York 23 May 1832.

Sir

I hoped to have had the honor of paying my personal respects to your Excellency this morning; but the early departure of the Steam boat prevented my having that satisfaction.

I have enclosed two letters one from Major General Nugent Smyth & the other from Lord Fitzroy Somerset, but the enclosure I left with Lord Aylmer.

I shall thank your Excellency to direct these documents to be returned to me. — I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient

Humble servant

Edw. H. Adams

To His Excellency
Sir H. Colborne
your Obedt. Servant
