A Message From the Chairman of the Board

To the editors and the staff of the Tatler, the Board and I extend congratulations on the fine 1960 edition, and a job very well done.

To the great Tillsonburg District High School Cadet Corps, its officers and men, we offer best wishes on the celebration of your fiftieth anniversary. May your successes multiply.

To the 1960 graduates, somewhat sadly we bid Au Revoir, and wish for you a Bon Voyage. In bidding farewell and wishing God-speed I should like to remind you graduates of your responsibilities to use your education to the best of your ability, not primarily on the financial side, but rather in the personal satisfaction that comes from doing well the work for which one is best equipped. Eventually, many of you will be called upon to assume positions of leadership for your municipalities, churches, and country. Take up the challenge modestly, vigorously, and with determination to qualify for greater responsibilities as the opportunities occur.

Sincerely,

DONALD M. GIBSON

Chairman of the Tillsonburg
District High School Board.

THE TATLER

Mr. Kirkwood

A Message From the Principal

The school year 1959-1960 has been a memorable one for secondary education in Tillsonburg and district. Months of careful planning by the members of the high school board culminated in the formal opening of the new Glendale High School in March. The shift system, an expedient tolerated with patience and good will by students and teachers, was abandoned as Glendale students severed their ties with the Annandale High School building and moved to their own bright new school.

The students and teachers of Glendale High School, under the leadership of Mr. J. D. MacPherson, vice-principal, have been moulding a new school personality, laying the foundations of a tradition, and establishing worthwhile goals. Their enthusiasm and already noticeable esprit de corps are a challenge to their elder sister, Annandale.

It is a pleasure for us at Annandale to include in this year's TATLER a report of the activities at Glendale. We are delighted to read the Glendale section of the book, and we appreciate the work done by the students and teachers who prepared it.

In the Annandale section, pictures of this year's graduating classes are a reminder that another group will be leaving to enter other areas of learning. For them we wish satisfaction and success in their chosen work; to them we give assurance of a warm welcome whenever they return to Annandale.

The staff of the TATLER should be commended for the successful completion of this issue of the year book. It is no small task to elicit, assemble and give final shape to the material within its covers. The students who have given their extra-curricular time to this task merit our praise. Our memories of this memorable year have been given tangible form in the book they have prepared.

W. P. Kirkwood

Dedication

The staff of the 1960 Tatler proudly dedicate this book to Miss Rheta Field who is retiring at the end of this year after a lengthy career in elementary and secondary school teaching.

To the success of this career her hundreds of pupils, past and present, near and far, attest with affection and gratitude. We of Tillsonburg and district are proud that she chose to spend all her years of secondary school teaching with us.

As she withdraws from classroom activity we all wish her health and happiness in her well-won leisure. As she pursues her many interests, we hope that she will remember us as fondly as we shall remember her.

EDITORIAL

The setting is familiar to all students. The first scorching rays of the spring sun—which I would have welcomed anywhere else—heated the gymnasium. And we were writing an examination. It was already difficult to concentrate when the fan was turned on.

"Now it is impossible to think," I thought. "How can anyone write an examination with this continual whirr?"

Mentally ready to give up, suddenly I realized that in the morning, too, I had written a paper while the fan was on. Then I never noticed it. It did not affect me at all, until afterwards, when others told me how much they had suffered from the noise.

Now, in the afternoon, I unconsciously reacted against the fan, but at the same time became aware of the falsity of my reactions. Furthermore, I more fully understood that phenomenon called "going along with the crowd," when one's own opinion is cast aside in favour of accepting the point of view most loudly trumpeted by the crowd.

It matters little whether you like that popular idol or not; if the majority is cheering for him, you will cheer for him too, or be stamped as an "odd ball," or worse. It matters little whether you like that book, film or musical work; if again, most of the others do not like it, you too will despise it in order to remain in the public's favour.

This tendency to lose the individual taste and ability to discriminate independently presents a problem worth thinking about, even in a democratic society where everyone is given the privilege of having so many perhaps too many, freedoms.

Frank Felkai 12A.

EDITORIAL

The importance of education has been drummed into us for many years. Actually it is true that most people look forward to being out of school and earning an income. At first glance this may appear to be a favorable position, and to those who believe experience to be the best teacher, a well rounded education is not essential.

However, if this were true, there would be no point in having schools or going to the expense of educating teachers. Schools are built and teachers are trained to develop not mechanical men and women but men and women with scope and understanding.

A formal education gives the benefits of knowledge, judgement and discipline, so important as a foundation for a successful future.

The study of languages widens the student's interests and understanding without which it would be impossible for him to develop and express his thoughts.

History gives, by unfolding the secrets of the past, the ability to judge events in their true form.

From science the student learns of the earth, its structure and its elements, and mathematics teaches precise logical thought.

Thus it is wise to remember, when considering the future, paychecks lost by remaining in school will be returned in fuller measure in time to come.

Elizabeth Grant 12A.

With the Alumni

Once more it is time to gather that important information: just where our alumni have gone. This year, it seems none of our graduates have travelled very far from home. In fact the University of Western Ontario has claimed fifteen of our graduates. These are James Darley in Honours Biology; Faye Gaskin in an Honours French and Latin course; Noreen Lucas in General Arts; Mary Ellen MacDonald in Honours French and German; Larry Holmes, Wayne Holmes, Ross Hotchkiss, Ken Smith, Barrie Stewart and Peter Van Loon, all in Engineering; Richard Van de Wiele in Geology; Simonne Spriet and Robert Lester in Honours Mathematics; Frank Mattan in General Arts.

Those students attending Teachers' College in London and in Stratford are Joyce Boughner, Barbara Clary, Margaret Fishback, Margaret Gilbert, Karen Harris, Douglas Humphrey, Harry Lipsit, Bernice Marsland, Susan Secord, Norma Jean Stringer, Laura Taylor and Bill Watts.

Pat Armstrong is the only alumna at McMaster in Hamilton. She is taking Physical Education. John Bolton is in Hamilton, though, at the Institute of Technology.

Four boys have decided to stay at A.H.S. for another year. They are Lawrence Fedoruk, John Krumpek, Gerald Lee and Don Morrison.

Those girls who have chosen nursing as a career are Lois Wood and Mildred Garnelis at Toronto General; Patricia Richardson at London St. Joseph's. In closely allied professions are Elizabeth Parkhill and Joanne Pearce training as lab technicians at London St. Joseph's and Helen Nagy in Pharmacy at the University of Toronto.

Some of our graduates have gone to the Ontario Agricultural College. They are Alex Biro, Paul Fish and Gordon Haley. Alice Adler is at the University of Toronto studying Modern Languages; Pat Teeple is also there, studying Art and Archeology.

Betty Lyn Boyle is at the University of Waterloo. Joan Pitcher is now Mrs. Larry Holmes.

Diana Caswell, Margaret Herbert, Joan Singer of the Grade twelve Commercial are now working at Anglo-Canadian Fire Insurance.

Suaren Jackson, Mary Millar, Patsy Rice, Aldene Rice, Noreen Whiteside, Marilyn Wilkinson and Victoria Wilkinson are employed at Bell Telephone in London.

Albert Anderson is at the London Dept. of Highways. Helen Ball is at Jackson's Bakery. Mervin Davis is at Earl Greer Machinery. Betty Gillett is employed by Jackson's Manufacturing. Bernice Girvin and Jean Sharpe are at Livingston's.

Sandra Hummel, Janet Sharpe and Lois West are now married. Wanda Kelm is working at the Head Office, Bank of Commerce in Toronto. Pat McElhone is at London Life. Jim McQuiggan is attending Bible School in London. Bertha Mikenas is in Toronto taking a Secretarial Science course at Ryerson Institute. Roger Morjaen is working at Superstest in London.

Jim Payne and Bill Rodgers work at the Imperial Bank in Tillsonburg. Frank Ranscher works for the Department of Highways.

Both Bob Tansley and Bob Trickett are at Carroll Brothers. Carole Sundry is at the Gas office.

To the 1960 graduates of T.D.H.S. the Tatler extends best wishes for every success.

ANNANDALE HIGH SCHOOL

Graduation 1959

COMMENCEMENT

The last students to graduate from Tillsonburg District High School were honoured by Annandale and Glendale students, staff and board on November 13, 1959. A processional march of teachers and students to the music of "Loyalty" played by the school band, led by Rory MacDonald, opened the program.

Mr. Orr introduced the Glee Club, directed by Mr. Martin, who sang selections from the coming operetta "H.M.S. Pinafore." Nancy Beaman and Nan Weston played a piano duet, "The Windmill."

Commencement this year offered even more awards for proficiency than in previous years. Representing the James H. Wilson Chapter I.O.D.E., Mrs. J. A. Gillett assisted by Mr. Rokeby, presented the Social Studies awards for Grade 10.

Mr. R. A. Baxter, assisted by Mr. J. W. Reid, presented proficiency awards for cadets, G.A.A., boys' athletics, and senior public speaking.

Mr. Beattie assisted representatives from organizations presenting scholarships and bursaries. Mrs. Martin Purdy represented the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, and Mrs. G. McDonough represented H.M.S. Courageous Chapter I.O.D.E. Mr. Kirkwood presented the Stanley Wightman Memorial Scholarship for Mrs. Wightman.

Mr. Gordon Hollier presented the Tillsonburg Rotary Club Scholarship, while Mr. W. H. Gibson presented the Tillsonburg Shoe Company scholarships.

Among other scholarships presented were the Harold Heath Limited Scholarship, presented by Mr. R. T. Saxby, the Borden Company Scholarship, presented by Mr. W. P. Kirkwood, the Women's Auxiliary Tillsonburg District Memorial Hospital Scholarships, presented by Mrs. W. B. Hogarth. Mr. T. L. Redfern presented the Redfern, Murray and More Scholarship; Miss G. Grieve presented the Scholarship for the E. D. Tillson Estate; Mr. Kirkwood presented the Ontario Scholarship.

The presentation of proficiency prizes for Grades 11 and 12 followed. Mr. W. T. Barrett and Mr. D. L. Thiers presented prizes from Livingston Wood Mfg. Company, and Mr. J. D. McPherson, assisted by Miss R. Field, presented the subject awards.

After a vocal duet by Helen Pressey and Ruth Mooney, Mr. D. Gibson, assisted by Miss Keeler and Mr. Ross, presented the Secondary School Graduation Diplomas. Mr. J. Schotsch and Mr. Kirkwood gave out the Secondary School Honour Graduation Diplomas.

The speaker for the evening, Mr. R. G. Groom, gave an address to the graduates. Lyn Brown, in place of Jim Sorrenti, president of the Student Council, thanked Mr. Groom for his timely advice.

Mary Ellen MacDonald gave the valedictory address for the graduating class of 1959.

Millie Richardson 12A.

Valedictory

By Miss Mary Ellen MacDonald
At Commencement, 1959

I represent tonight a soon-to-be extinct species. We are the last group of graduates from Tillsonburg District High School. I can remember when in 1955 Arnold Stover was valedictorian for the first class ever to receive its entire education at T.D.H.S.
He had this to say, "We are establishing a tradition tonight and gaining a unique place in the history of this school." We tonight are the end of this tradition and as such we too have a unique place in the final chapters of our school's history. And I am very proud and happy to be the valedictorian for the class of '59.

Commencement is pretty special, as all of us who have come here tonight can testify. But it's special not only for the graduates but for the parents and teachers as well. I can just see them out there saying to themselves, "I helped put them up there on that platform," and they're quite right, because we owe our education to them.

Never in history has education been so important to young people. There is no need for me to go into the why and wherefore; we have had many proofs of it tonight. Look at the encouragement our town gives the student in the form of substantial scholarships. The government does the same thing. Our parents prove it by keeping us in school.

Universities and colleges strive to be as attractive as possible to the young graduate.

The last couple of years have been most important because up till then we had relatively little choice in our education. Our choices now determine what we shall be able to do with the rest of our lives — fifty to sixty years depend on today's decision. But our school through the years has been laying a firm foundation on which we can base these decisions. It has been helping each one of us to find his proper niche. Commencement gives our teachers a chance to pat themselves on the back and accept our thanks for their good work well done.

MARY

Our parents are sitting out there as well, positively popping with pride. We would not be here if it weren't for their encouragement. I'm sure there isn't one of us who has been discouraged by his parents. After all, encouragement doesn't need to be voiced. It can be just the heartwarming knowledge that our parents are behind us, backing our decisions, providing a private cheering section, and proving a very comfort in those days when the world couldn't be worse. To them now, and only now, can we express our gratitude, because only now when we are away do we realize how much we miss the warmth and comfort of family life.

We can't express our gratitude, Thank you has become such a trite and banal expression that it's meaningless unless the emotion behind the words puts our meaning across. All we can do is say, "Thank you" and hope that our parents and teachers understand the meaning that lies behind the phrase.

If Commencement is for the parents and teachers, the valedictorian is for the graduates, and my most important duty now is to recall for ourselves those memories which will be the most fun to remember. Just to say the names of our activities without adding details can bring back a flood of memory — basketball, volleyball and football games, cadet days, field days, operettas, "hops," the humorous incidents in class — these we shall never forget. Going away back, do you remember your first day here and how old and awe-spiring all those upperclass people seemed? How much we've changed and how much we've learned since then!

