wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kaufman

Kathryn Buchanan and Donald Kaufman exchanged marriage vows Nov. 17, 1990 at 3 p.m. at Hebron United Church, just east of Hickson.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, is the daughter of Mary K and the late Duncan Buchanan and the bridegroom is the son of Donald and Marie Kaufman.

Karen Buchanan, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jennifer Smith, Carissa Wright, both friends of the bride, Anne Ford, aunt of the bride and Leah Atkinson, niece of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a portrait colored white satin gown with a cathedral-length train. The floral bouquets were made by the bride and consisted of stargazer lilies, white tulips, yellow freesia, blue iris, jacaranda roses and wax flower.

Jeff Nykamp, friend of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushering the guests were Jeff Murray, Paul Matson, Tim Ede, friends of the bridegroom and Bruce Caruthers, uncle of the bride.

Following a reception at the Innerkip Community Centre the couple left for a honeymoon in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

They now reside just outside of Innerkip.
