Still round the corner there may wait
a new road or a secret gate, and though I oft have passed them by,
A day will come at last when I shall take the hidden paths that run
West of the Moon, East of the Sun.

VALEDICTORIAN 1988

Miss Karen Gubesch

Our valedictorian for 1988 was Miss Karen Gubesch. Following is a partial text of her address delivered at the 1988 Commencement.

To-night, having earned our diplomas, gained countless memories and everlasting friendships over our five-year stay, we open new doors. Returning to Annandale, we are strongly and vividly reminded of the events, games, socializing, classes, studying and our teachers and our friends whom we cannot seem to let go. But now is the time to loosen our grip; we must reach forward into our futures.

We have seen many changes - the coming and going of traditions, teachers, and friends. We will never forget such traditions as Initiation, the Senior Bench, the Pep Rallies. We wished Mr. MacKenzie and Mr. Burleigh the best for their futures at Glendale; we welcomed Miss Jurjevich and all of her enthusiasm. We initiated our new vice-principal, Mr. Humphrey, and five crops of "minor niners", one of whom was us. We have said our farewells to Mr. Parker and, now, Mr. Rabb.

We've met new friends, experienced new things. We've had Mr. DeDecker teach us how to moonwalk. We know that Mrs. Crandall would always catch us chewing gum because she could smell it. And Mr. McLean's horror stories about university may have seemed a little scary back then, but now we know they are true.

If there was just one thing that I could stress to everyone still in high school, it is this: enjoy learning. Learning at Annandale is not just limited to curriculum. We learned by contributing, by being involved, by enjoying it all. We have a wonderful and diverse sports program, great clubs, excellent theatrical productions, and superb academic standings that compare to any in the province.

There are no more Grade 13's. We are the last. Now we stand on the edge of all that we have strived for: to continue on from Annandale. We are not just leaving Annandale; we are taking it with us . . . and building upon all that it has been to each of us. That's a good head start, I think. Have courage, reach out, and open those doors. Be proud to have been a Gemini, be proud to have been a part of Annandale, and be proud to be a member of the graduating class of 1988."

Days have come
Days have gone.
Some of Sorrow,
Some of Joy.
Behind us the shadow of childhood
Ahead, the bright sky of the future.
May our lives be full of happiness
And may we never be strangers
But always good friends;
As we walk the long and winding
Path of Life.

ANNANDALE ADMINISTRATION

My compliments to the editors and staff of TATLER 89. Once again our students, under the direction of Mr. Stover, have combined their time, energy, artistic and creative talents to produce TATLER 89 for our enjoyment. As much as they have enjoyed the camaraderie of working on a major task together, they have served us, the students and the community, by recording the activities of school life for 1988-89. In the future years we will laugh and we will cry as we relive through the pages of this chronicle that which is recorded and that which is evoked through association.

Since my assignment takes me to Ingersoll in September, 1989, this edition of Tatler will probably be the last to which I will contribute. As such, it will stand out as special in my mind. It will remind me of you! You the students with whom I have shared some high points and some low points, your successes and failures, your joys and your sorrows. You the staff who have been co-operative and supportive in the seven years that I have been at Annandale; and you the community of Tillsonburg, a community with vitality, energy and a "can do" attitude that gets things done.

Thank you for the memories.

Sincerely,
Art Pearson

PRINCIPAL G.A. PEARSON

VICE-PRINCIPAL D. HUMPHREY

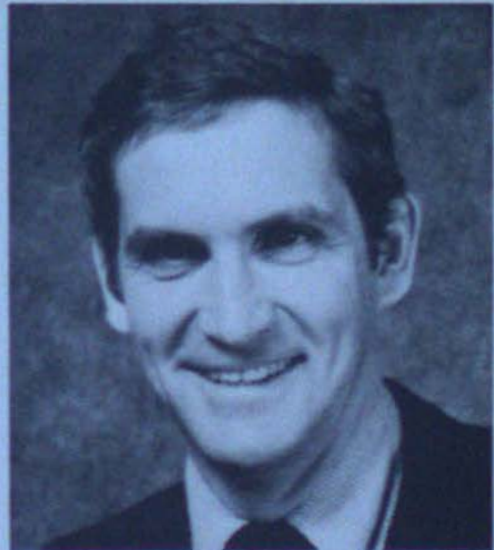

"People Who Need People Are The Luckiest People"; - This is more than the lyric of a once popular song. It describes the atmosphere and experience of Annandale High School. As a teacher, I consider myself very fortunate to share in the quality of relationship that characterizes the classrooms, gymnasium, playing fields and halls of this school. All of us, students and staff are "the luckiest people".

This 1989 Tatler provides evidence of the many good things that have happened. Value this record, return to it frequently and reflect on the past of which you were a part. I trust you too will share in this sense of gratitude.

To the graduates of 1989 I extend my sincere wish for your personal success and lifelong fulfillment. You can leave Annandale with the confidence that your years here have prepared you well, but also be aware of the solemn reality that you must take responsibility for your future successes.

I wish you continued good "luck".

Doug Humphrey

WE'LL MISS YOU, MR. PEARSON!

Mr. Pearson has been a great asset to the Annandale School community for the past seven years, serving as Vice-Principal as well as Principal.

Art Pearson was raised and educated in Owen Sound and continued his post-secondary-school education at the University of Western Ontario, in the field of Mathematics. After his formal studies were completed, he taught mathematics for four years at Hanover District High School. Then, in 1969, he came to Oxford County. He taught math for three years at College Avenue Secondary School, then transferred to Norwich District Secondary School where he held the position of Head of the Math Department for three years. After this he returned to College Ave. for three years as head of the math department. In 1982, Mr. Pearson came to Annandale, taking the position of Vice-Principal. He held this position for four years and then became Principal.

Along with the position of Vice-Principal and Principal, he has also been involved with the students, acting as coach of the cross country team, and track team, and staff advisor for the Student Council and the Intramural Committee.

Mr. Pearson is a family-oriented person with six children of his own, and two grandchildren. He spends only a small portion of time with his children, but the time he spends with them is very important to him.

Mr. Pearson has been an advisor and friend to everyone at Annandale. We will miss him a great deal and wish him well with his new position as Principal at Ingersoll District Collegiate Institute in the fall.

Annandale thanks you, Mr. Pearson.
Good Luck!

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS ASSEMBLY

The ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS AWARDS ASSEMBLY tradition was kept strong as ANNANDALE HIGH SCHOOL held its full-morning assembly to honour the top students in our school.

Again, all students who received Honour Standing on their reports received framed certificates. Students receiving the highest mark in a credit received certificates noting that fact. The top three students at each year and at each level were awarded plaques to symbolize their achievements with the top students in each grade having her/ his name inscribed on a permanent plaque.

Special thanks to Principal G.A. Pearson and the Academic Achievement Awards Committee for continuing this worthwhile programme. Committee members include Mrs. N. MacKenzie, Mrs. M. Derksen, and Mr. T. Hanyk.

OXFORD COUNTY CHAMPIONS

Kneeling are Jeff Breit, Dave Moore, Mike DiGiovanni, Paul Stanbridge, Stacey Rice, Mike Kennedy, Chad Weiler, Sandy Storm, Derek Partlo and Jason Lester.

Seated are Co-captains Mike Pinter, Jeff Cowan, Doug Walters, Mark Cassone and Dave Milton.

JUNIORS WIN OXFORD BOWL

The finest hour for the Junior Gemini came in a 21-7 victory over the Huron Park Pups to win the Oxford Bowl. On their second meeting of the year, the Gemini handled the Pups offense well, allowing only a broken play bomb to spoil their shutout and the team played solid offense itself to march the ball successfully. Earlier in the season, the Gemini had scraped a last-play, 16-15 victory against the Pups on a punt by Mike Pinter.

The superb team from Central Elgin proved too much for the Gemini at the Oxford-Elgin Bowl, however, building a 21-0 lead at the half before the Gemini could find themselves offensively or defensively, and maintaining control for a 28-8 Bowl victory.