What we've learned isn't just book-knowledge either. One of our teachers had a little farewell she used to say to us before each set of examinations: "May you do just as well as you deserve." What a sobering thought! It's really another way of saying "You get out of something exactly what you put into it." This is an important maxim and I know we all learned it here. The reason we enjoyed our high school years so much is because we put so much into them. For instance, in this group we have the backbone of school teams, cadet officers, Terrazzo Echo staff, Tatler staff, field day champions — I could go on.

You know the line from a popular song that goes, "Then we'll pass and be forgotten with the rest?" Well, we passed, but we shall not be forgotten. We have left our mark on this school through our support of its activities. Our teachers will never forget us; we shall often call to mind the happy days we spent here; and we shall always remember each other.

This ceremony tonight is a parallel to one which the Romans celebrated for their god, Janus, keeper of the gate, who faced both backward and forward. We have come here tonight to look back on some of the happiest years of our lives. But Commencement is also looking forward as well. The sadness of parting is mixed with the excitement and anticipation of the future. Thanks to our parents and teachers, we go gladly to face our future. We have "the forward look in '59."

The Commencement Coffee Party

The school staff, graduates and special guests were received in the two Home Economics rooms after the annual Commencement. Mrs. Kirkwood and Mrs. Schotsch poured coffee at a prettily decorated coffee table.

Darlene Beaman, Gloria Curtis, Anna Emerson, Diane Pollard, Fia Van Stevenaal, Susan Reid, Sharon Bissett, Janet Reid, Marcia Bissett, Elaine Pearce, Sandra Gorman, Nancy Beaman and Margaret Emerson assisted in serving coffee and pastries. All in all it was a successful reunion of the graduates.

In Memoriam

MR. GEORGE DODD

The sudden death of Mr. George Dodd on March 29, 1960, shocked both the staff and students of Annandale High School. Mr. Dodd had been a member of the English department since September, 1958. Before coming to our school he worked in the investigation branch of the Canadian National Railway. He was a graduate of the University of Western Ontario, where he obtained a B.A. degree.

During his comparatively short time with us at Annandale, Mr. Dodd claimed the respect and affection of staff and students alike. He gained our respect because of his knowledge and wide interest in many things. But among the various subjects which engaged his attention, perhaps his first and greatest love was English literature. With authority and good humour he could discourse at length on the byways of our English literary heritage. Few indeed were the books which one could mention that he had not read and remembered.

Mr. Dodd will be remembered, however, not so much for his knowledge and scholarship as for his kindness, his sympathy, and his humanity. It is doubtful if anyone at Annandale High School ever heard Mr. Dodd raise his voice in anger; it is doubtful if anyone ever appealed for understanding and had that appeal turned aside; it is doubtful if anyone ever failed to engage Mr. Dodd's sympathetic attention for a cause that was worthy. He worked assiduously with his students; in the community and in his church he did not fail to give help when that was required. In every way, and in every sense of the word, he was a gentleman.

Mr. Dodd is survived by his parents, his wife, his son Jim of London, his daughter, Betty, also of London, and his son, Bill, of Grade 11C2, Annandale High School. To them the TATLER staff, the students and teachers of Annandale and Glendale High Schools extend their heartfelt sympathy and with them share a deep sense of loss.

Again From the Editors

Publication of a year book is preceded by much hard work on the part of many. The TATLER editors would like to acknowledge the help rendered by all contributors and to thank them for their efforts. Because of their willingness we had more material than we could use.

We very much appreciated Miss Grieve's numerous words of advice based on her long experience in publishing this magazine. Her guiding hand showed the way through many difficulties and assured a successful publication. It was a wonderful experience working with you, Miss Grieve.

Mr. Moore has again led our advertising department. With his keen sense of business he has kept us out of the red.

Special thanks go to all the members of the TATLER staff. Your co-operation and assistance in gathering and editing the material helped our combined effort in publishing the TATLER at the earliest date possible. Working with you was a pleasure for us.

As the cover will tell, this edition serves as year book for both Annandale and Glendale schools. We are glad to share this book with our sister school. Furthermore, we cannot fail to mention the full co-operation received from Glendale, particularly from Mr. MacPherson, Mr. Kuhl and other supervising teachers.

Last but not least, we remember those kind and helpful people at the Tillsonburg News office, especially Mr. Pratt and Mr. Goatley, who have given much of their time to aid in organizing and planning the book.

Finally, a few editorial footnotes. Cover designs were submitted by Barbara Augustine of 13 and Lesslie Askin of 12A, the former receiving the laurels for our cover.

If you have missed the foreign language section, its sad fate was not part of our policy. Lack of student contributions left us no other solution.

PHOTO FAME

The Tatler staff wishes to thank Mr. Mansfield for taking all the photographs of the graduates; volleyball, basketball and football teams; the Tatler staff and the teaching staff. These pictures have helped greatly in making this year's Tatler, your yearbook, a success.

Long after names have been forgotten the pictures in your yearbook will bring back memories of your high school days. The staff would, therefore, like to express their thanks to the following students for their contributions to the 1960 Tatler: Jean Van Heukelom, Valma Peaker, Carol MacDonald, Freida De Leeuw, Lois Cooper, Judy Barrager, Ken Chubb. And from Glendale: Ruth Pettman, Shirley Barrie, Linda Rubie.

Bob Moulton 13C.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS

The TATLER business staff offer their thanks to you who have again given us your support, and extend a special welcome to all our new advertisers. Without your help we could not publish the TATLER at a price the students could afford. We urge our readers to patronize the firms advertised.

Again, many thanks from the TATLER staff and assistants.

Donna Jean Tillotson
Business Manager

---

John Pressey, of 13B.: "I don't see the difference between university professors and beatniks."

Mr. Rokeby: "Professors at least wash their beards."

Jack Cooper: "You have a lot of dry jokes in the Tatler this year."

Liz Grant: "Oh, I don't know; I put a bunch of them in the incinerator and the fire just roared."

---

Miss Stubbs: "How is your shorthand coming along?"

Schnalzer: "Oh, it's almost as long as my other one."

GLENDALE

Chip off the old Block!

GLENDALE OFFICIAL OPENING

Among those present for the official opening ceremonies for Glendale High School on March 7, were Principal W. P. Kirkwood; E. R. McClellan, district high school inspector; Donald M. Gibson, chairman of the board; the Hon. John P. Robarts, Ontario Minister of Education, and J. D. McPherson, Glendale Principal.

GLENDALE STAFF

Front Row — Mrs. M. Gorman, Miss M. Hillis, Mrs. B. Aker, Mr. J. D. McPherson, Mrs. G. Todd, Miss C. Sumner, Mrs. D. Fotheringham (secretary). Second Row — Mr. H. Triano, Mr. R. Reid, Mr. A. Martin, Mr. F. Kuhl, Mr. C. Swanstrom. Back Row — Mr. D. Rabb, Mr. R. Murray, Mr. G. Maday.

GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL

Activities at Glendale

New Teachers

Just as Glendale High School itself, many of its teachers are new to Tillsonburg.

The vice-principal, Mr. McPherson, a native of Hamilton, came to us from Ingersoll Collegiate Institute. Previously he had taught at Kirkland Lake for ten years. A father of four children, he hopes to move to Tillsonburg by next fall. Mr. McPherson graduated from McMaster University with Honours B.A. in History. At Glendale, besides the administration, he also teaches history and occupations. As vice-principal, he is very pleased with the good student-body, their scholasticism and school spirit. Photography and reading are his hobbies.

Miss Sumner, who teaches physical education and English lives in London. There she attended Medway H.S. and U.W.O. She enjoys teaching here and has found considerable talent for a basketball team.

Not new to Tillsonburg, but new to the teaching staff, Mr. Triano, born at Niagara Falls, teaches physical education and English. After graduating from Assumption University at Windsor, he came to Tillsonburg and played for the Livvies. He hopes that his up-coming junior basketball team will be even better next year.

Mrs. Todd, a native of Harrow, graduated from Queen's University. In her first year as educator, she is teaching commercial subjects. She thinks Glendale is an excellent school.

Mr. Rabb, of Princeton, graduated from the O.A.C. at Guelph. This is his first year of teaching. His subjects include agriculture, science, mathematics and commercial.

Mr. Swanstrom, the industrial arts teacher, last year was teaching at Sault Ste. Marie. He had attended Michigan State University, the U.W.O. and the University of Toronto. He is satisfied with the new school, and also praised the students cooperative attitude.

Mr. Maday, born in Hungary, is a graduate of the University of Budapest. He is teaching French, German, history, social studies and geography in his first year on the teaching staff. He said he enjoys teaching at Glendale.

GLENDALE CADET OFFICERS

Seated — RSM. M. Campbell, C/Lt M. Kniffen, C/Lt J. Boughner, C/Lt L. Winegardner.
 Standing — C/Lt J. Manning, C/Lt R. Russell, Capt. R. Murray (instructor), C/Lt G. Harris.

Mrs. Fotheringham, of Atwood, Ontario, holds the secretarial position. Before moving to Tillsonburg six years ago, she had been secretary at Dryden and Listowel High Schools. "The wonderful staff, the lovely office and the modern equipment," she said, "make it one of the best offices I have ever worked in."

Students' Council

Glendale's Students' Council, for this year at least, has been somewhat unlike that of Annandale.

While we were still in the Annandale building, each of our eleven classes elected a representative. These form representatives were: Mike Campbell (10A), Sherrill Christo (10B), Marilyn Kennedy (10C), Mervin Scott (10D), Clarke Armstrong (9A), Jolan Stier (9B), Ted Gignac (9C1), Shirley Ghesquiere (9C2), Tom McMorine (9D), Glenda Soper (9E), Gerard Van Der Hoeven (9F).

The first and chief task was to choose school colours. Green and gold were the final choice: green to represent a fresh, new school and the outdoors for athletics, gold to show our relationship to Annandale.

Once moved to our new school, the council met more often to discuss problems forever popping up. At Christmas the Council put up a Christmas tree and decorations and produced a very successful assembly.

The next big event was the "At Home," and all of us at Glendale wish to thank the Students' Council of Annandale for their kind invitation to attend their dance. They are to be commended for the wonderful job they did.

Glendale finally got around to putting on a dance of its own. This was held after a Glendale-Annandale basketball game. For our first attempt, it was fairly successful.

On March 7, our sparkling new school was officially opened by the Honourable John P. Robarts, Minister of Education, in a very impressive ceremony. D. F. Gibson, Chairman of the High School Board, presided, and board members and distinguished visitors were present on the platform.

Principal W. P. Kirkwood, and Glendale's vice-principal, our Mr. McPherson, made short addresses.

Things have gone well this year for Glendale Students' Council under the guidance of Mr. R. Reid.

Mike Campbell 10A.

Typing Room Activity

Daily from Tuesday through Thursday optimistic people with bright faces troop into room 22, secure a typewriter, look frantically for a book, and spend precious moments inserting paper in the machine. This is the typing class. At this point they look at the blank keys and wonder, "Now what am I going to do?"

After several tries one of these novices finds "f" and beams with pride. But trouble is soon upon him, for he cannot distinguish "r" from "e." The optimistic look changes to one of despair.

This has been going on since Christmas, and the most expert of these would-be typists is on lesson 5. As if that is not enough, the neophytes have to bear the snickers of the commercial classes who eye their struggles. But maybe — just maybe — some day we'll learn too!

Shirley Barrie 10A.

Noon Hour Fun

Most of Glendale's students are proud of their canteen, an unusual feature not enjoyed by many other schools. From the canteen may be purchased school supplies, food and soft drinks.

Many of the students are from out of town. Dancing is permitted in the sixth period to those who do not go home for lunch. Because sometimes the weather is unpleasant, students are asked to study in the cafeteria during the seventh period.

Karen Smith 9E.
Heather Pow 9E.

Christmas Assembly

Carols echoed through the halls as students filed into the gymnasium for Glendale's first assembly. The school overflowed with the spirit of Christmas.

The program began with the Christmas story read from the Bible by Sherrill Christo. The junior choir sang two selections.

Mary Ann Kniffen's piano solo, "Scottis Poem," was followed by a vocal duet, "O Holy Night," sung by Janice Faulkner and Sharon Jamieson. Frank Magashazi played an accordion solo.

The program continued with two humorous performances, one being Glendale's ventriloquist, Ann Long, with her little pal Sam, the other being a comical skit, "The Night before Christmas," put on by 10A.

Mr. McPherson concluded the assembly by wishing everyone a merry Christmas.

Telephone Assembly

In February Mr. Forrester, of the Bell Telephone Company, spoke to the Glendale students, as he did also at Annandale, about the inventions of our modern world.

In concluding his interesting and informative address, which was accompanied by a demonstration of technical equipment, Mr. Forrester stressed the importance of education.

Sharon Sinden 10A.

10D Notebook

Although not tops in athletics, the 10D boys, led by Doug M. placed third in inter-form basketball.

Inquiry proved home economics was a favourite class of the girls, with Faye M. and Sandra S. becoming bedaubed with chocolate batter, Teresa K., Linda F., Faye M. and Sandra S. washing dishes at 3:32 and four desperadoes making a raid on the refrigerator.

Doug M. and Fred F. assured themselves of an argumentative future and the class was led scholastically by Marvin M. and Jean R.

Much credit goes to our teachers and special thanks to Mr. Reid, our home room teacher.

