with white netting around the bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Mary Bryan-Pulham of Tillsonburg, sister of the groom; Sheila Delange of London, friend of the bride; and Dawna Schaeffer of Fisherville, aunt of the bride. Their dresses and flowers were similar to the maid of honor's.

Peter Bryan-Pulham of Tillsonburg, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Ian MacDonald of London, friend of the groom; Dave Knoop of Woodstock, friend of the groom; and Ken McIlwrick of Hickson, brother of the bride.

The wedding reception was held at the Colombo Hall in Beachville. The couple honeymooned at Cape Cod and now reside in Ingersoll.

Photography at the wedding by John Payne. Organist at the church ceremony was Anne Roberts.

Allison-Lava wedding

The garden wedding of Lisa Allison and Rodney Lava took place Sept. 12.

The bride is the daughter of Joe and Marion Allison of RR 1, Mt. Elgin and the groom is the son of Roger and Heather Lava of Ingersoll.

Rev. Roger McCombe officiated. Soloist Robin Lava, sister of the groom, sang three songs.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress, a floor-length gown of white nylon net and lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice enhanced with chantilly lace was styled with long sleeves. She wore a Princess Di hat with fingertip veil of French illusion net and carried a white fan adorned with white roses and blue orchids with white streamers.

Attending the bride were maid of honor, Audrey Armstrong of RR 2, Mt. Elgin and bridesmaids Tracy Arnold of Ingersoll, Donna Shank of North Bay and Debbie Lavigne of Ingersoll. They were identically gowned in royal blue street-length dresses, styled with form-fitting jackets featuring ruffled stand-up collars. The dresses were made with a semi-bustle back of light-weight polyester brocade. They carried white fans adorned with pink roses and blue orchids with white streamers. They wore rose buds in their hair.

The groom wore a light grey tuxedo with a white ruffled shirt, silver cummerbund and bow-tie, and white boutonniere.

The reception and dance were held at Henderson Hall in Ingersoll.

Guests were present from Detroit, Delhi, London, Watford, Strathroy, Petrolia, Lambeth, Toronto and Belgium.

For travelling, the bride donned a white and blue striped jumpsuit with white accessories and a blue orchid corsage.

They honeymooned in the north and will reside in Ingersoll.