COACHES COMMENT

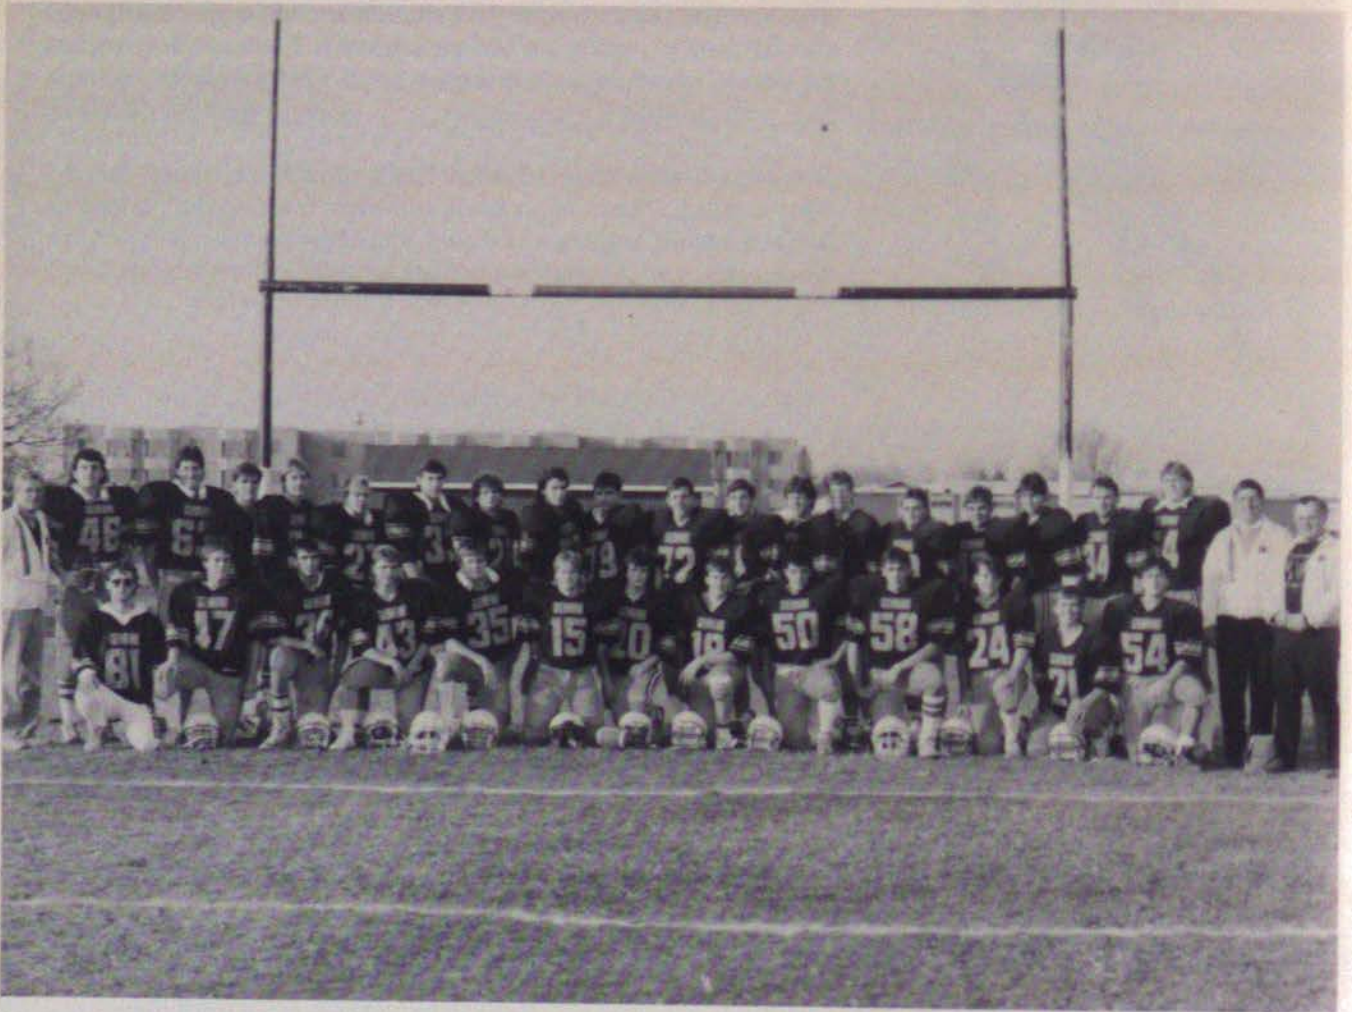

"One of the most interesting season in a long time!" That's the way Coach Wayne Coyle summed up the season. "We needed to grow up just a little bit more," Coach Arn Stover's response.

The Junior Gemini had some superb players this year: fullback Doug Walters was one of the strongest runners and tacklers in the league. If he can learn to discipline his talents, he will be devastating at senior. The great arm of Mark Cassone; the running and catching skills of Steve Szikszay; the fine defensive line play of Dave Milton; the gutsy performances of Jeff Cowan, Brent Collins and Blair Oatman; the excellent development of Scott Harris; Dave Moore hitting a ton from half-back; Pete Stubbs showing superb courage on defensive line.

We will miss all of these graduates in 1989, but the 22 players returning understand a football field now. Under the leadership of Mike Pinter and Derek Partlo, we expect an even more interesting result next year.

SENIOR GEMINI FOOTBALL

STANDING: Mr. W. Parker, Tom Hovorka, Sean Sandham, Tim Ramer, Jason Meyer, Jason Puhr, Jim Brotz, Darryl Nesplic, Steve Lonsbary, Don Holland, Scott Stroud, Chris Hayward, Colin Haley, Tim Fewster, Scott Ryder, Peter Retinas, Co-Capt. Brad Clarke, Corey Hill, Mr. F. DeVriendt, Mr. H. Cowan.

The Senior Gemini had a frustrating conclusion to their seson as they were eliminated from the Oxford County play-offs on a ruling change while everyone else in Oxford-Elgin continued play. Having defeated Huron Park Huskies 7-0 in a hard-nosed battle on the Annandale field, the Gemini seemed assured of a play-off berth as Oxford teams had split their games. However, Huron Park beat Central Elgin in a late-season game to take first place on the Oxford side and the Senior Gemini were forced to the sidelines for both Oxford Finale and Oxford-Elgin Bowl, even though they felt confident against both Oxford teams if given a playoff shot.

The season was successful in involving many more players in senior ball; many newcomers to football came out for the team and many junior graduates saw field action earlier than expected. Coaches DeVriendt, Cowan, Chevers, Parker, Thompson, and Meyer are confident of a revival in 1989.

TRADITION CONTINUES

The tradition lives on! Once again this year, the Gemini and their friends hosted a parent-child breakfast before the Homecoming Game. Many moms and dads were in attendance along with members of the Alumni Association, involved teachers and administrators. During the day, parents were entertained for coffee and donuts and moms and grandmothers received corsages in the appropriate Gemini colours. Organization for the day was handled by Mr. Greg Wilson with help from Miss Marilyn Hillis and Mrs. Becky Stover. It was a great beginning for our fall Gemini Week which showcased all of our teams for their families and friends. Overall organization was under the direction of Gemini Co-ordinator Dace Zvanitajs. Thanks to everyone involved!

Gridironers Tackle Fundraising

Coach Mike Chevers, aided by the committee of Senior Gemini pictured below (Chris Hayward, Steve Sowa and Mike Chevers Jr.) began a program this year to enhance the Gemini football program over the next few years. Mr. Chevers, an instructor at the Ontario Police College in Aylmer and a former CFL player with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, was successful in obtaining equipment donations from the University of Waterloo football program as well as a cash donation from Donwoody and Co., an accounting firm in Kitchener and Oakville. He was also the organizer of a successful fundraiser featuring Mike Mandel, North America's premiere mentalist, who presented a fantastic program in the Annandale gym.

Mr. Chevers commented, "As long as we keep a child involved in sports, we keep him away from the drug culture which is the biggest problem we face in our society today."