The Closing Hand

I had only a few precious moments to escape the giant frightening hands closing fast around me. I was a slave to the giant, and each day I would be drawn back to climb past the waving arms and into his house. The giant overwhelmed me with the sweet aroma that floated out to me, drugging me into a stupor. Along with my many friends I would stay all day, taking in as much food as possible. Night came on, and filled to the brim with the amount of liquor I had engulfed, I started the long, hard climb back to the sunlight. I could see the sunlight fading, and not wanting to be trapped, I started to scurry toward the entrance. As I approached, the giant's curved hands began to close. Close to panic, I stumbled, one leg over another, to the entrance. I arrived at my destination just in time to escape the closing doors, and as I sat breathless on the giant's hands, I wondered how human beings could think a rose so beautiful, when a poor little ant has to run for dear life when it closes its lovely, perfumed petals for the night.

Winifred Burtch 10A.

Glendale Cadet Corps

Under Captain Murray, the Glendale High School Cadet Corps has started, in spite of the delay caused by the shift system.

Cadet instructors of the Corps are: Jim Boughner, Mike Campbell and Jim Manning. Mr. H. Triano and Mr. R. Reid also instruct.

Drilling in the gymnasium during the winter, the cadets went outside after Easter.

The Officers' and N.C.O.'s class, held each Wednesday, has the task of training future leaders and instructors. This year grade nine boys participated.

On April 2, some of the grade ten N.C.O.'s went to Ipperwash with the Annandale group. Here they received training in the firing of the FW's and 303's.

In this year's inspection the Glendale

Cadet Corps will receive its flags with the Annandale Corps.

School Newspaper

Although originally planned as a monthly, The Glendale Glitter was published only once (May 16) during the spring term.

GLENDALE STUDENT'S COUNCIL

Front Row — G. Soper, J. Stier, S. Christo, Mr. R. Reid, M. Kennedy, S. Ghesquiere. Centre Row — C. Armstrong, T. Gignac, T. McMorine, M. Scott. Back Row — G. VanDerHoeven, M. Campbell.

ANNANDALE-GLENDALE JUNIOR
PUBLIC SPEAKING WINNERS
Murray Kniffen, Shirley Barrie, Mr. Kuhl

Many students, representing almost all classes at Glendale, contributed items ranging from lyric poems to classroom humour and helped to make the first limited edition of one hundred copies a resounding success. It is hoped The Glendale Glitter will become a monthly project beginning September, 1960.

(Editors' note: We hope it will show an example to Annandale).

GLENDALE CONTEST WINNERS
Sherrill Christo (Cheer), Sharon Sinden (Song),
Barbara Wilson (Crest), Jeanne Ireland (Song),
Erlene Powers (Cheer).

Art Club

The art club has not really had much of a chance, for something always seems to turn up on Tuesday, the club's meeting night.

However, a start has been made and everyone seems to be enjoying the current project, monochromatic and analogous paintings.

The first and main project was the designing of school crests. One of the members, Barbara Wilson, was the winner in this competition.

It is hoped that having made its start, the club will continue next year.

Library Club

This organization, formed soon after the opening of Glendale High School, consisted of ten members who met at certain times throughout the year in room 11 for the purpose of reading new books for the shelves. Starting in March, the library was open Monday through Friday during period 6 for the convenience of students wanting to procure books.

Although a great deal of work was not accomplished because of the lack of time, it is hoped that much useful work concerned with the cataloguing of books may be completed during the school year 1960-61.

Glendale Chit-Chat

Mr. Reid told 10A that if they had not already obtained their TATLER they could do so by showing their TATLER slip.

Jeannie: "Sir, I've lost my slip."

Mr. Reid: "Quick, everyone! Hide your eyes!"

Mrs. Aker asked inattentive Christian to answer her question.

Christian: "What was the question again?"

Mrs. Aker: "Why weren't you listening?"

Christian: "I was, but I don't know how to translate the question from French to English."

Mrs. Aker: "I asked it in English!"

Mr. Reid noticed Jeannie with a pencil half way down her throat. A few minutes later he firmly told her to be quiet. Still later, as she chattered on, he said, "Perhaps you had better put that pencil back in your mouth."

Sports at Glendale

Track and Field

Our track and field meet was held with our cross-town rival, Annandale. The only competition between our schools was in the junior division. Here Glendale soundly defeated Annandale, 180 to 97.

Junior champions were from Glendale. Francis De Brabander amassed twenty-one points for the junior boys' cup and Sandra Singer won the girls' with eighteen.

In the intermediate division, altho' there was no inter-school competition, Glendale gave a good account of herself because of the efforts of Don Baird, Ken Lachine, Mervin Scott and Rory Barendregt.

Within Glendale, the class championship went to 9F who totalled 82 points; 9A was second with 77. From 9F Gerard Van Der Hoeven and Susan Ellis were top point-getters.

Some of the winners in the junior divisions were Sandra Singer, Susan Ellis, Bill Knott, Francis De Brabander, Ed Ecker and Charlie Hogarth.

We of Glendale hope that our track and facilities will be improved so that next year we may enter WOSSA competition.

Girls' Basketball

Hi! I am a member of the basketball team and here to tell you all about us. All about us? Well, from one point of view there is not much to tell, but from another there is plenty.

I'll tell you who we are. Forwards: Carole Lockey, Teresa Kraftscik, Jeanne Ireland, Blanche Varga, Shirley Barrie, Faye McGlynn, Lois Smith, Barbara Wilson. Guards: Veronica Francois, Barbara Ann Haley, Sherrill Christo, Joan MacDonald, Pat Patchell, Barbara Stafford, Sharon Sinden. Our hardworking captain was Veronica. Great work, Ronnie!

Although rather jittery and excited for our first game against Arthur Voaden of St. Thomas, we held our own. No scores will be mentioned! We lost every game! But we are new and have not learned all the tricks of the trade yet. We'll show you next year.

The first game we shall always remember. We sang and cheered through every town. It was on that first trip that a name for the team was chosen, the Glendale Golden Leaves, and our motto, "We try, regardless."

In the following games, against St. Joseph's, Aylmer and our nearest rival, Annandale, we gained new experience and a new mascot, a cuddly white polar bear, decked out with green and gold ribbon. Next year we know he will bring us luck.

It was a wonderful season. We made faithful new friends, real friends because we supported each other, worked together, were happy together and disappointed together. On behalf of the team I say "Thank you" to the teachers who helped us, the bus drivers, and above all Miss Sumner. Miss Sumner, you were simply great, and so tolerant.

Barbara Wilson 10A.

Girls' Curling

Each Tuesday afternoon the girls' curling club met to sweep away their troubles.

Two rinks which travelled to Aylmer for the district bonspiel consisted of: Lois Cooper, Margot Seldon, Judy Barrager, Lyn Couse; Ruth Mooney, Veronica Francois, Carole Reid, Susan Stevenson. As can be seen, Glendale girls were participants.

Results of the playoffs for the News Trophy and WOSSA championship, to be seen in the Annandale section, show Glendale girls again taking part.

Let's go out in greater numbers next year, Glendale, and sweep them off their feet.

Sharon Sinden 10A.

Girls' Volleyball

Although our junior team was not entered in WOSSA, we had fun at our practices and in the four games we played against Annandale juniors, of these four games we won two. The fourth game we lost by only one point.

The team was coached by Miss Sumner and consisted of: S. Sinden, C. Livingstone, C. Lockey, T. Kraftscik, S. Singer, N. Serinas, B. McQuiggan, J. Bentley, A. Goossens, L. Campion-Smith, D. Bentley, and B. Tribe.

Teresa Kraftscik 10D.

9F Wins Inter-Form Basketball

After a forty-five-game schedule the boys from 10C were on top of the league and given a bye into the championship game. 10B and 10D were deadlocked for third place, and a playoff was necessary to determine the second-place team. 10D won and played 9F in a hard-fought contest with 9F winning.

In the championship game, the 10C boys played 9F and a close contest followed. 9F took an early lead and time ran out before 10C really found themselves. The final score was 8-4.

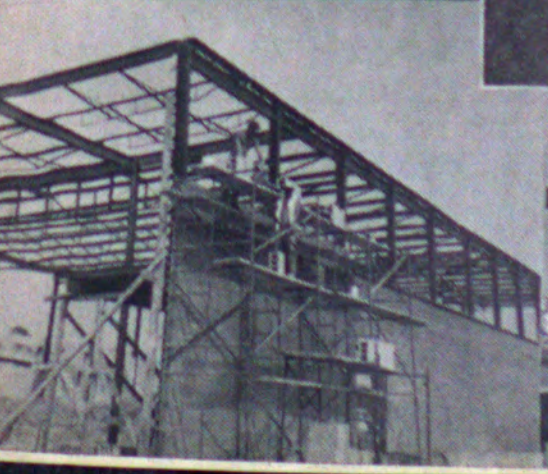

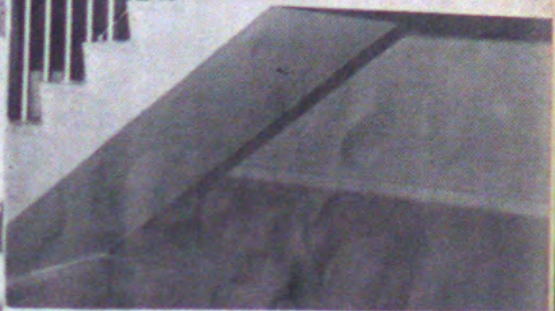

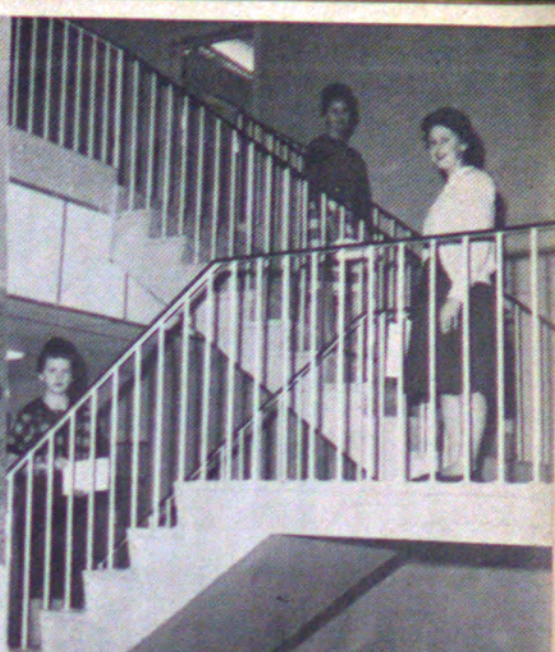

The winning team was composed of G. Smith, J. Weston, G. Van Der Hoeven, B. Shaw, L. Swinn, D. Taylor, J. Stonkus, A. Hassel, K. Williams, and W. Wolfe.

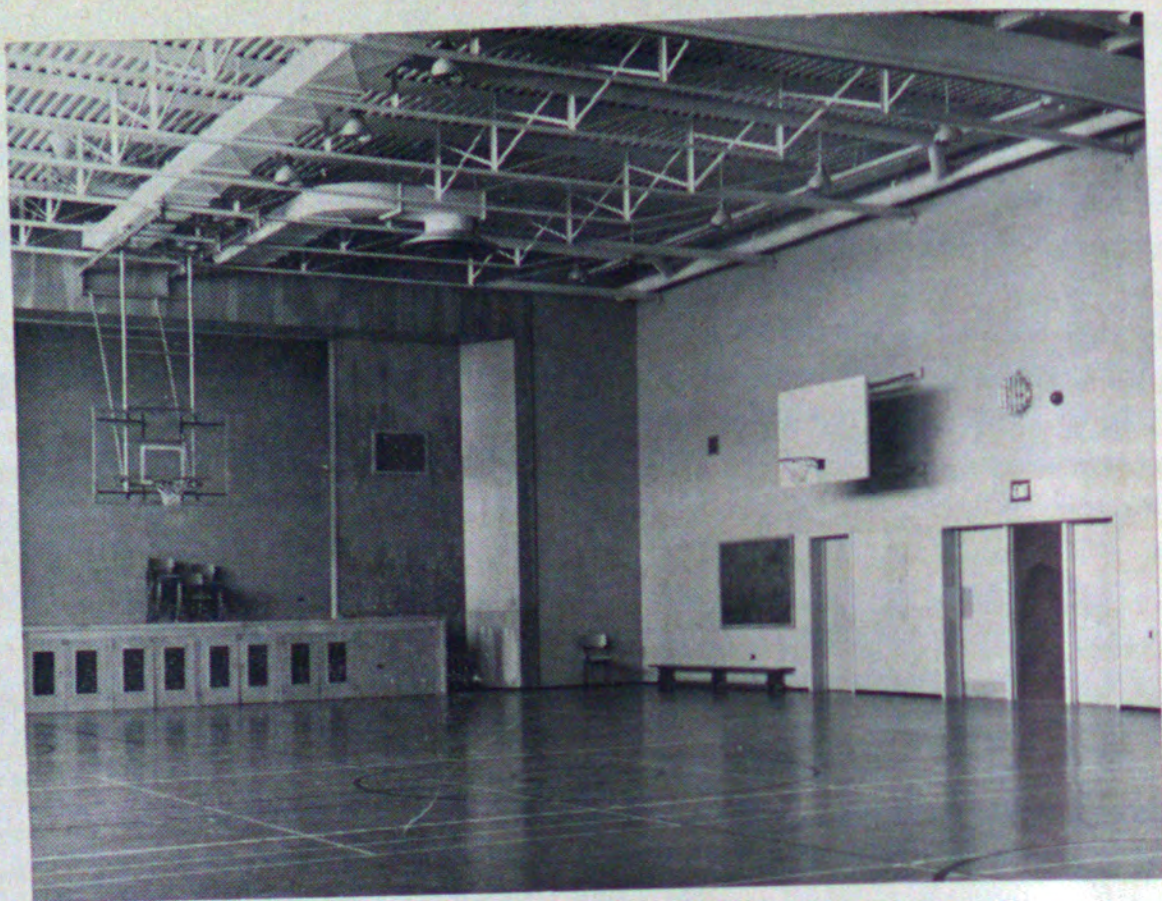

The league proved to be a lot of fun. It not only provided the boys of the school with a noon-hour activity but also taught them the fundamentals of basketball.

Junior Boys' Basketball

The junior boys had a fairly good season in their first year in the league. None of the boys on the team had ever played on a school team before.

Eight league games were played, two each against Aylmer, Annandale, St. Joseph's and Arthur Voaden. The boys lost six and won two games, both against Aylmer. In two exhibition games the team defeated the teachers 30-29 and Ingersoll 53-44.

Scores were:

Glendale	36	Arthur Voaden	49
	21	St. Joseph's	53
	17	Arthur Voaden	33
	47	Aylmer	18
	29	Annandale	43
	30	St. Joseph's	64
	42	Aylmer	28
	34	Annandale	35

Team members were: R. Ross, C. Hogarth, J. Orendorff, K. Groom, D. Heath, B. Carroll, B. Anderson, D. Thurston, G. McKay, and B. Thatcher.

Good luck next year, boys!

1960-61 Sports Preview

This year there have been relatively few activities at Glendale, but we hope next year to really "get the show on the road." The main event of the fall term will be the formation of the junior football team. Glendale will have the junior team and Annandale the senior for both schools. This system will continue for two years or so.

Coupled with football will be cheerleading. This year we had a cheerleading squad but not until almost everything was finished. I sneaked a few peeks at them when they were going through their paces and I think we should have a good team next year.

On the whole it looks as if Glendale will have a busy and successful year in sports.

Would someone please tell Mr. K. that 10A does not have a dirt-track mind? It's not our fault that he asks the questions in such a misleading manner.

In Latin class Mr. Reid asked what case a certain noun should be. Witty Wittman finally came up with a brilliantly correct answer.

Mr. Reid ruined it all with, "Why, Martin?"

Wittman, confounded, was forced to reply, "I don't know, but it was the only case left."

Student Council Election

It was just another ordinary school day—until we entered the school. We then discovered that it had been invaded . . . not by the Martians, or the Russians, but by the "Volts" and the "Vigours." The Student Council election campaign for 1959-60 had begun.

As soon as we stepped inside the door, we were confronted by candidates of both parties and given a hat or fancy tag to wear. It was soon brought to our attention, as it was many times during the next three days, who was running for what position and on what party. In the Volt party, Jim Sorrenti, Lyn Brown, Elsie Foreman and Mary Ann Gradish were running for the offices of president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, while the executive consisted of Diane Thompson, Larry Long, Linda Thompson and Ted Pitcher. Frank Felkai, Rory MacDonald, Susan Ross and Pat Martyn held the main offices of the Vigour party, and Janet Bamford, Bill Dodd, Larry Davis and Hugh Pearce formed the executive.

The shift system was still in use and the students of the other school must have wondered what had happened when they found the blackboards covered with 'Volt' and 'Vigour,' the foyer decorated with posters and the occasional forlorn hat on the floor.

On our trek from class-room to class-room, we were entertained by the antic songs of the candidates as they paraded down the corridors in their weird costumes. One candidate had a hat so tall that it was necessary to duck upon entering a room in order to avoid breaking the light-bulb perched on the top!

As it was impossible to have an assembly this year, we had to be content with speeches over the P.A. System.

The arrival of voting day meant the disappearance of all "propaganda," making the halls and rooms look suddenly bare. After the ballots had been marked and collected, the waiting began. All afternoon, the candidates waited in agony as the count was made and checked. Finally, the results were given. Jim Sorrenti was the new president; Lyn Brown the vice-president; Pat Martyn secretary; and Mary Ann Gradish treasurer. The executive consisted of Diane Thompson, Larry Davis, Larry Long and Janet Bamford.

Remembrance Day Services

The annual Remembrance Day assembly could not be held in the auditorium because of the shift system. Instead, on Tuesday, November 10, 1959, senior officers of the Cadet Corps conducted the service through the public address system.

The service commenced at 8 a.m. as the Lord's Prayer was led by C/Maj. John Pressey; the Scripture reading by C/Maj. Fred Beattie followed.

C/Maj. Bruce Hogarth, C.O., read the Sentences of Remembrance. He reminded us of our patriotic duty to pay homage to the fallen, who gave their lives to uphold freedom. One minute's silence followed in honour of the dead.

C/Maj. John Mifkovic presented the Sentences of Thanksgiving. Thanks to these men's supreme sacrifice, he said, we live today in peace, prosperity and democracy.

When the chief instructor, Maj. J. W. Reid C.D., had read his Sentences of Dedication, the National Anthem concluded the service. The program was repeated at 12:35 for Glendale High School.

Cadets At Cenotaph

At the Tillsonburg Community Remembrance Day service at the cenotaph, Tillsonburg High Schools' cadets were represented by a cadet firing squad which fired three volleys, the honour guard of the NCO class and the band.

Lt. Col. Lawrence Fedoruk paid tribute in our name as he placed a wreath on the cenotaph. C/Maj. Bruce Hogarth commanded the cadets; C/Maj. R. MacDonald, who also played the Last Post and Reveille, was in charge of the band. C/Capt. Don Wood was in charge of the Flag Party.

New Teachers

Annandale again welcomed new teachers on the staff.

For Miss Clarke, this is the first year of teaching after attending U.W.O. She teaches English and physical education. She is also the coach of volleyball and basketball teams. In her opinion, transportation problems hinder our sports achievements.

In room 11 we met Mrs. DeCiry, professeur de francais. Last year she taught in Port Arthur. She thinks the pupils are very nice.

Miss Cleaver, born in Burlington, graduated from the University of Toronto in 1959. In her first year she is teaching home economics and P.E.

Mrs. Clark's subject is mathematics. She graduated from Victoria College, University of Toronto and is now living in Springfield.

The well-known musical director of both Glendale and Annandale, Mr. Martin, also came from the University of Toronto. He was born in Waterloo, graduated from the University of Toronto in 1958, and is now teaching music and English. He is also a proud father of two children. When asked about his opinion of the school, he pleaded the Fifth Amendment.

Go to the Fair

Last year our schools had an exhibition at the Tillsonburg Fair. We may be prejudiced, but it was the best display in the agricultural building. It was a three-sided exhibit of finished products from the Tillsonburg District High Schools.

One side contained a collection of Tatlers from 1956 to 1960. Some of the earliest copies were on display for the public to examine. Plans for the now-operating Glendale High School, and vocational and university calendars completed this area.

At the end of this exhibit a trophy case contained most of our school awards; here were the curling trophies, the Jaycee Driving trophy, the Strathcona shields, and other trophies and pennants.

The woodworking and metal shops completed the exhibition in the third section. Here was the finest collection of hand-craft to be seen anywhere. Lamps, bookshelves, desks and other articles showed the talent of the boys. The Library Club displayed new books, and the science department showed home project reports and insect collections.

Anyone who attended the fair will remember the huge sign announcing "Tillsonburg District High Schools." Barbara and John Augustine and Peter Gamlin spent about fifty hours on this major task.

Staff members responsible for the exhibit were Mr. Parkhill, Mr. Williams, Mr. Tulloch, Miss Grieve, Mr. Moore, Mr. Orr, Mr. Hart and Mr. Thiers. Students who helped were Kathy Hibbert, Peg Parkhill, Peter McNally, John Lamers and Gary Thompson.

Christmas Assembly

The Christmas Assembly was held on December 22, 1959. Jim Sorrenti, president of the Student Council, was Master of Ceremonies.

The Livingston Cheer Leaders, dressed in black and white with red streamers setting off their costumes, began with a colourful dance.

Decked out in long white underwear and topped with antlers, the cheerleaders wiggled through a lively ditty: The Happy Reindeer.

To interrupt our gaiety and add a touch of humour Lloyd Troyer appeared sporadically from strange hideouts. Each time he was dressed as a new spooky character.

Some of the football players, dressed as Boy Scouts, clowned up a mime of the record "Battle of Camp Kookamonga." (Sorry to say they did not catch any girls).

Throughout the programme the school sang carols under the leadership of Miss Field.

Soon Santa Claus, played by Larry Davis, bounced on the stage throwing bubblegum to the students and giving more dignified presents to the staff and teachers without home rooms. May we congratulate you Larry; you did a good job.

All in all it was a very good Christmas Assembly and a big applause should be given to the Student Council for their hard work.

Mary Ann Van DerHoeven 12B.

Parents' Night

The staffs of Annandale and Glendale High Schools received many parents on Monday, January the eleventh, and Wednesday, January the thirteenth. The parents, we are sure, were as glad of this opportunity to talk with the teachers as the teachers were pleased at the genuine interest shown by the parents.

Campus Capers

Have you noticed our school reporter hustling down town at noon on Tuesday each week? If not, you must have read her breezy articles on what is going on at Annandale. From field day coverage to the Christmas assembly, from sports to Friday night dances and the annual "At Home," our reporter to the Tillsonburg News, Jeanne Francia, obtains all the behind-the-scene details. Everyone enjoys her refresher course of school events each week in "Campus Capers." Thank you, Jeanne, for a difficult job well done.

Glee Club Trip

On January 28, forty members of the operetta cast from grades eleven, twelve and thirteen, accompanied by Miss Field, Mrs. Tulloch, Mr. Martin and Mr. Orr, travelled to Toronto.

As guests of the I.B.M. Club, they enjoyed a delightful performance of "H.M.S. Pinafore," presented by that organization, and a very appetizing lunch. Inspired by this experience, the forty travellers came home resolved to work twice as hard for their own "Pinafore" performance.

Joanne Ellis 12A.

H.M.S. Pinafore

There was never a finer operetta staged in the Annandale High School Auditorium. What !! Never?? Well — hardly ever. For the second year the Glee Club presented a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta and no one was disappointed with the production. Prompting was unheard of as the "leads" swept through their parts without a flaw.

Three nights in a row, the audiences were treated to the fine acting and lively songs of H.M.S. PINAFORE. Rory MacDonald played the part of the haughty and conceited Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B. Captain Corcoran appeared in real life as Ted Winter who put every ounce of effort into every performance. Back for his second year as one of the "stars" was Paul Millard who filled the auditorium with his rich, mellow voice and ended up marrying the leading lady (in the operetta that is ! ) Horrible Dick Deadeye, with his red beard and evil crouch, won the disgust of the sisters, cousins, aunts and sailors on the Pinafore for continually trying to win the heart of fair Josephine, but won also the plaudits of the audience each night. A trip to the chiropractor got Ken Chubb's back into shape again after his top-notch performance. Barry McLuhan as the Boatswain was a member of the trio ("for a British Tar is a soaring soul") and bellowed out his song, "For he is an Englishman" in a convincing style. The chorus girls liked his graying beard but complained that it tickled and also smeared their make-up. The cause of all the trouble on the Pinafore stemmed from lovely Josephine, the Captain's daughter, who rejected the proposals of Sir Joseph and fell for the attentions of a lofty formast hand. Ruth Mooney and Helen Pressey shared this role and won the hearts of some of the sailors when they appeared in their lovely pink dresses. Elizabeth Liptak was seen following Rory MacDonald (Sir Joseph) around during most of the operetta. Apparently her persistence wasn't in vain as she finally became the wife of the distinguished first Lord of the Admiralty. Mrs. Cripps was played by Ruth Hoy'e and Helen Payne. Little Buttercup as she was better known also "got her man" in the person of Captain Corcoran. As you can see, everyone got married and lived happily ever after. Midshipmate Bill Babbey seemed to be in the right place at the right time and won many laughs for his odd antics. Jim Tulloch, a carpenter, added some bass tones to the trio.

"I've just learned how to make cocoa, sir !"

Of course, we could not have had an operetta without the chorus. When Sir Joseph Porter arrived on the H.M.S. Pinafore, he brought his sisters and his cousins and his aunts in the persons of Susan and Janette Reid, Beth Herron, Virginia Burnett, Margaret Emerson, Jeanne Francia, Nan Weston, Sandra Gorman, Elaine Pearce, Marcia and Sharon Bissett, Roberta Rice, Karen Lee, Mary Lois Jeffery, Helga Lileikis, Karen Gullen, Joanne Ellis, Loretta Franssens, Margaret Swayze, Linda Stephenson, Marie Manning. What kind of ship would the Pinafore had been without some robust, able-bodied seamen? The Annandale boys were equal to the occasion and the hardy tars were Bill Anderson, Docho Docheff, Ted Pitcher, John Fabi, Richard Van Severn, Peter McNally, Harold Bentley, John Pressey, Ray Irvine, Eddie Vindasius, Mike Pepper, Julius Felkai, Terry Armstrong, David MacDonald, William Beattie and Martin Veltman.