We thank Mr. Chevers for his concern and efforts on behalf of the program.

SWEEP OXFORD-ELGIN CROSS COUNTRY

Team Members: Vanessa Keba, Carrie Konig, Cindy Kyle, Callie Nowell, Joe White, Heather Shields, Holly Woods, Brad Borland, Jamie Chute, Rob Empey, Jason Luyt, Greg Palmer, Jason Sibbick, Brent Darley, James Durst, Kevin Downey, Dennis Donais, Eric Keeble, Jeff Luyt, Maria Bartsch, Wilna Carrier, Denise Durst, Sue Henry, Mandy Hurlbert, Jay Ankersmit, Mark Biro, Rob Garon, Jeremy Holmes, Brock Horton, Trevor Lamoure, Dave McCague, Kevin Mulhern, Sara Bayley, Tina Keeble, Karen Fitzpatrick, Susan Stockmans, Michelle VanWynsberghe, Jill Wingrove, Mr. Wirth (coach).

1988 was a banner year for the Gemini Cross-Country team. The team won eight out of the nine championship pennants that were up for grabs at Oxford-Elgin. Each division had a strong showing from the Gemini contingent, qualifying all teams for WOSSA.

The Sr. Boys' team, without the aid of forerunners Kevin Mulhern and Rob Garon, managed to win the Oxford-Elgin crown, but the entire team fell just short in their attempt to qualify for the OFSAA championships for the first time in five years. Likewise, the strong Jr. Boys' team also fell just short of their bid to make an OFSAA appearance. The Jr. Girls and Midget Boys teams all had a good showing at WOSSA, led by some fine individual performances.

ALL ONTARIO SILVER MEDALISTS

MIDGET GIRLS TEAM

Team Members: Heather Shields, Cindy Kyle, Carrie Konig, Holly Woods, Callie Nowell.

Most outstanding were the efforts of the exceptional Midget girls squad. They not only took the Oxford-Elgin and WOSSA titles, but they won a silver at the All-Ontario Championships in Kingston. The Midget girls team out-classed their opponents with strong performances from all five runners. Team members include Heather Shields, Cindy Kyle, Carrie Konig, Holly Woods and Callie Nowell. Special mention to Callie Nowell and Dennis Donais for their individual championships at Oxford-Elgin. Also, special mention to Mr. Wirth and Mr. Mills who, with their dedication and hard work have made Gemini a dominant force on the cross-country scene. Congratulations to all cross-country members for a great showing.

GEMINI SR. BOYS' BASKETBALL

The team had a very successful and rewarding season. There was a good blend of veteran seniors and first year seniors. We finished the Oxford League undefeated, 10-0. At Oxford-Elgin the team lost 69-67 to Central Elgin but defeated Central Elgin in the WOSSA AA Championship game to earn the right to go to OFSSA.

The team displayed dedication and hard work throughout the season. Our team was led by Chris O'Rourke and John Vermeeren. Veterans Kevin Mulhern, Mike Gowette, Joe and Ron Nezezon provided team balance and experience. Our younger players gained valuable floor experience and helped to develop the team effort necessary to be successful.

I am very proud of this years' team and thank them for their sacrifice, effort and leadership. Special thanks to Brian O'Rourke for his support and administration efforts on behalf of our team.

MIDGET BOYS' BASKETBALL

Team Members: Derek Barnard, Jeff Beaumont, Mike Demaiter, Rodney Horvath, Robert Kanos, Peter Papaioannou, Brian Sol, Andrew Sutherland, George Varga, Sandy Storm, Coach Mr. Dennis Noonan.

The Midget Boys' basketball team kept up the Gemini winning tradition and had a strong season. The team worked hard all season and played well gaining the title of "undefeated". In all league games, the Gemini team dominated in both offence and defence. They controlled the boards and came out with the winning score each time. At the end of the season they were also crowned Oxford-Elgin Champions.

Congratulations is extended to the team for their fine season!

The 1988-89 season was a difficult one for the Junior Gemini. With Marc Cassone the only returning player, the team was much shorter on experience than it has been for a number of years. The team had two new coaches to the system, Mr. Radjnovich and Mr. Quarrie. They did a superb job preparing the boys.

The team did not fare too well at tournaments in Chatham, Tillsonburg and Waterloo Laurier, losing in the first round to the eventual champions in each case.

The team finished third in the Oxford County League with a 9 and 3 record. We defeated I.D.C.I. in the Oxford-Elgin quarterfinals but lost to eventual Oxford-Elgin champions, Central Elgin, in the next round.

Our final game was at WOSSA where we were defeated by Central Huron in an extremely well played game.

TEAM MEMBERS

Gabor Pusztahegyí, Sean Duncan, Mike Cassone, Scott Harmon, Mark Cassone, Brent Austin, Shannon McGlynn, Jason Humphrey, Stuart Leachman, Chris Arvai. Managers: Carrie Oatman, Tracey Thibodeau, Ann Cook.

SR. GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

Team Members: Jane Ann Hogarth (captain), Cheryl Vilez, Shelagh Sinden, Tara DeRyk, Tina Hoorelbeke, Sarah Brazier, Amanda Skevington, Kim Wharram, Sheri Dejaegher, Kristal Parrott, Lisa Neirinckx, Norma De La Fuente (manager), Mrs. Rajnovich (coach).

The season in my eyes was a successful one. I was introduced to the Gemini program by a team of girls who showed dedication, skill and a lot of tolerance for a coach from out West who did things differently than they were accustomed to.

The Gems adapted quickly and in season play showed their strength by pushing league-leading Ingersoll to the limit.

JR. GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

The Junior Girls' Volleyball season was comprised of hard work, enthusiasm, many good times and, of course, surprises. Overall, the team played very well together with noticeable individual improvements. The Gems' highlight this season was being in the championship match against W.C.I. of the Tillsonburg Invitational Tournament. After a long, hard-fought battle, the girls fell short of winning the championship banner by two points. The Gems went on to finish the season taking fourth place in the league.

Congratulations and thanks to all the girls for making the season a success. Best of luck to the graduating players who are moving up to senior.

The Gemini swim team exceeded all the goals set by student coaches Matt DeLaere and Greg Sol in the 1988-89 season. When the season began, the primary aim of the coaches was to rebuild the team after last year's graduation, and to see that swimming continues into the future.

The swimmers kept their string alive of always qualifying athletes for the provincial championships and of coming home with at least one medal.

At WOSSA, the gold medal winners were Trish VanLeeuwen in the 100 metres individual medley, Dawn Hutchinson in the 50 metres butterfly and grade nine swimmer Don Swayze in the 50 breaststroke.

At OFSAA, Dawn Hutchinson was a bronze medal winner.

It was a good season and both coaches were extremely happy with the team's achievements.

THI THAN WINS OXFORD-ELGIN WRESTLING TEAM

Team Members: Thi Than, Shawn Morgan, Scott Baird, Don Swayze, Dan Gagnon, Jason Kitchenham, Rob Antoszko, Marc Austin (captain), Trevor Waite. Managers: Carrie Oatman, Paula Watters. Coaches: Mr. Curry, Mr. Renken.

Considering the arrival of two new coaches on the scene, the Gemini Wrestling Team found itself in a building year. The team members were all young and enthusiastic with a number of years remaining in their high school careers. Their past year's development will provide a strong base to build on in the years to come.

The wrestling team was one which demonstrated enthusiasm, confidence, dedication and a will to learn.

Along with team victories in dual meet competition, several outstanding individual accomplishments should also be recognized. Thi Than was the 1988-89 Oxford-Elgin Champion, where he quickly pinned the previous year's champion and WOSSA finalist. Thi also achieved a first place finish in a number of other high school tournaments. Other Gemini who had outstanding performances and went on to WOSSA were Shawn Morgan, Dan Gagnon, Marc Austin and Rob Antoszko. Scott Baird, Don Swayze, Jason Kitchenham and Trevor Waite all had a terrific season, winning several of their matches and progressing in their skill development.