Once again, many of the staff members and students contributed time and effort to make the operetta a success. These important members of the production looked after the business, publicity, ushers, set construction, lighting, costumes, make-up, and as members in the orchestra. Barbara Augustine, Janet Gillatly and Susan Baxter, under the direction of Mr. Kelly did a marvellous piece of work on the backdrop and the lighting complemented it to perfection. In charge of lighting was Mr. W. Parkhill, assisted by Mr. Grose, R. Goncz, J. McDonald and C. Ehl.

Musical directors were Miss Field and Mr. Martin. Mr. Orr staged the operetta and was responsible for getting some of the funny situations woven into the operetta. Mrs. Tulloch worked tirelessly as our accompanist. Special thanks to those people who contributed their time and effort so wholeheartedly.

It was one of the real school efforts of the year. Was there ever a better operetta? Well—

John Pressey 13B.

Drama Club

The Drama Club was formed this year to enable junior students to display their dramatic talents. The supervisors, Miss Bonis and Mrs. Stafford, took on the arduous task of bringing out these abilities.

The members are J. Bryant, E. Davis, E. DeKraker, M. D'Hondt, M. Docheff, L. Labadie, G. Mickle, E. T. B. Vigh, L. Winter, G. Vandendriessche. If possible the members would like to produce a play on stage. They are presently working on the play "The Pigeon with the Silver Foot." Some are warming up for the operetta next year.

With strenuous work, the enthusiastic members hope to make the club a success.

Friday Night Dances

To start the year off with a "bang" last year's Student Council sponsored the "Twin School Whirl" on September 18. The program for the evening included several bingo, statue and spot dances. This dance was to welcome the newcomers to the school.

On October 2 the "Benefit Ball" was sponsored by the Black Marauders for Don Haycock, an injured Ingersoll football player. A good attendance at this dance showed the genuine interest of our students in helping Don. Refreshments were served at intermission.

The cheerleaders' dance, the "Broomstick Bounce" was held on October 23. The decorations included pumpkins, corn stalks, streamers, black cats and spiders to fit in with the Hallowe'en theme. Refreshments were served.

Again carrying out the autumn theme, this year's Student Council held its first dance, the "Harvest Hop" on October 16. Popcorn, potato chips and cider were served. Special thanks go to Mr. Kocheff of Courtland, who supplied the cider.

Again it was nappy hunting grounds for the girls at Annandale High School with the coming of "Sadie Hawkins Week" sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association. There were spot, elimination, and

Senior Public Speaking

Competition was keen in the mid-year oratorical contest for boys as Harold Watts, John Pressey, Ray Irvine, Peter Smith and Peter McNally vied for the senior trophy. Ray Irvine of 11A, speaking on "Freedom," carried off the cup as most eloquent senior orator, with Harold Watts a close second.

Not so keen was the competition in the girls' senior division. The lone competitor on the distaff side was Regina Rasokas. Although unopposed, Regina scored high enough with her talk, "The Russian Housewife," to win the girls' award.

Library Club

The Library Club, as far as members are concerned, has been very successful this year. There are approximately forty-six members from grades nine, ten, eleven and twelve.

The executive consists of president Ross Gray, vice-president Judy Kitchen, secretary Marlene Peaker; the social committee is made up of Valma Peaker, Carolyn Williams, Jane Bennett, Carol Vaughan and Ada Burwell. Mrs. Richards is the supervisor.

The club operated the cloak room for the Rotary show. Everything was well organized and the evening went smoothly.

This year's members will receive awards for their service to the students of Annandale High School, and they all hope that the students have enjoyed the club's service as much as the members have enjoyed providing it.

Noon-Hour Dancing

At noon the gymnasium has been open for dancing to recorded music provided by the Student Council. Ted Winter and his assistants have been in charge of playing the records.

Cadet Corps No. 240

During the year 1959-1960 the corps participated in numerous activities. On November 11 we were represented by a firing squad, honour guard and the band at the Remembrance Day Services at the Cenotaph. At school, senior cadet officers conducted the services through the P.A. System.

Twice the N.C.O.'s and Officers' Class journeyed to Camp Ipperwash. On both occasions we had shooting competition. On the April trip we could also fire the FN2 rifle.

For the boys of grade nine, ten, and eleven, regular cadet instruction was given every week by instructors or their own cadet officers. About thirty boys attended the N.C.O.'s class. C/RSM F. Felkai was in charge. Mr. Alexander and C/Lt. Leo Pugsley led the First Aid Class. Signalling was conducted by Mr. Tulloch and C/Maj. D. Morrison; Mr. Thiers was in charge of the range operations and Mr. Ross gave grade nine cadets elementary instruction on the rifle.

Early in February the results on the 1959 Strathcona competition were announced. We again received the shield, for the seventh time in eight years. Our mark was outstanding 95.4%. The Corps was commanded by C/Lt./Col. Lawrence Fedoruk.

On May 13, the annual Officers' and N.C.O.'s Dinner was held at Mil-Mar Manor. Lt./Col. F. Klenavic, M.B.E., C.O. 1 Bn. R.C.R. was the guest speaker.

On the third Sunday of May, the Church Parade took place at St. John's and Avondale Churches with the Roman Catholics going to St. Mary's. A march-past on Broadway followed the services.

Then we confidently looked forward to May 18, Inspection Day. Many hours of hard drill preceded the big day. "Esprit de corps" increased by a successful Church Parade, the inspection ceremonies went smoothly in a well disciplined way.

Brig. F. A. Clift, D.S.O., E.D., C.D., Commander Western Ontario Area, was the inspecting officer. At the same time the presentation and dedication of new flags to Glendale Cadet Corps took place. The R.C.R. Corps of Drums from London also participated in the activities. Senior Officers in the battalion were: C/Lt. Col. B. Hogarth C.O., C/Maj. J. Mifkovic 2 ic, C/Capt. J. Flannagan, Adjutant, C/R.S.M. F. Felkai, O ic Flag Party C/Capt. D. Wood, Quartermaster C/Maj. #### O.A.L.C.—1959

In the summer of 1959, Lynda Galloway and Frank Felkai represented our school at the Ontario Athletic Leadership Camp at Lake Couchiching. The camp is the setting for one of the most adventurous experiments in Canadian education. It is making use of the medium of athletics and camp activities, which have wide appeal to young people.

Rules and restrictions are kept to a minimum in order to provide freedom for a self-imposed pattern of behaviour. Each student is very aware of the honour of representing his school; therefore, there is little need for disciplining.

The compulsory sports for the girls were folk dancing, basketball and officiating, and aquatics. The optional sports were gymnastics, track and field, badminton or tennis, golf and archery. From these Lynda chose tennis and archery.

For boys, basketball, aquatics and track and field were the compulsory subjects. Among the options were football coaching, gymnastics, badminton or tennis, and basketball officiating. Frank chose the last two. During the two weeks we also became acquainted with archery, lacrosse, squash, table-tennis, and wrestling.

Our two weeks at this camp provided us with one of the most thrilling events in our lives. We shall never forget the numerous experiences and pleasant relationships with both counsellors and students.

Annandale High School Band

Although the band was smaller this year, due to the shift system and also to the fact that there was no grade nine instrumental class, it has been quite active. After practising for two nights a week (Tuesdays and Fridays), the band made its first appearance on November 11th at the Remembrance Day Service at the Cenotaph. A week later we heard it at our annual Commencement. Later, after it played two nights at the Tillsonburg Ice Carnival, it showed its talent at Glendale Open House. Later in the spring, it played at Annandale Open House and in the Cadet Church Parade.

"Here birdie, birdie . . ."

The members were Maj. R. MacDonald, Lt. B. Morris, C.S.M. S. Boyd, Sgt. M. Emerson, Cpls. D. Collier and D. Ross, and Fusiliers B. Ongena, L. Stevenson, R. Ashby, J. Marshall, A. Emmerson, M. Reynolds, and W. Young. Members from Glendale were Fusiliers B. Jones, L. Pratt, M. MacDonald, and C. Baxter.

To the band, we extend our hearty applause for all its hard work. Thank You!

Assemblies

This year we had two assemblies; both proved to be of great interest to all. Mr. Forester, a representative of the Bell Telephone Company, demonstrated some machines invented by his company. They ranged from machines which flashed lights on and off to one which had an arm which emerged to turn it off. Mr. Forester introduced the new manager of the Bell in our district, Mr. Stewart Rolph, and terminated his speech by encouraging the students to continue their education at all costs.

Whipper Billy Watson, Mr. G. Hollier, and the Director of the Easter Seal Campaign in Tillsonburg came to the school and told us about the crippled children in our country. In his speech, Mr. Watson stressed the idea that we are fortunate people, not handicapped, and should by all means continue our education. For our added enjoyment, Mr. Watson showed us some wrestling holds, using "Hardboiled Bill" Farkas as his "opposition."

Both of the guest speakers stressed the idea of further education, which is a good idea for everyone to think about

Science Club

As in previous years, Mr. Kelly and Mr. Grose have aided students in furthering their interests in some fields of Science.

This year, Mr. Kelly has helped John Weil, Steve Gyorffy, and Ross Gray to do more advanced experiments in chemistry, while Dennis Odorjan, Robert Jacob, and Harold Watts were laboratory assistants.

Mr. Grose has helped some grade nine students and others with electronics, dealing with experiments in electricity and magnetism, and building radios and electric circuits. These boys were Mike Pepper, Mike Bertleff, Melvin Cooper, Ron Harris, and Carl McLuhan.

It is hoped that a group working in biology, as well as those working in chemistry and electronics, will be set up.

Off To Camp

As in every year, in 1960, outstanding students have been chosen to attend camps or to participate in trips sponsored by various organizations.

Janet Baxter and Bill Anderson will spend two unforgettable weeks at the Ontario Athletic Leadership Camp at Lake Couchiching.

Major J. W. Reid has announced that two likely candidates for Banff, the reward for cadets who have actively contributed to the advancement of the Cadet Corps, are C/RSM Frank Felkai and C/Maj. Rory MacDonald.

The Rotary Club of Tillsonburg picked Frank Felkai of 12A. as its choice for its "Adventure in Citizenship" trip to Ottawa as a guest of the Rotary Club there. Frank spent four days in Ottawa, getting acquainted with the nation's capital and the government's functions.

The district lodges of the Independent Order of Oddfellows is sponsoring a United Nations Youth Pilgrimage. The lucky student, Sandra Gorman, was chosen from among the six final candidates: Nan Weston, Millie Richardson, Helen Pressey, Diane Clarke, Sandra Gorman, and Mary Lois Jeffery. The two-week-long trip will take the winner to Ottawa, Montreal, New York, and Washington, D.C. Helen Pressey has been chosen as the alternate candidate.

Student Council Report

In the fall, after an energetic campaign between the Volt and Vigour Parties, another Student Council came to office. This year, we on the Council tried to do all of the usual things expected of us, and a few original things besides.

Immediately after being elected, we held a dance which proved to be highly successful, and from then on things never slowed down.

At every football game, the booth where you bought all those snacks, and even cider and hot chocolate, was operated by the members of the Student Council.

Many students bought school Christmas cards and also purchased photographs of themselves.

After the Christmas assembly, our biggest project was the annual "At Home." This dance took a lot of work, but was well worth it, as the attendance was above that of previous years.

The last big effort on our part was the graduation banquet, attended by all graduating students. And it is here that, speaking for the entire Student Council, I wish to thank all those who have supported and helped us in making our efforts worthwhile. We also owe a special "thank you" to Mr. Rokeby for his guidance and patience with us throughout this busy year.

At Home '60

On the eve of February 12, 1960, we took a wonderful trip to Japan (well, not really—). As we stepped through the doors of the gymnasium, we were transported into an Oriental fantasyland — a Japanese garden complete with lanterns. All shades of blue streamers were hanging from the ceiling.

The guests were greeted by our principal and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood; the chairman of the board and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. Gibson; and the president and vice-president of the Students' Council Jim Sorrenti and Lyn Brown.

We walked over a bridge, under which bubbled a stream that came to rest in a pool dotted with water lilies and fountains.

A beautiful Japanese tree stood gracefully in a corner, a carpet of roses beneath it. The backdrop of the stage was ornamented by a snarling, fire-breathing, golden dragon. The throne rose regally in a corner and a living room was set up with comfortable chairs to rest our weary feet. The bleachers were skillfully disguised as a brick wall with potted plants on top, all adding to the garden wonderland.

In this beautiful and gay atmosphere, we danced to the dreamy music of Len Langley and his orchestra. The lovely decorations were the results of the efforts of a group headed by Diane Thompson. Her helpers were Mary Ann Gradish, Pat Martyn, Donna Heath, Eva Jean Swayze, Jean Van Heukelom, Barbara Augustine, Diane Vandemaele, Pat Mauthe, Sandra Coyle, Alice Thompson, Vicky Swain, Mary Wolf, Sharon Henry, Margaret Swayze, Joyce Palmer, David Smith, Bob Moulton, Jack Cooper, Frank Felkai, Rory MacDonald, Ernie Fazakas, Rick Saxby, Deno Gettas, Larry Davis, Jim Sorrenti, and Peter Smith.

The cafeteria was gaily decorated in the Japanese theme also thanks to Lyn Brown. Japanese murals and beautiful, lacy fans dotted the walls. On the tables, miniature Japanese gardens complemented the decor.

Thank you, Student Council for a lovely, unforgettable evening.

On To Ottawa Club

On the evening of May 5, a group of students from grades eleven and twelve left Woodstock on a C.P.R. special coach and arrived in Ottawa the following morning. After checking into the Lord Elgin Hotel, they spent the rest of the morning visiting the Parliament Buildings and seeing the House of Commons in session. During the afternoon, the Archives, Mint and War Museum were visited. In the evening the group visited the Dominion Observatory.

Saturday morning they visited the Art Gallery and Museum. The afternoon was spent sightseeing in a bus which toured the Ottawa district. At 10 o'clock p.m. they left Canada's capital after an enjoyable weekend. Late the next morning the weary group arrived in Woodstock.

Shift System

I must confess that, in September, the students of T.D.H.S. looked forward to the shift system with happy expectation. Here was a chance to go to school and yet have a holiday, too. However, after a month of half-day classes, moaning could be heard, especially from the upper school students. They resented the continual rush for time, the struggle of teachers trying to cover their work, handicapped by the clock, and especially the fact that there was little time available to ask individual questions.

Another complaint, although less important, against this system was that it did not include half-hour periods for extra-curricular activities. When enthusiasm for dances, assemblies, and clubs was at its peak, it was almost impossible for the students to participate in them.

The shift system was indeed an experience worth remembering, but I am certain that the majority of students would anticipate its return with considerable apprehension.

What Our Teachers Say

Mr. J. W. Reid: "What are you doing in the cafeteria? Would you like a private study room? — with forty other students?"

Miss Field: "Have you taken this?"

---

Mme. DeCiry: "Am I going too quickly? Taisez-vous, Frank!"

---

Mr. Hart: "Isn't that right?"

---

Miss Grieve: "Avoid 'thing' as you would the plague."

---

Miss Bonis: "All right! Will you leave please?"

---

Mr. Orr: "Ahoy now!"

---

Mr. Rokeby: "Ummmmm — Peter (Smith)???"

THE TATLER

AT HOME QUEEN

A Crowning Event

The clock had struck twelve, that magical hour filled with wonder and suspense at the annual "At Home." This year's candidates for the title "Queen"—Connie Ruckle, Peg Parkhill, Rose Marie VanLowe, Kathy Hibbert, and Ruth Ann Clarke — were waiting anxiously on the steps of the throne.

The suspense was broken, for Jim Sorrenti, Student Council President, had announced the winning candidate, Peg Parkhill. Last year's Queen, Joyce Boughner, had the honour of crowning the radiant Peg "Queen of the Hop."

After Jim presented Queen Peg with a gift on behalf of the Student Council, she and her escort, Bruce Hogarth, began the first dance in her reign. Congratulations, Peg!

Girls' Sports

Senior Volleyball

The members of the senior volleyball team of 1959-60 were Judy Stephens, Dianne Cornish, Irene Liptak, Lynne Fairall, Lynda Galloway, Gayle Sanderson, Betty Lelenka, Marie Manning, Marilyn Bartlett, Lil Smith, Joyce Palmer and Veronica Choma.

No exhibition games were played and consequently when the team faced its opponents in the annual Tri-County games, it was not too successful.

The players, coached by Miss Clark, worked very hard, but were defeated by Huron Park and Simcoe. With a little more practice and greater effort we hope for a better record next year.

Gayle Sanderson 12D.

Junior Volleyball

The junior girls, coached by Miss Cleaver, made a strong showing in this year's volleyball season, and with the same spirit could be contenders another year for the Tri-County championship.

In the round robin at Simcoe the team won three out of their four games, but lost to Simcoe in the semi-final.

Team members were Janet Baxter (captain), Sharon Ball, Judy Barrager, Karen Lee, Patricia Mauthe, Marjorie Hooyer, Beatrice Tittman, Joan Winter, Linda Winter, Sharon Peden, Doreen Hotchkiss, Eunice Napran.

We congratulate the girls on their successes and we hope that next year there will be more interest shown in sports by those who are now in grade nine. Let us show our friends that we remember what "school spirit" means. Sue Baxter 13B.

Girls' Athletic Association —

The G.A.A. have had another very successful year. Three dances were sponsored by the organization, the Sadie Hawkins Dance, attended by over three hundred, the Deep Sea Swirl, and the Record Hop with Dean Hagopian as M.C.

Other activities carried on by the G.A.A. were candy sales, provision of refreshments for school games, and the granting of athletic awards.

Members of the executive were: president, Lynda Galloway; vice-president, Sharon Ball; treasurer, Gayle Sanderson; secretary, Beatrice Titman.

Our thanks are extended to Miss Clark, our advisory teacher.

Lynda Galloway

Athletic Awards

Each year the outstanding girl athletes are awarded junior or senior pins by the G.A.A. for athletic achievements.

The awards are given for sportsmanship and athletic ability.

Junior pins were awarded to Sharon Ball, Janet Baxter, Jenny Rekestis, Lynn Fairall, Dorleen Stem, Rosalie Goodger.

Receivers of senior pins were Susan Baxter, Joan Singer, Noreen Lucas, Joyce Palmer.

Congratulations, girls; your fine efforts and your exhibition of school spirit are well appreciated.

Lil Smith 13B.

GIRLS' SENIOR BASKETBALL

Senior Basketball

The 1959-60 senior Golden Gophers were captained by Marie Manning with Dorleen Stem as co-captain. It was disappointing that not too many girls were interested in trying out for the team. "Where is everybody?" seemed to be the favourite cry of our coach, Miss Clark.

The season started out successfully with the Gophers winning an exhibition game against Delhi by a score of 39-25. A second exhibition game, against Simcoe, again saw Tillsonburg win, 22-17.

In league games the Gophers were unsuccessful against Aylmer and St. Joseph's but won over Arthur Voaden with a 28-17 score.

Top scorer for the seniors was Marie Manning, followed closely by Lynda Galloway. Other players were Joyce Palmer, Carol McDonald, Dorleen Stem, Lil Smith, Sue Baxter, Gayle Sanderson, Ruth Mooney, Wendy Gilbert, Marilyn Diamond and Diana Van De Maele. Thanks must go to Carolyn Miller, Mary Napran, Diane Clarke, Irene Liptak and Irene Pocius who filled in when team members were needed.

We do not know the reason for the shortage of players, but we hope to see more girls out next year to produce and support a winning team.

Carol McDonald 13A.

Junior Basketball

Thanks to the precise instructions and the efforts of our wonderful coach, Miss Cleaver, the junior basketball team went to the WOSSA competitions.

"Jump for those rebounds," echoed through the gymnasium many times before the team was ready for WOSSA. Teamwork spelled success for Janet Baxter (captain), Sharon Ball, Judy Barrager, Carole Reid, Yvette Goossens, Mary Ann Babanes, Margaret Stem, Doreen Hotchkiss, Judy Kitchen, Eunice Napran, Joan Winter and Bonnie Helsdon.

The team's career was off to a disappointing start with losses to Delhi and Simcoe in exhibition games. The team improved, however, and went undefeated in the league schedule. Wins were scored over St. Joseph's (37-18), Arthur Voaden (19-7), East Elgin (23-14), Glendale (33-12), East Elgin (25-15), Arthur Voaden (28-10), Glendale (38-8), St. Joseph's (31-20).

In the Tri-County playoffs the team defeated Simcoe with scores of 27-23 and 28-20. Annandale then had the Tri-County Championship and were off to Windsor for WOSSA play. Their games there might have been more successful if Tillsonburg's cheering section had numbered more than five to compete with Leamington's cheering section of several hundred.

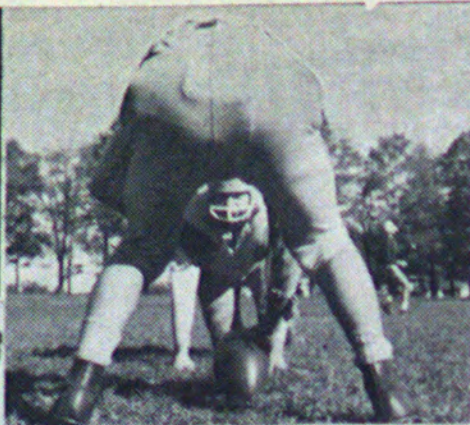

At WOSSA the team won the semi-final but lost the final to take second place to Leamington. Next year we will try for first place; with more support and should take it.

Track and Field

In October, Annandale and Glendale Schools took part in the annual track and field meet on Annandale grounds. Congratulations are merited by all who participated and especially those who won. This year a large number signed up for the events, a gratifying sign of student interest.

First place winners in the events were:

75 Yard Dash

Junior, Susan Ellis (Glendale).
Intermediate, Sharon Ball (Annandale).
Senior, Marie Manning (A).

Relay

Junior, Lois Smith, S. Ellis, M. Dutton, R. Lava (G).
Intermediate, L. Cooper, M. Hewer, V. Choma, B. Wilkinson (A).
Senior, D. Stem, L. Newman, D. Heath, M. Swayze (A).

Basketball Trio

Senior, C. McDonald (A).

Standing Broad Jump

Junior, S. Singer (G).
Intermediate, S. Ball (A).
Senior, M. Manning (A).

Softball Throw

Junior, D. Hotchkiss (A).
Intermediate, J. Kitchen (A).
Senior, D. Stem (A).

Individual Champions

Junior, Sandra Singer (G).
Intermediate, Sharon Ball (A).
Senior, Marie Manning (A).

Girls' Curling

The Girls' Curling Club has had a lively season under its executive, president Lois Cooper, vice-president Judy Barrager, and treasurer Suzanne Stephenson.

Four rinks played off for the Tillsonburg News Trophy. The winner was the team skipped by Margot Seldon; its other members were Carole Reid, Karen Gullen and Patty Freeman. Each team curled three games in this tournament.

The Tri-County Bonspiel was held at Aylmer. The W. P. Kirkwood Trophy was won by an Aylmer rink. Two Tillsonburg rinks competed with rinks from Aylmer and Simcoe.

The WOSSA Bonspiel was held at Simcoe. The rink skipped by Ruth Mooney, with Lois Cooper, Judy Barrager and Veronica Francois, lost the tournament by one point. Simcoe proved just a little too good for them. Aylmer too participated in this competition.

The Curling Club would like to thank specially Mrs. E. Shieck, Miss June Boyd and Miss Clark for their help.

It was encouraging to have a larger membership this year. As there is still room for more members, girls who want to get out and have fun should join the Girls' Curling Club next year.

Judy Barrager 11A.

Girls' Bowling Club

"Don't bounce the ball!" This warning was heard by each bowler who tried her hand at the game for the first time.

Although bowling did not begin until January because of the shift system, we managed to divide into four teams and play a number of games.

The teams were: Goofers — J. VanHeuvelom (captain), C. Prouse, S. Robinson, B. Helsdon; Streaks — M. A. Gradish (captain), Diane Clarke, S. Kennedy, M. Richardson, M. A. VanDerHoeven; Lucky Devils — Maria Wolf (captain), R. Alward, P. Carroll, M. Peaker, V. Peaker Polka Dots — H. Lamos (captain), Carol Prong, R. A. Clark, C. Mitchell, S. Peden.

With four wins the Polka Dots came in first, followed by the Streaks with two.

Millie Richardson 12A.

Senior Cheerleaders

The senior cheerleaders once again bounced through all the football and basketball games with customary enthusiasm. The difficult task of selecting the girls was assigned to Miss Grieve and Mr. J. W. Reid, who in spite of the large number of aspirants managed to choose the following: Dianne Scrimgeour, Alice Thompson, Linda Stephenson, Margaret Swayze, June Morrison, Connie Prouse, Priscilla Magee, with Cathy Moore and Marilyn Diamond as substitutes.

The year went quickly and eventfully for the girls who tried out for the Western Ontario Cheerleading Championship. Although their gallant efforts met with defeat, they will be back next year trying even harder.

The addition of new cheers appealed to the student body and they rewarded the cheerleaders with loud applause. Among cheers, cartwheels and silly mistakes, the cheerleaders enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Alice Thompson
Margaret Swayze 12B.

Annandale Senior Cheerleaders

Kneeling — A. Thompson, J. Morris, D. Scrimgeour, C. Prouse, K. Moore.

Standing — M. Diamond, L. Stephenson, M. Swayze.

Junior Cheerleaders

After many weeks of practice, the day finally arrived when eight of the many candidates were awarded the coveted position of cheerleader.

The thrilled eight were Dianne Cornish, Carole Sinden, Freida DeLeeuw, Betty Lou Hall, Susan Channer, Sandra Freed, and captain Diana VanDeMaele.

The first game of the season was quite a big one for us girls; we shivered and shook like leaves. In our anxiety we had overlooked one thing; we had only seven uniforms. What were we to do? The Seniors came to our rescue and allowed us to use one of theirs. After the first fevered game everything went well and we began to enjoy ourselves fully. May future junior cheerleaders find as much enjoyment in leading the school's cheers.

Diana VanDeMaele

ALONE

I walk down the hall;
I hear no friendly call
    From cheerful lips.
I see no friendly wave of hands
Which simply makes me understand
What purpose other people serve
In deserted lonely lands.