CURLING

Team Members: Paula Watters, Gillian Brown, Nicole Dennis, Dana Zilic, Joanne Antoszko, Tim Ramer, Brad Clarke, Steve Gubesch, Dennis Vandamme, Jason Ehl Coaches: Mr. Wilson, Mr. Palmer, Mrs. Fraser.

Both teams had a reasonably successful year. The boys' team placed second in Oxford County and the girls' team tied for second. Team members put in a great deal of ice time from October to April. The curling season is a long one and the dedication of the student curlers is much appreciated. There will be a few new team members next year to replace those graduating, and we look forward to another winning season.

BOYS' HANDBALL

The boys, along with the girls, also experienced a successful season. The team travelled to tournaments at L'Essor and Bell River and played well.

The team was made up of relatively inexperienced players but this was not evident in their playing ability.

The team was strong in all aspects of playing and their determination and aggressiveness allowed them to obtain a tied position for first place in their league.

Special thanks goes to Mr. Macovik for the endless hours he put into coaching both programs.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS GIRLS' HANDBALL

Team Members: Karen Fitzpatrick, Brenda Vermeeren, Abbey Whittal, Sarah Brazier, Jane Hogarth, Lisa McLellan, Kristi Rockley, Shannon Partlo, Kara Smith, Suzanne Stockmans, Monik Verheyen, Tracey Wirth, Marsha Calvert, Julie Koprach, Mr. Macovik (coach).

The Girls' Handball team smashed the standard that was set by last year's excellent season. Where last season was excellent, this season was superb.

The team travelled to Windsor for two tournaments at L'Essor and Bell River. At these tournaments their strong goaltending, solid defence and a fast break offence made it possible for them to be named League Champions.

The hard work and determination they put into playing really paid off as three players and Mr. Macovik were chosen for the Canadian Team. Congratulations are extended to Sarah Brazier, Karen Fitzpatrick and Shannon Partlo and Mr. Macovik for their great achievement.

Once again the Senior Boys' Soccer Team showed the tremendous Gemini spirit in their 1988-89 season. The Gems might have started off slow, but through the season they progressed in all aspects of play.

The season was tough and the other teams were as well, but the Gemini Soccer Team never gave up. This fighting determination helped in the areas of offence and defence.

That provided the team with an "edge". Because of this "edge", the team made it to the playoffs and earned a fourth place position in the Oxford playoffs.

Congratulations to the guys on their fine season and to Mr. Meyer and Mr. Gooding for their time and energy.

OXFORD-ELGIN CHAMPIONS
JR. BOYS' SOCCER

Team Members: Scott Harris, Rick Mahoney, Chad Weiler (co-captain), Gabor Pusztahegyi (co-captain), Drew Nunn, Rob Rodgers, Jeff Cowan, Peter Stubbs, Darren Weger, Shannon McGlynn, Jonathan Jenney, Don Swayze, Lam Luong, George Papadakos, Jamie Donck, Peter Papaioannou, Mike Pinter, Briesk Kouji
Coaches: Mr. Panayi and Mr. Renken.

The junior soccer team completed an excellent season by capturing the Oxford-Elgin Championship. The overall team record was 12 wins, 1 tie and 1 loss. A remarkable accomplishment can be credited to Jeff Cowan who scored a league high 23 goals.

GIRLS' SOCCER

The team consisted of a large number of new faces this year, with approximately half of the team being made up of grade nine students. Nevertheless, improvement was made with each practice and we eventually began to out-play our opponents. The team had a lot of spirit and never gave up at any time, throughout the season.

Thanks goes out to the coaches, Mrs. Nutbrown and Mr. Barker. They helped to build up the team's skills as well as their spirits when things were looking down.

Only a small number of the team's players are graduating this year. Tara DeRyk and Suzanne Stockmans, veterans of the team will be greatly missed, along with Jill Wingrove, Annette Mudge and Cheryl Vilez. Their sportsmanship and skill were a great asset to the team.

With so many players returning next year, a terrific season is expected.

Keep up the great work!

ROWING TEAM

Team Roster: Sue Austin, Kate DeDecker, Marcie Saelens, Holly Woods, Kim Smith, Jennifer Theissler, Derek Ventnor, Sue Henry, Allan Conroy, Sue Pinter.

Lake Lisgar this year was a flurry of activity as the Gemini Rowing team practiced on its waters.

This year the team, although small in numbers, was quite successful. The crews began their season as soon as the ice melted and continued until the weekend of June 2nd. Most weekends were full of regattas located in St. Thomas, Woodstock, London, Welland and St. Catherines. The crews did well at all these regattas, bringing home medals.

The team's finale was the Canadian High School Championships, where the Gemini Rower's tested their skills and talents with teams from all over Canada and the United States. Once again the crews proved their worth against many bigger and more experienced teams.

A hearty Congratulations must be extended to the Rowing Team for their great season, and also to their coaches Derek Ventnor and Jenn Theissler.

This year's Junior badminton team participated in tournaments in Stratford, East Elgin, and Woodstock.

Our numbers of players has doubled from the previous year and interest in the sport has increased. We would all like to thank Christine Roczen and Jason Arnold for their fine leadership. Jenny, Elaine and Melissa will be moving on to senior and we wish them well.

While all of us would like to have had better results this year, next year holds much promise. Mike, Chris, Jeff, Jason and Shane will be back bringing good experience to the junior team. We need some new people to go with our experience and the future will look bright ahead.

Kubet Wins OFSAA Gold!

Becky and Shelagh complete H.S. careers

The Feminine Mystique!! Who knows? But once again GEMINI were represented at OFSAA, the most prestigious meet of the high school track calendar, by three young women from Annandale: Becky Coward, Shelagh Sinden and Kubet Weston.

For Becky, it was her third appearance at All-Ontario, after winning a gold medal in midget competition in 1986 and a fourth in junior in 1988. It was not to be . . . as Becky finished seventh in a fine field of senior high jumpers. Her personal best in competition of 1.69 metres had topped Oxford-Elgin, WOSSA, and the West Regionals, to round out a fabulous career.

For Shelagh, who competed in the 100-metre hurdles for senior girls, OFSAA was a dream come true for her and Coach Bob Burleigh. Despite her disqualification for false starting, the OFSAA berth was the zenith of her track career.

For Kubet, a grade-nine-student at Annandale, the athletic horizons appear unlimited. Kubet shattered the triple-jump mark by over one-half metre, setting a new standard of 11.36 metres. She also won a bronze medal in the long jump with a mark of 5.25 metres, only nine centimetres off the gold standard.

Thank you for the wonderful season!

As the president of the 88/89 Student Council, I learned many things. It was an honour to represent Annandale, and I will never forget the experience.

This year's council was involved in many worthwhile causes. Some of these were the chocolate almond campaign, Pup Day for cancer, Operations Scrooge, Sleeping Children Around the World, Tillsonburg Theatre Creation and the sale of carnations for M.S.. The council was also responsible for putting on six successful dances.

I would like to thank our staff advisors for all the time they sacrificed to help us. Their work was greatly appreciated.

On behalf of this year's Student Council, I would like to thank the staff and the students of Annandale for helping and taking part in the activities that we organized throughout the year.

Finally, I would like to wish the graduating class all the best of luck in the future endeavours. To next year's group, good luck. To the people I worked with this year . . . thank you.

The class representatives played a large part in Council activities this year. They were on the firing line for the Bubble Gum Campaign and the Chocolate Almonds Campaign, the two main fundraisers. They helped with dances and brought grass-roots opinions to the regular Council meetings in an attempt to involve the student body in fund raising and special activities. Class representatives do not receive enough publicity. They are the "cutting edge" of the Council. Thank you.

FRED MEULEMEESTER - OUR PHOTOGRAPHER

Fred Meulemeester started as a part time photographer in 1971 photographing weddings and portraits. He moved to Tillsonburg, Ontario in 1973 where he has served the community and surrounding area. Fred has attended a large number of workshops and seminars, including one of the best schools in the U.S.A. the Winona International School of Professional Photography.