I enter the gym;
I see no bodies trim
    With movement dart.
But rings through which no basket's thrown
Make me aware that I'm alone
With nothing else about myself
But four lifeless walls of stone.

I circle the grounds;
I long for happy sounds
    Through frosty air.
On bleak gridiron no teams now play
Before the bleachers painted gray.
Is something wrong? It seems so still.
Oh! Today is Saturday

Senior Volleyball

Well, we finally did it! After two years of defeat by Aylmer, the Senior Black Marauders were victorious, winning the Tri-County Volleyball Championship at Arthur Voaden V.S. in St. Thomas.

The only threat to the team was Huron Park, but the Marauders were able to upset them in two close games. Teams defeated by the Marauders were Simcoe, Huron Park, Arthur Voaden, Ingersoll and Aylmer.

The team advanced to London to play for the WOSSA "A" Championship. The Marauders fought a spirited battle but were eliminated after defeating two teams.

Members of the team were: L. Fedoruk (captain), D. Fedoruk, B. Maguire, J. Lamers, J. Mifkovic, J. Pressey, F. Beattie, G. Lee, A. Werner, J. Felkai, B. Barclay, W. Jackson. J. W. Reid was the coach.

Annual Field Day

The 1959-60 annual Field Day was a two-school event. It was held before the completion of Glendale High School and both schools took part. The events were fiercely contested and well attended. The Student Council ran a booth with refreshments for onlookers and participants

The individual champions were:

Junior—F. DeBrabander, 9A (G).
Intermediate—A. Stonkus, 11E (A).
Senior—R. Vallee, 13C.

The runners-up:

Junior—G. Schwyer, 9C (A) and B. Knott 9B (G), tied.
Intermediate—D. Baird, 10C (G).
Senior—E. Fazakas, 13C.

Annandale Form championships were won by 9C with 27 points, in the junior; 10A with 109 points, in the intermediate; 12A with 104 points in the senior group.

9F won Glendale's championship with 82 points.

The winners in the junior boy's division were F. DeBrabander of 9A in broad jump event, G. Schwyer of 9C in hop, skip and jump event and also in high jump. T. French of 10D was winner in pole vault while B. Beattie topped the competitors of the shot put event. B. Knott of 9B won both the 100 yard and 220 yard dash.

In Intermediate boys' competitions, A. Stonkus of 11E won the broad jump event and also the hop, skip and jump. B. Nolan of 11F won the high jump and D. Gunn of 13A won the shot put.

In races, A. Stonkus of 11E won 100-yard dash; D. Baird of 10C won 220-yard dash; M. Scott of 10D won 440-yard dash; B. Maguire of 12A won 880-yard dash.

In senior boy's events, E. Fazakas of 13C was winner in the broad jump, and L. Pugsley of 12D topped in the hop, skip and jump. In high jump E. Fazakas of 13C was the winner while R. Vallee of 13C won the pole vault. The shot put was won by F. Felkai of 12A and R. Vallee of 13C won both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

E. Fazakas of 13C won the 440 and 880 yard dashes. The 440-yard relay was won by a team consisting of J. Cooper 12A, F. Felkai 12A, A. Stonkus 11E, and D. Collier 10A.

Senior Football

The senior Black Marauders, Annandale's only football team this year, finished the season with an even 3-3 record. The team just could not seem to win when they had anything at stake, but won all the more "unimportant" games

The top scorer on the team was Bruce Hogarth, fullback, with forty-seven points in six games.

Our team's worst game was a 0-46 loss to Aylmer, and their best was a 46-0 win against Arthur Voaden. About the most exciting and unusual play this year was a touchdown by Arvid Stonkus, quarterback, from the forty-yard line on a quarterback sneak trying for the extra yard for a first down.

Terry Gill and Bruce Hogarth were voted by the players to be the team's two most valuable players, but no all-star team was picked.

Scores were: 26-7 against Ingersoll, 0-46 against Aylmer, 6-30 against Woodstock C.I., 0-13 against Simcoe, 38-7 against Huron Park, and 46-0 against Arthur Voaden V.S.

High scorers were Hogarth with 7 touchdowns, five converts, for a total of forty-seven points. T. Gill, with five touchdowns and a total of thirty points.

Frank Felkai 12A.

Senior Basketball

The seniors had some very fine talent this year but could not seem to achieve too much with it. They could hold their own with any of the teams in the league until the final quarter and then seemed to fizzle out. They certainly gave Aylmer and St. Joseph's, the two top teams, a run for their effort, as can be seen by the better scores against those opponents.

Leading scorer was Wayne Jackson with seventy-one points in league play. Congratulations!

Exhibition games were played against Tillsonburg Grads, Ingersoll, Simcoe and Huron Park. Annandale won six of the seven games.

Scores of the league games were: 35-42 and 45-59 versus Aylmer, 36-53 and 49-56 versus St. Joe's of St. Thomas, finally 36-45 and 37-38 versus A.V.V.S.

Members of the team were: Captain L. Fedoruk, W. Jackson, J. Mifkovic, A. Stonkus, J. Pocius, J. Pitcher, E. Fazakas, F. Felkai, L. Piron and F. Beattie.

Jackson with 71 and Mifkovic with 69 points captured the laurels in individual scorings.

Junior Basketball

The junior talent this year was mostly raw, but came along nicely under Mr.

Parker's careful hand and watchful eye. The boys ended the season with an even 4-4 record. The top scorer was D. Davis with an outstanding total of 117 points in the eight league games. Nice going, Dave!

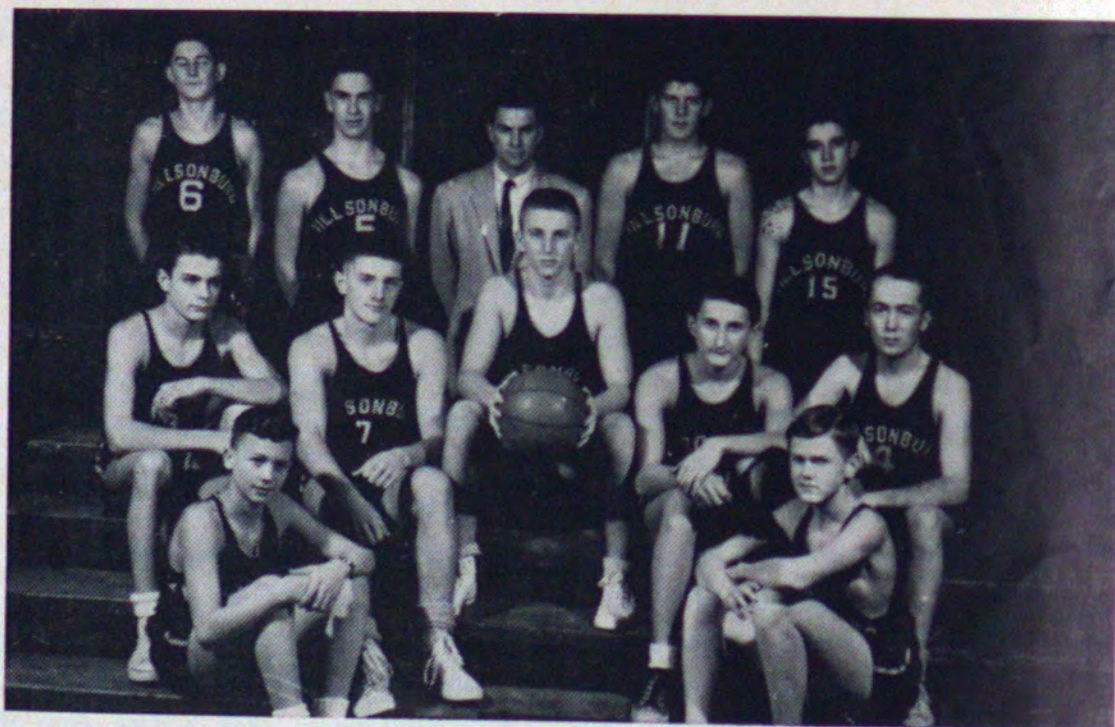

The team had an excellent 6-2 record in exhibition games.

The scores of the league games were 34-27 and 39-16 against Aylmer, 43-29 and 35-34 against Glendale, 33-36 and 28-35 against AVVS, and 39-65 and 40-56 against St. Joseph's.

Members of the team were Captain B. Anderson, A. Dodd, B. Dodd, D. Davis, D. Bangarth, D. Russel, S. Rekstis, B. Beattie, E. Vandasius, T. Pitcher, J. Holines, and L. Robinson.

Individual Scoring	FG	FS	TP
Davis .....	53	11	117
Rekstis .....	20	18	58
Anderson .....	22	10	54

BOYS' JUNIOR BASKETBALL

Front — J. Holmes, E. Vandasius. Centre — L. Robinson, T. Pitcher, B. Anderson, D. Bangarth, D. Russel. Back — D. Davis, B. Beattie, Mr. Parker (coach), S. Rekstis, A. Dodd. Absent — B. Dodd.

House League Basketball

This year, unlike previous years, the extra-curricular basketball was played on the basis of a "house league." There were three "houses": Black, Gold and Blue. Within each house were teams from grades nine, ten, eleven, and twelve. Each team competed with the team from each of the other "houses".

This system has several advantages. Since the teams were chosen by Mr. Parker, it was assured that they were of equal ability. This made the games more exciting. There was competition among the "houses" as well as among the separate teams.

This system may be used for volleyball, cross-country races, track and field, and other boys' sports. Thus, an active interest among the boys will be maintained through the school year.

Wayne Jackson 13A.

Boys' Curling

This year was quite successful for the curling club, even though they did not have as many boys as they should have liked. They were very fortunate in receiving first and second places at the Tri-County Bonspiel. The team which went to WOSSA did not do quite as well. The executive this year consisted of president B. Hogarth, vice-president, J. Sorrenti, and treasurer R. Saxby. The club would like to thank Mr. J. W. Reid for the help he gave them.

In the competition for the Tri-County Trophy, the results were: first team — Skip F. Beattie, D. Gettas, B. Hogarth, B. Moulton; second team — Skip D. Morrison, R. Saxby, B. Meharg, J. Cooper.

The R. J. Sinclair Trophy was won by a team consisting of Skip B. Moulton, R. Saxby, and L. Labadie.

The Dr. Stickel Trophy was won by Skip D. Gettas, J. Cooper, B. Parker, and S. Robinson.

Jack Cooper 12A.

Tumbling Team

The 1959-1960 tumbling team had a very good turnout. Almost all of last year's tumblers appeared again, and many more also. The size of the group is unusual and this was a surprise to the coach, Mr. Parker.

The team started after the basketball season with practices after four o'clock.

Beginning with simple movements, the

TRI-COUNTY CURLING CHAMPS
ROYAL BANK TROPHY

Fred Beattie, Deno Gettas
Bruce Hogarth, Bob Moulton

tumblers gradually worked up to those which were more difficult, on the mats, the box horse, the pommel horse, the parallel bars, and the weights.

The team put on demonstrations at Open House and Cadet Inspection.

Members of the team were T. Pitcher, L. Anderson, J. Aitken, D. Babbey, G. Parsons, D. Collier, E. Davis, L. Pugsley, M. Veltman, B. Babbey, D. DeSutter, T. French, T. Armstrong, and M. Theisler.

Ted Pitcher 11A.

Our Coaches

Three of the men teachers kindly gave up some of their own time this year to coach the boys' teams.

Last fall, Mr. Parker devoted his afternoons to coaching the senior Black Marauders' football team, and Mr. J. W. Reid did the same for the senior volleyball team.

During the winter, Mr. Parker and Mr. Ross gave up their evenings to coach the junior and senior basketball teams.

Finally, Mr. Parker is surrendering his spare evenings to coach the boys' tumbling team.

We, the students, would like to thank these men for giving up their valuable time to help us, and to express our appreciation of a job well done. Thank you, Messrs. Parker, Ross and Reid.

A VIEW FROM A BOAT

"Tour the Thousand Islands by boat!" screamed the sign.

It occurred to me that there was really hardly any other way to tour them. Nevertheless, we decided to challenge the sea and venture bravely out over the unknown waters into the maze of islands at a small charge of two dollars and fifty cents per person. Perhaps I should begin at the beginning (a brilliant deduction).

My brother John and I decided one fair July afternoon to tour the Thousand Islands (by boat). We drove to Gananoque where we were told we could find such a boat as would serve our purpose. John allowed me to drive, as it was not his car. We had found something dreadfully wrong with his own Ford, and could not possibly get the required parts until the Monday I was leaving. We bought our tickets on one corner and were yelled at by the agent of a rival company on the other.

"Don't mind him, lady," said our ticket agent. "He's a little . . . well, you know what." My keen sense of smell told me he was not the only one "a little you know what."

The irony of it all was that the boat company from whom we bought the tickets did not have room for us on that trip and so it was arranged for us to go on the rival's boat.

Immediately upon entering the boat we were told that there were two buckets at the "helm," (the sea has already got into my blood) one for the ladies and one for the gentlemen. The charge, we were informed, was twenty-five cents (one dollar if you missed).

Off we went across the rolling waves. I was glad I had not eaten anything before. It was an extremely interesting trip but I am afraid I cannot tell you where we went. One island looked just like another to me, and for all I know we could have been going around the same island during the whole three hours.