He is also a member of the Professional Photographers of Canada and the Professional Photographers of America. In 1987-88 Fred served as Branch Treasurer on the Board of Directors with the Western Branch of the Professional Photographers of Ontario. In 1987 he served as Program director for the P.P.O. Convention held in London, Ontario.

Fred feels that because of the many conventions and especially participation in print show competition that it has improved his quality of photography.

In 1986 Fred submitted 10 prints for P.P.O. qualification program and had his submission accepted, which gave him an L.P.P.O. status, which means Licentiate Professional Photographer of Ontario. Also the same year he took first place in the open category at International Day, a convention combining Ontario and New York State. As well he took a first in the following three categories - Wedding, Portrait and Commercial and Best in Show in Windsor, Ontario Branch of the P.P.O.

In 1988 at the P.P.O. Convention Fred took 3 awards of merit and was also awarded a Kodak Gallery Award. This award is one of the highest awards bestowed upon a photographer - only four Kodak Gallery awards are presented a year in Ontario.

Because of his involvement in photography on a professional level Fred's Photography Studio is dedicated to high standards in fine portraiture and personal friendly service. Fred's aim is to keep on refining and improving his skills.

Fred's work combines classical tradition with the newest techniques which are relaxed and natural in keeping with today's lifestyle, yet have the look of rare oil paintings.

A portrait by Fred is like owning an original masterpiece.

From the Tillsonburg News: Shutterbug Shuts Out Other Contestants

There is more to being a professional photographer than telling kids to keep their eye on the birdie.

One Tillsonburg photographer knows that very well. So well, in fact, his shutter prowess has earned several awards.

Fred Meulemeester, of Fred's Photography, won nine awards at the Professional Photographers of Michigan convention April 11 to 14. And, he recently earned licensing status from the Professional Photographers of Ontario (PPO).

The PPO has more than 400 members across the province. It provides professional performance and business standards for the industry and offers educational activities for professional photographers.

Mr. Meulemeester has been a PPO member since 1976, serving on the board of directors for the Western Ontario branch for five years. He is now treasurer.

Fred's Photography this month won two awards of merit at the PPO's 103rd annual convention at Fanshawe College in London. Ten qualified Masters and Craftsmen of Photographic Arts judged more than 200 prints at that competition, finding only half the entries good enough to hang in the show.

Participation in conventions and seminars is one of the best ways photographers can learn and improve, Mr. Meulemeester said. That involvement helped him gain licensee status and he is the only Tillsonburg-area photographer to earn that right.

The Michigan exhibition judges selected two of Mr. Meulemeester's photographs as best in their category. One, titled Watching Time Fly, was a commercial photograph for Munro's Jewellers. A striking shot of a Quebec church, titled Reflections of Old Quebec, won a second award of excellence.

Other Fred's Photography prints won five awards of merit, one award of honour and one first in commercial photography.

FACES AND HEADLINES IN THE "NEWS"

Pictured to left is Kim Fick, a Grade 10 Annandale student, who in the fall won third prize in the Ministry of Industry, Trade and Technology essay contest. First place went to Chris Whittington, a Grade 13 student at St. Mary's; second to Kathy Pepper, a Grade 13 student at Glendale.

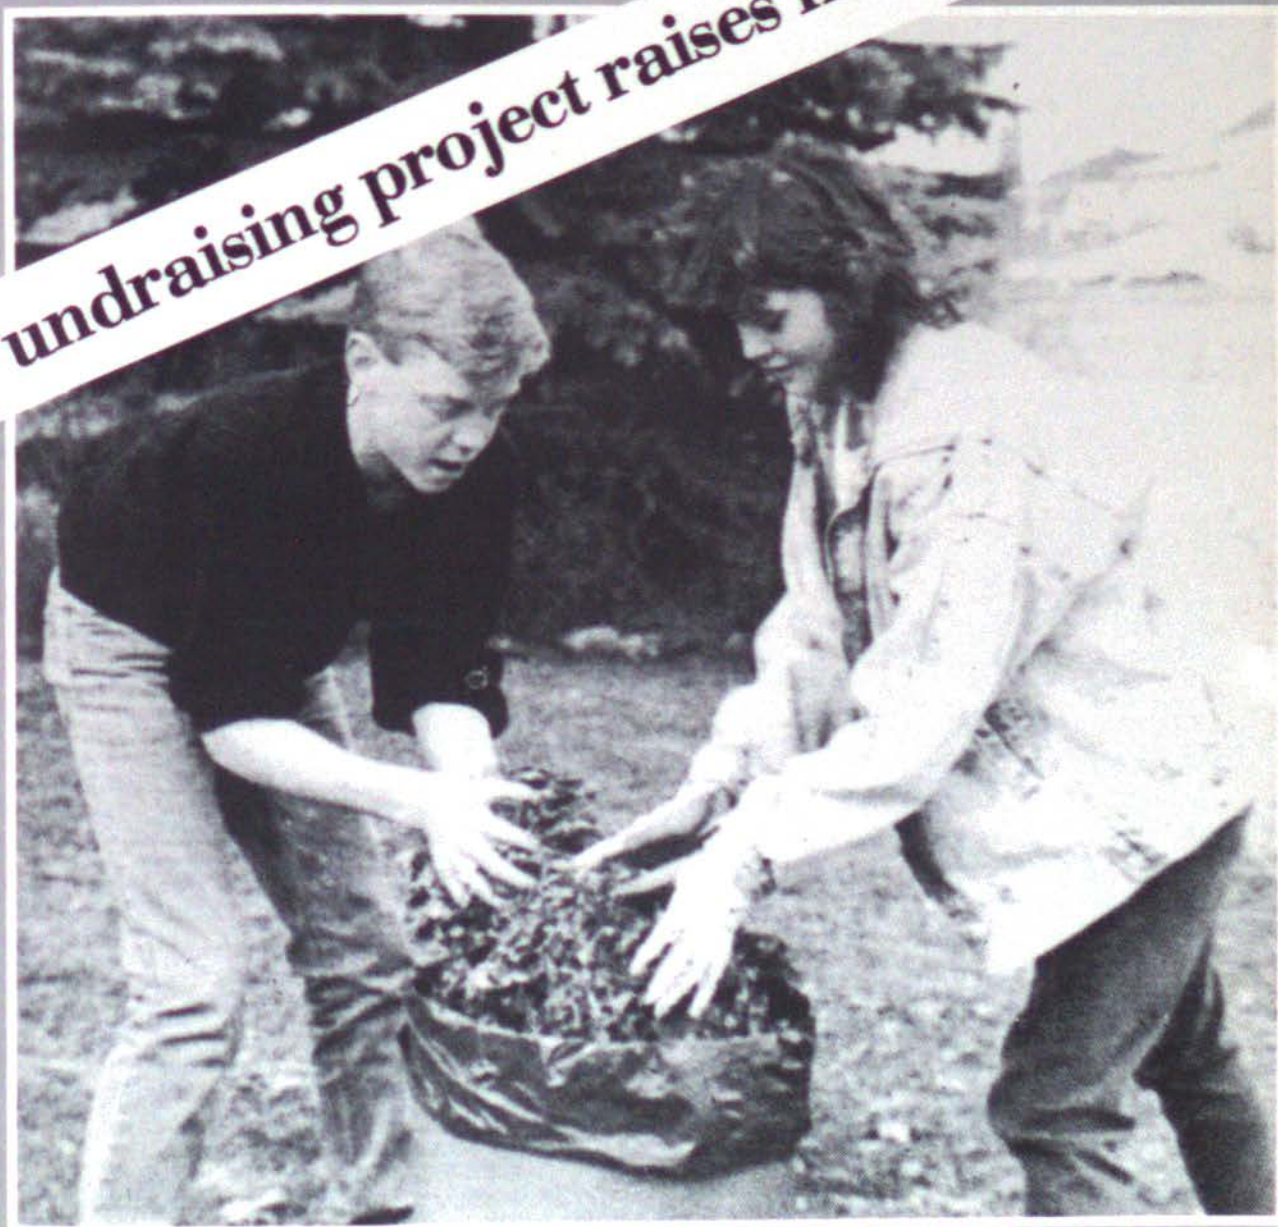

Constance Bigras, a Grade 11 student at Annandale, received one of the "Golden Poet Awards" for 1989 for the inclusion of her poem "Hands Across a Tearful Sea" in The World of Poetry. She will receive her award at a ceremony in Washington, D.C. this fall.