When we crossed the border we were told that if we would look down to our left we would see a line painted on the bottom. It is repainted every year with waterproof paint. While going through a particularly shady channel, the guide told us that it was lovers' lane and the only fish caught there were suckers.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the tour was a twenty-minute stop at Hart Island. On this island was built the framework of a huge castle. It seems the grandfather of the builder of Casa Loma wanted to give his wife a little birthday surprise. Unfortunately his wife died before her birthday and the castle was never finished.

I did not see much of the trip home as the woman sitting next to me found the open window a bit cool and so covered it with her sweater. (Why she did not cover herself with it I do not know).

Since we had crossed the border on our voyage, when we arrived back on dry land a customs official asked us where we were born and then let us go. Just for the fun of it I was going to say Moscow. I did not and consequently I am today a free citizen, who can say, "I toured the Thousand Islands in boat."

The Typist

I really, truly like to type,
Although it never turns out right.
I try so hard but all I get
Is a lot of mistakes and, I regret
To say, a tremendous zero.
I start to type "There goes a cat."
Tjere gies a csr. Imagine that!

A FULL LIFE

"How can I get the most out of life?"

Probably everyone at one time or another has asked this question. To find the answer is a problem, one to which few people ever find a plausible solution — that is a solution that can be translated into the meagre words of men. The answer can be found not in books or documents but deep in the dark robes of Father Time.

Such scholars as Sir Thomas More sought the perfect world, but even they lost all comprehension of their goal, for they soon became confused by the myriads of ideas of other men, as well as their own conclusions. Not even More's "Utopia," a book presenting a theoretical form of government, perfected through years of research, was the answer. It was an answer, but not the true one.

The ancient Peruvians or Incas, and later the Mexicans, sought a goal to which they gave the name "El Dorado" or "Land of Beauty." This wonderland was supposed to be hidden deep in the Andes. It was a land of plenty, of natural beauty and wealth, and only the very lucky ever reached it. Here, the ancients of the Americans thought, was true happiness. But they were wrong.

The "Fountain of Youth," said to be lost in the heart of Florida, was searched for by the New World explorer Ponce de Leon. He, like so many others, believed that eternal youth was the secret of happiness—but he was wrong. Happiness lies in the future, not in the past.

Orientalists believe that deep in the Himalayas of Asia a land of beauty exists, much like El Dorado, only its name is "Shangri-la" or "Land of Happiness." Here men are ageless and live in luxury for the rest of their lives. However, cold, bleak and barren mountain peaks must be conquered to find Shangri-la. Perhaps from this idea we may see that the road to a full life is long and arduous, and can only be traversed successfully if the traveller is strong in the virtues of patience and perseverance.

What is the true solution to this problem which man has pondered for thousands of years? Egyptian philosophers, perhaps the first men to seek the truth, knew the answer. They said that "True perfection can be found only at an ending." So true perfection of life can be discovered only at life's conclusion. For in death can be found a place of happiness much more beautiful than El Dorado or Shangri-la. There, in Heaven, multitudes of men and angels adore the Supreme Being, Who gave them the opportunity to search for and find a "Full Life."

VENUS DE MILO

You were nothing at first, just a lump of cold clay,

Till an eager young artist beheld you one day.

His fingers were skilled; they created a queen,

A goddess of beauty, a vision, a dream.

Your body was perfect in every respect.

So carefully moulded without a defect;

How pleased was your master; so happy was he

That he gave you the name of the goddess of beauty.

The stars are your eyes, and of gold is your hair.

You surely were made with the tenderest care.

Your looks you will keep; you will never grow old

For within you lies warmth, though the stone is so cold.

Though ages have passed, you forever remain

Your beauty unchanged — well, not quite the same;

Though slightly disfigured, and missing two arms,

Men still are entranced by the sum of your charms.

Edwin Davis 10A.

YOUTH

Today's youth is not perfect. Far from it: it is undependable, pleasure-seeking, and perhaps a bit wild. It quite openly displays the characteristics of youth in every period, in spirit, at least. Yet today we are being criticized, as a social group, as youth never before has been. It would seem that we are the sole cause of the world's problems from the atomic bomb to "payola." I, for one, deny both charges.

Obviously we are not responsible for the atomic bomb. As the supposed inheritors of the earth we have everything to lose by it. As for "payola," youth here has displayed damning gullibility. Yet we did not extend the bribes; it was our parents and our "age" which did so. We were its prey.

Even our gullibility cannot claim any originality. Did we support appeasement and isolationism in the Thirties; the myth that communism would disappear if one looked the other way in the Forties; and the greater myth that Soviet technology was much inferior to ours in the middle Fifties? Not entirely, I think.

Today "Western Civilization" finds its crown resting uneasily. Its youth has become its scapegoat. At the same time we are looked to for its salvation, as is manifested in the almost frantic reappraisals of modern education.

I am rather skeptical of the entire movement. How can this society expect its youth to be any better than society itself? It is all very well to talk about the Soviet challenge being met, but can it be done with forty-hour weeks and for two dollars and a half per hour pay? If the more mature members of society are unwilling to meet it without these amenities, without any sacrifice of personal satisfaction, what makes them think that we are willing?

The soul is willing but the flesh is weak.

AUTUMN

A golden light, a rosy hue,
A white gleaming frost on every blade.
The morning breaks and life anew
Is on its way.

The golden leaves, the yellow grain,
The light wind rustling every leaf.
The heavy clouds, the lazy rain,
The migrating birds.

The white-washed cottage dressed in vines,
The flowers dying in the yard,
The fenceposts following the road in lines—
It's autumn again.

Sharron Chute 13B.

OUCH!

I'm a three-pound liver. I have portal cirrhosis.

Put that knife away! Some of the doctors around here go crazy when you put a knife in their hands. Gee! Those lights are bright. They not only stab livers here but they also try to blind them. Now there is a pretty nice nurse (with a pretty nice knife).

It's no wonder I'm in this predicament. This body that I live in takes a little trip to the local tavern every once in a while (about every half hour). I'll never forget the night when we (my body and I) were staggering home. He (my body) tripped over the rug and we fell down two flights of stairs. I never did feel quite right after that.

What am I doing in this jar? I've been pickled! There is a familiar alcoholic odour to this solution. It is a good thing I took those swimming lessons last summer. There's that cute nurse again. What in the world is she poking me for? Hasn't she ever seen a liver before?

What a pickle for a liver to be in!

Jeanne Francia reports for 12 A.

A cross-section of 12A. reveals a rainbow of interests. In the Student Council elections administrative qualities were discovered in Lyn Brown, elected vice-president, and in Mary Ann Gradish, chosen treasurer.

At the Christmas assembly 12A. sang their favourite Latin carols (favourite perhaps because they knew no others!) and bade farewell to Stan Boyd. The luckiest of all, Stan spent his Christmas vacation in Florida. On his return he presented Miss Grieve with a stuffed alligator which was promptly christened Stannus Crocius Grievius. Stannus has been our mascot ever since.

Two new members were added to the class in mid-year. Lesslie Askin, from St. Mary's, Kitchener, and John VanGoethem, from St. Jerome's, Kitchener, joined the ranks of 12A. Lesslie's artistic ability led her to submit attractive designs for this year's Tatler cover and to create some cartoons.

The Tatler editors also are members of the class.

February proved to be an exciting month for many in 12A. In "H.M.S. Pinafore," Rory MacDonald, Helen Pressey, and Ruth Hoyle gave stellar performances in leading roles. In the chorus were Misses Weston, Ellis, Stephenson, Franssens, and Francia. Among the ushers were Jack Cooper and Frank Felkai, while Nancy Beaman, Lesslie Askin, Diane Clarke, Lyn Brown, Stephanie Robinson, Sharon Kennedy and Millie Richardson assisted with make-up. Millie was also 12A's ticket captain and brought 12A. into second place in the competition.

Mention of the operetta reminds us of Mr. Orr's patient effort to clarify his actors' pronunciation. "Aunts," he said, "are not to be pronounced as if they are four-legged creatures running all over the floor-r-r'." From a distance came Miss Field's correction, "Six-legged!"

This year Frank Felkai will represent our school in Ottawa for the Rotary Adventure in Citizenship. Frank also reports on cadet activities to the Tillsonburg News each week in his column "Cadet Clippings."

In the second term, Mary Napran left, after receiving, it is said, a very important piece of jewellery. Next year, Lyn Brown will leave Annandale to attend school in Switzerland.

Mr. Kelly: "What is an example of a solid element?"

Urbain Demaiter: "Sugar?"

Mr. Kelly: "Are you talking to me?"

Docho Docheff, in English class: "Can you'se back there hear me?"

Mr. Orr: "No we'es can't."

9B. students are proud of Elizabeth Liptak who played an important role in "H.M.S. Pinafore." Karen Gullen, the class's ninety percenter, also took part.

---

In the public speaking contest, two of 9B's intelligent members, Karen Gullen and Carl McLuhan, courageously volunteered to go through the nerve-wracking ordeal. Carl won second place in the junior contest with his speech on Casa Loma.

---

9C's Reta Weinberger proved that faith can be deceiving when she had faith in a chair. Crash, Bang! It wasn't there!

---

Mr. Bailey, to 9C: "Who was George Monck?"

Bob Vigh: "Mr. and Mrs. Monck's son, George."

9C. Notice: Mr. Bailey wishes that those who leave empty cigar bands on his desk would please leave the cigars inside them.

In 11A. Mr. Kelly seems to have a terrible time putting his tuning fork in the same pitch as the sonometer. Is his ear not what it used to be, or are all the boys at the back of the room humming off-key?

Naturally 11A. captured the title of Champion Ticketsellers for the operetta. Their sympathy is extended to 12A. who just could not keep up the pace. 11A's ticket captain and greatest inspiration was Julius Felkai who put his class on top

In 11C2. Yvonne Coucke and Vera Vaughan helped with makeup for the operetta. 11C2. was also represented by Sharon Peters and June Morrice on the cheerleading squad.

Larry Robinson, a member of 11D's wonderful class of brilliant students left in March to live in Florida.

11D. has Stubbs but no pencils, a Stem but no flowers.

Mrs. Clark, in 11F.: "A polygon is a dead parrot."

Mr. Grose, to Reg J. coming late "You should have been here at 8:55."

Reg: "Why, what happened?"

9A's boys have been in this year's limelight. Ticket captain and representative on the Student's Council was Gary Hascall. Bill Babbey was on the junior tumbling team, and Bill Beattie played for the boys' junior basketball team. Many 9A. students participated in field day events and in other school activities.

In 12E. math. class Carl was put on the spot by Mr. Thiers. Carl did his best to give an intelligent answer and Mr. Thiers obediently wrote down on the blackboard every syllable of his answer. Here is the amazing mathematical equation that appeared: "Umm... law of x well... umm 8/2."

Monday in 11E.

At 8:59 1/2 a.m. Reg. J. bounces in to arouse his sleepy classmates. The girls' side of the room, though, is buzzing. Although all the girls contribute to this, Jean V. is always caught.

At the end of science period Mr. Grose prepares us for the next period by throwing open the windows with "This is to keep you awake during the next dull period."

Slowly proceeding to math. class, Andy G., Dolores G., Lloyd T., Doug. B. and Diane T. find front seats reserved for them. Our visitors, Terry G. and Nick D. are removed.

After lunch . . . math. again!! Sandra C., Jean V., Diane T., Pat. M., and Bonnie P. are always late. Why???? Connie's car may have something to do with it.

In the library, the Missing Pencil Case Mystery is solved. Is Pat. Mooney the culprit?

Silence prevails in history class: the room is Mr. Rokeby's.

Lulled into slumber, the sleepers are finally awakened by the last bell. Monday is over.

Frances, 9A's pride and joy
Doesn't seem to like a boy.

Although this situation's sad,
Wait until you see Jo-Ann mad!

Not at all to be outdone,
Barbara, in science, has great fun.

Our three Annas all are great;
They never have made their entrance late.

When asked in science class how a grasshopper breathes, Roger Kocheff thought that one over very seriously and replied hopefully, "Through its nose?"

When Miss Field asked 10A. science class to name some characteristics possessed by all insects, Yvette Goossens brightly replied, "They all have a head."

"Now remember soldiers, tomorrow is Inspection Day, so look intelligent and PLEASE do not wear white bucks."

"Why not, Major Reid? You have to get up PRETTEE early in the morning to find a pair of black bucks."

Giselle Vandendriessche and Linda Winter have submitted a diary of a day in 10A. in verse. We quote in part.

The day begins at five to nine,
 But very few of us make it on time.
 Madame quiets us with a bang of a brush,
 And these forty minutes never rush.
 Then on to science we forward march,
 To learn of plants and bugs and starch.
 The next thing we know a grasshopper's freed,
 Our favourite too, christened Carole Reid.

Now we walk in a single line.
 As you might have guessed — it's history time.
 Here we must control our tongues,
 With no paper planes or chewing-gum.

Our suffering is over and English is next;
 Poor Mrs. Stafford looks very perplexed.
 Soon this is over and we're on our way to greet Miss Grieve with a pleasant
 "Salve."

John Pressey, now that his name has been mentioned, was the elected member from the constituency of Oxford-South to the thirty-ninth session of the Ontario Older Boys' Parliament. John attended the sessions at Waterloo University for six days during the Christmas holidays, and reported on his experiences when he competed in the senior public speaking contest.