Clockwise, from top left: Norma de la Fuente, our Rotary Exchange Student from Barcelona, Spain, returned home July 30th after a cross-Canada tour with 83 other exchange students; Stacey Efstatheu of 9A won the award for selling the most chocolate almonds in the Student Council fundraiser and she and her family enjoyed the prize of a trip to the Skydome to watch the Blue Jays; Heidi Zsebok returned to Annandale after her great Rotary Exchange year in Scandinavia; Julia Martin was voted MISS TILLSONBURG and threw out the first pitch at "Tillsonburg Day" at the Skydome; Tara deRyk edited the first copy of "The Spectator" in several years working with Mr. Ted Palmer. Below, Gary Harris is pictured to symbolize the 1,100 students from Annandale and Glendale who earned over $11,000 as down payment on a van to use for GEMINI activities in the town.

"HEARTS OF GOLD" RECOGNITION

This year, for the first time, AIR CANADA and the community newspapers of Canada instituted a special award to honour those citizens who "by caring enough to get involved, have made their communities better places to live." THE TILLSONBURG NEWS accepted nominations for this area, awarding 18 members of the community pins and certificates to recognize their outstanding service. Four of our teachers were among the first recipients. We are very proud of them.

MR. WAYNE COYLE

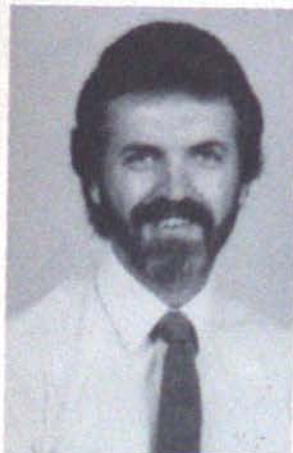

"WAYNE COYLE, 140 Concession St., W., for his nearly 30 years as a highly successful coach of high school teams "as well as filling his job as a teacher admirably well." Wayne's initiation to coaching at Acton, where he coached, on his own, junior and senior basketball, junior and senior football, and track and field, set the tone for the next 27 years. He continued as a coach at Glendale and Annandale schools in championship style. As a department head, teacher, and coach, he is described as "friendly, approachable . . . a friend to the students."

MR. FRED DEVRIENOT

FRED DEVRIENOT, 32 Maple Lane, for his participation and executive roles in amateur sports and for being "remembered by almost three decades of athletes as an incisive and dedicated coach" of high school basketball and football. Noted for his abilities in baseball, golf and tennis; and active member of St. Mary's parish, and a helping hand to wife, Nancy, in community volunteer work.

MR. IAN MOIR

IAN MOIR, 57 Lisgar Avenue, for his work over the years with teenagers in the dramatic and performing arts, gymnastics, girls' basketball, and "as a friendly human being." He helped to develop a strong drama program at Annandale High School; has co-produced PERFORMANCE at Annandale over the past 12 years; has co-coached with his wife Doreen, one of the most successful gymnastics programs in Ontario; has coached some outstanding girls' basketball teams in the early 70s. Ian was also an active member of the Tillsonburg Arts Council.

MR. ARN STOVER

ARNOLD STOVER, R.R. 2, Tillsonburg, for his dedication to his students, "over and above his excellent teaching" over 25 years; working with teenagers in the areas of academics, athletics, the performing arts and on yearbooks. Thousands of volunteer hours have been expended in over 25 years of coaching winning football teams; over 20 years with the TATLER; and more than a decade with PERFORMANCE, the highly successful Annandale student show. His personal involvement with students also extends to helping them with their career goals and being "an exceptionally generous and helpful friend to all."

Poetry . . .

"SO"

So. Here they are.
My feelings
Sprawled on
A piece of paper.

Open to criticisms,
Public scrutiny,
Rejection,
Ridicule.

My personality,
My deepest secrets,
My private longings,
My heartaches.

My poems are not
Being graded,
It is I whom
They are judging.

Do you want to know
What courage is?

Courage is revealing yourself,
At face value, to the critics of the world,
By allowing them
To read your poetry.

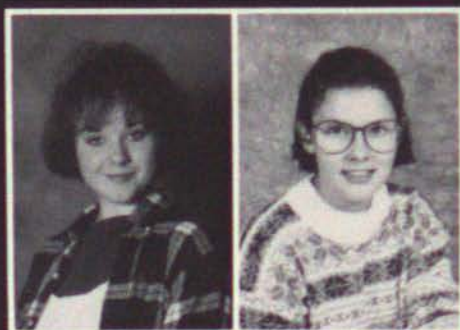

- DONNA GIBSON

WRITING CONTEST WINNERS

This spring, the TATLER, EXPRESSIONS and THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT co-sponsored a Writing Contest for students registered at Annandale High School. The four winners will each receive a free TATLER '89, a free EXPRESSIONS '89 and a free trip to the Stratford Festival. Congratulations to DONNA GIBSON, BO HEALEY, JILL FEDORAK and KIM FICK.

Junior Winners

A STRUGGLE FOR IDENTITY

I had a lonely childhood,
no brothers, no sisters,
just me and my imagination.
I locked myself in an imaginary box.
I created an imaginary friend,
her name was Jill.
She was me and I was her
but we were not the same person.
You see,
she was the one they wanted,
she was the one they loved.
But when I stopped pretending,
when I acted like myself,
they stopped loving me.
When I came out of my imaginary box,
they locked me back in it.

WHO AM I NOW?

- JILL FEDORAK

Because of the scarcity of "good" prose entries, both Junior Prizes (grades 9 & 10) were awarded to poetry. JILL FEDORAK won first prize; Kim Fick second prize. Jill actually had a whole series of poems which were outstanding; however, the judges eventually chose the poems below as the winners.

GYPSY, GYPSY, TELL MY FORTUNE

Her mother was yellow
Be good.
Be warm.
Be yellow.
The mother whispered to her.

Yellow is the colour of soft butter melted on a sticky day.

And so the daughter became blue.

Be clear.
Be strong.
Be blue.
She shouted at her baby.

Blue is the colour
of waves that drown those who cannot swim

And so the baby became yellow.

But the baby watched blue wither,
Which brought sadness and change.

And the baby turned yellow with blue swirls.

Be yellow, or be blue, only be true.

She wrote on the forehead of her doll,
Yellow is melted
blue is drowned

And so the doll turned green
And died.

(A circle is finished.)

- KIM FICK

Senior Winners

DONNA GIBSON and BO HEALEY each wrote prose and poetry selections that were winning entries. Officially, the committee chose one as "Best Prose", the other as "Best Poetry". We prefer to identify each as "Best Writing".

MURDEROUS FATHER TIME

I don't know
If it was a mistake
I guess I'll never Really know if it was.
I sit here and I can't
Make myself feel
Like I always thought
I would feel.
I don't feel different.
I suppose I could try to Trick myself
Into believing
I haven't changed.
But, I'd always
Hold the knowledge
Of what is done.
The roses still stand pretty
On the oak coffee table
Reminding me of you
And your kindness and care.
I dread the day
I'll have to watch the petals fall
Dead to the polished wood beneath
And sweep them away
With a feigned expression
Of nonchalance.

- DONNA GIBSON

PHOENIX

FIRE

I cannot run
I cannot think
I am in love

She is always appearing
With mystical intelligence
Alight with energy
And a mythological ambiance

A trail of flame escapes her brow
Her talons pierce me deep
I writhe and twist, pray and scream
But I am hers, prey to eat

I am consumed, so edible
Body and soul - I cry
But in her I am warm and safe
A part of her - I may fly.

- BO HEALEY

LOOKING BACK

I remember first seeing you
A feline on the prowl
The world beneath you feet
You put the sun in my chest.

It was akin to gazing at art
Should I cheer or be in silent awe?
And art you were, my heart
Sculpted by God, for me.

I looked at you and was dumb
Too beautiful and so unapproachable
How was I to know
That you were thinking of me?

- BO HEALEY

BY MYSELF

The tears begin to show,
The sadness sets in,
My spirits fall.
A dark gloom
Enwraps my body.
My fragile heart breaks.
A tear escapes my eyes,
Spilling pain down my cheek.
An emptiness makes the room cold.
A hollowness fills my soul.
To cover my true feelings,
I put on my mask
And hold up my shield.
I'm a happy person again . . .
Until the next tim I'm by myself,
Behind a closed door.
The I'll start all over again,
My heart will crush,
My tears will fall . . .
And I'll break down and cry!

- JEANINE DONCK

UNHAPPINESS

Everytime I look at you
My heart melts
And it takes all my strength
To walk away
Out of your life so you can be happy
Because your happiness is all that matters
I never want to make you miserable
So I clenched my fists
Harden my heart
And walk by
As my heart cries out for your love.

- NATHALIE PIRON

Silently falling
A clean blanket that
Doesn't choose its bed.
Very carefully it covers
The mute lakes
The deaf trees
The green of the grass
The red of the blood
The fields of violettes
The fields of Death.

Snow.

HERE I SIT

Here I sit with pen and paper in front of me,
Trying to be creative.
Telling myself not to worry,
For what does a number really mean?
A number with someone's opinion beside it: a comment.
A number means to live or die
In the adult world - to fail or succeed.
Letters turning into words.
The combination of ideas.
In front of me
Is an exam, not a poem.

- TRICIA MOIR

REASON TO SURVIVE

You are,
the centre of my world.
the focus of my mind.
the reason I can survive.

You fill,
the emptiness in my heart.
the loneliness in my head.
the desire in my soul.

You keep,
the sparkle in my eyes.
the fire burning in my heart.
the life in my soul,
from dying.

- GREGORY SOL

RENEGADE, I AM -

I wear the stench
Of humanity.
I walk the ashes
Of earth.
I carry the burden
Of time.
I pursue the retrospective
Brotherhood.

- MONICA TOTH

BEAUTIFUL KISS

She kissed me today
And caught me unaware.
Why she did, I cannot say.
I was helpless, but to stare.

Beautiful, as was her kiss,
Soft and perfumed and free,
Her embrace, a waft of mist,
Took a warm hold of me.

What did the poet tell us?
"Parting is such sweet sorrow."
I look at those eyes, filled with fire.
Will she kiss me tomorrow?

I ponder this, sad and alone.
What if she doesn't kiss me?
The thought chills me to the bone.
Then again, it will set me free.

- BO HEALEY

SPUN OUT

Spherical centre of darkness,
Engulf my flesh.
Show me nothing,
Make no sound.
Give me only memory
To live in
Daze gone by.
Feel not pitty or remorse
For this is my wish,
Eat me raw!

- SHAWN WALTON

SKETCHES

My life is a series of sketches;
a developing tapestry of revealing
spectres

My life is a matrix of reality;
a foreboding flicker of light
that casts shadows

My life is a study in seclusion;
a lesson in what I may become, what I may lose.

My life is a series of sketches;
each one intricate and subtle
each one sombre and withdraw.

- MONICA TOTH

A WISP OF BEAUTY

I try to think of her
And the vision comes to me
Like breath to a child.

And I am dumb
Enamoured of this creature
Almost holy in her rapturous power.

Alas, she is a fleeting flower
A dancing, gliding nymph
Singing a beautifully wordless song
Aloft on the warm summer air.

She is a whisper from reality
Her eyes are the night sky.
Her hair, a fall of honey
Her every word, a soft dance of passion.

I fear my words
That they will not do her justice
That they won't describe what I see
That she will hate my words - hate me.

And I fear her
I fear the gentle hold she has
To make a hard, cynical man
An innocent boy in love.

And I love her
In all my mystic, gypsy ways
And if God does love me
She will love me - the same.

- BO HEALEY

AT THE MOVIES

I put on
An act
For them,
The critics
In my life.
The 18 year old
Siskel and Eberts
Of High School.
Sometimes I
Don't like
My performance.
My acting
Isn't believable
Enough,
My blocking,
Not quite right.
My script
Isn't always Brilliant, nor
My supporting actors
Always supportive.
But when it comes
To my ending up
With you,
I'm sure we'll receive
Two thumbs up.

- DONNA GIBSON

DROUGHT

When I lived in the city,
Farming meant nothing to me.
"It's going to be a real scorcher to-day!"
The radio announcer proclaims.
I used to smile and look forward
To a day of swimming and popsicles.
Then, we arrived here.
Plunked into a new life I didn't want to live.
From city to small town and the small-town ways.
Nothing's a secret in small towns.
My old friends' parents were bankers,
Electricians, engineers and businessmen.
Now my friends' parents are farmers.
So are my friends. They work hard on their land.
I sit here and watch our garden die.
I watch our grass turn brown and brittle.
I watch the tree Dad planted for good luck wither.
And I see the dust blowing everywhere.
Once arable land taken by the wind.
A "scorcher" means devastation now.
I have to watch my friends' futures
Blowing off with that wind.
I see their college educations
Withering with the crops beneath the sun.
I see the worry in their parents' eyes.
I see a lot of hard work, gone to waste.
Yes . . . "a scorcher" means a lot more to me . . .
Now.

- DONNA SUE GIBSON

Summer of 1988

ON THE STAGE

The curtain rises
And falls.
Every day is another performance.
The make-up
And costumes
Disguising us
As we try to live the lives
That are picture perfect.
We are all naive.
Sometimes, I take a step back
And remember my childhood.
"I want to be an actress when I grow up . . ."
I already am.

- DONNA GIBSON

THE CLASS OF '89

I've always longed
For the end
Of high school,
Now I fear it.

The beginning
Of the rest of my life
Is around the corner,
And I wish that I could hide here
In Annandale forever.

I've come to love this school
As well as the people in it.

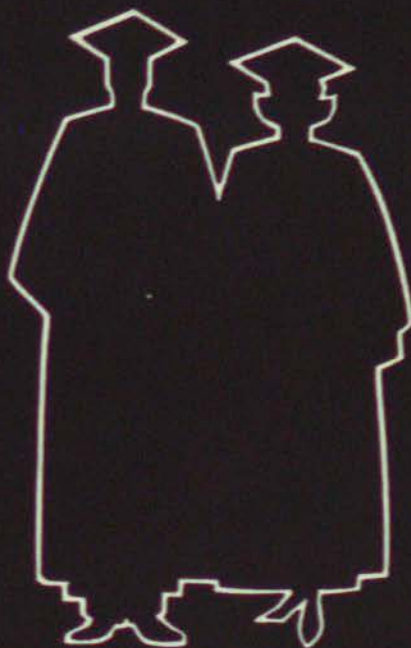

(Why is it the Grade 13's
Always get closer the last year
Only to ache later on
When they're torn apart?)

Well, the class of '89
Will soon be a memory.

Other voices will fill the halls,
Other 13's will take our place.

We won't always be a part of Annandale,
But Annandale will always be a part of us.

- DONNA S. GIBSON
1989

NEVER BE THE SAME

We may come back and walk this hall,
Maybe we'll be in them again and again.
Yet it will still be different next fall.
Walking down Annandale halls will never be the same.

It's been five years of stress and strain.
And finally we've made it to the top.
We've seen a lot, everything from joy to pain.
It's almost over, college or university is the next stop.

We are the graduating students of 1989.
When we leave, we go from the top to the bottom once more.
But a part of this school will always be yours and mine.
Things will change through when we walk out that door.

PERFORMANCE AWARDS

A new feature - "The Battle of the Bands". Over 800 paid admissions over the May 3-4-5 run. A great Friday-night party. Tears by most of those leaving (and even by a few beginning!) Emcees for the 1989 show were all graduating students: Norma de la Fuente, Kelly Epple, Chris Hayward, Tricia Moir, Derek Nunn, Niki Rohrer, Greg Sol, Kitt Sinden, Jenn Theissler, and Cheryl Vilez.

In charge of the show were Director Ian Moir and Coordinators Becky & Arn Stover with much appreciated help from the following members of the Staff: Mr. Wayne Coyle (refreshment booth); Mr. Andre DeDecker (stage production); Mr. Art Pearson (publicity); Miss Rosemary Vamos (stage/set building); Mr. Doug Humphrey (administration); Mr. Ted Palmer (newspaper liaison); Mrs. Gwen Fraser (performance & Drama Club); Mrs. Heather Couse & Mrs. Donna Van Houcke (ticket & program production); Mr. Gus Pellizzari (banking).

PERFORMANCE SCHOLARSHIPS

CONTRIBUTION AWARDS

Some students become involved in their final years at Annandale; they make such a fine contribution that they deserve recognition. DEREK NUNN organized the Emcee Crew this year with precision and skill. Our show's pace and effect were a credit to him. STEWART SOWA was a "rock" back stage: solid, dependable, unflappable. Thank you, gentlemen.

PERFORMER AWARDS

Dancer . . . LISA SEYMOUR. Musician . . . NEAL GARON. We thank you both for gracing our stage one last time and for giving our audiences the gift of your talents.

WE WILL

MISS MARILYN HILLIS

The photograph to the left is symbolic of the quiet and caring teacher that MISS HILLIS has been over the years at Annandale and Glendale. Miss Hillis started teaching at Annandale in 1957, transferred to Glendale for six years, and returned to Annandale as the head of Family Studies. Her extra-curricular involvement has been unobtrusive but important: the Commencement Reception and the Grad Tea will never be the same again without her caring hand. She has helped organize all of our Honour Banquets; she or her students have prepared PERFORMANCE banners year after year. She has helped with costumes for unnumbered drama presentations.

Miss Hillis, we will miss you greatly! Your classes of the past 33 years will remember your gentle good humour and your great expertise. Thank you.

MR. JOHN ARMSTRONG

A superb teacher, a caring friend. JOHN ARMSTRONG. After 32 years at the front of the classroom, Mr. Armstrong is retiring. Most of that time was spent at Annandale as head of History (a bit at Sioux Lookout; a bit at Glendale), a position which he filled with scholarship and wry humour. Mr. Armstrong sponsored the United Nations Club and was the driving force behind the Canadian Affairs Club of the late 60s and early 70s which brought many famous Canadians to the Annandale Gym as speakers. He is a dedicated sportsman (golf and skiing being his two main focusses at present) and coached football at Glendale. He was an outstanding advisor to the Student Council over a period of many years.

Mr. Armstrong, we will miss you greatly! Your incisive intelligence and your sardonic wit kept us all alert: students, teachers and administrators. Thank you

MISS YOU GREATLY!!!

MRS. NANCY MACKENZIE

MME. We will miss your exuberant enthusiasm, your Gallic charm and the special quality of your classes and your announcements.

Mme. MacKenzie has been at Annandale and Glendale for five years since leaving her headship at Norwich. She has arranged numerous trips to Quebec, has organized a French Club, and even led one memorable expedition to France in the March Break of 1988.

Mrs. MacKenzie moves full time to Glendale in the fall; we will miss your dynamic personality greatly.

MR. DAVID PEARCE

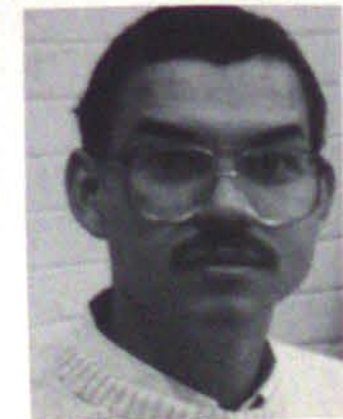

MR. DAVE PEARCE leaves his position as head of Geography to join the central administration as Co-ordinator of Continuing Education. While at Annandale over the past six years, Mr. Pearce coached midget basketball, was staff advisor to the Student Council, and organized a program of field trips for his geography students unsurpassed anywhere. During his stay at Annandale, Mr. Pearce has been busy with complementary duties as Night School Principal at Woodstock, Ingersoll and Tillsonburg.

We wish you well in administration, Mr. Pearce.

MR. ANDRE MEYER

Mr. Andre Meyer has accepted a position with the London Board to teach at their Adult Education Centre at Wheable. This year he taught Science and Physical Education, coached Senior Boys Soccer, helped with Senior Football and became well acquainted with our students. We wish you had been able to stay.

INTRAMURAL SPORT

MR. ART PEARSON

After seven years at Annandale (four as vice-principal; three as principal), Mr. Art Pearson has been transferred to IDCI.

Mr. Pearson has been an enthusiastic supporter of all of our school activities, showing concern and involvement with the students and their efforts from the very start of his stay. He has taken part in Outers Club and Phys. Ed. trips to Algonquin; he has helped coach; he has been part of life here at Annandale.

Most important, he has been open and receptive to both students and teachers whenever they had problems or ideas.

We will miss you greatly! Please come back and visit.

MISS ROSEMARY VAMOS

Miss Rosemary Vamos replaced Mrs. Louise Carroll just after the January examinations for English and Art classes. We regret that she has left us to take a job in London next year as her involvement with the Drama Club at the Sears Festival and her enthusiasm and demanding attitude in the classroom made her a hard-to-replace member of the staff. Good luck in the years to come.

MISS ANN MARIE CHARETTE

Anne Marie. That's how she was down to staff and students. Mlle. Charette was a "monitorise", sponsored by the exchange program between Ontario and Quebec to bring the special flavour of the language and culture of "la belle province" to Ontario. She proved to many of us that she could play a mean game of cards as well. Good luck next year in Ingersoll.

EXCHANGE STUDENT - NORMA DE LA FUENTE

I can't believe this is the end, time has flown by. School is now almost over and my exchange year too.

It was hard at the beginning and now that I have started to enjoy it I have to leave.

I'm gonna miss working in Tatler and in Performance, and walking down Annandale's halls, . . . and the snow, but I'm taking all these memories with me back to Spain.

I would like to thank all my friends, my teachers and families. Thanks to everybody for a great year, I'll never forget it.

Back home in Spain, between parties and going to the beach, I'll think about all of you, and all the things I did and learned in Canada.

TATLER STAFF

In the picture above this write up are the people that made the '88-'89 Tatler a reality. That might not seem like such a big feat to the casual reader of this book, but in actual truth it is a HUGE feat. This Tatler is the product of our hard work, imagination and determination. Our only hope is that it captured the spirit and life at Annandale High School as you know it.

This is our page in which we are allowed to blow our horn, vent our frustrations and share our thoughts.

Collectively as editors, we are proud of the yearbook we have created, and proud of the new ideas and changes that took place. The new colour cover, the new green and yellow background spots and the new Spring, Fall and Winter dividers.

But, we are also proud of the people that worked right along with us. The staff of the Tatler are very important to the school. After all, they are the eyes and ears and the recorders of history at Annandale. They are not only historians but warriors. Daily they battle the forces of evil to get Grad sheets, pictures and various write-ups. They challenge and wrestle coaches for sports information. And they are the manipulators who convince unsuspecting photographers to donate their pictures to the yearbook.

They fought for a singular cause . . . to give you, the students of Annandale, the best yearbook they possibly could.

Of course, they were not always successful; some pictures were never received, team rosters and write-ups never handed in. Sometimes things were turned in only to be swallowed in the black abyss known as Room 30.

However, the Tatler staff remained heroes through it all. They bore the scares of many battles, but they fought for the true cause.

It is with great appreciation we ask the Tatler Staff to "stand up and take a bow."

Many Thanks
Jenn Theissler
Marilyn Miller
Annette Mudge

BUSINESS MANAGERS
LORI COPPENS
JIM BROTZ

TATLER ADVERTISING

Business Manager this year in charge of sales of the yearbook was Lori Coppens. She and Assistant Business Manager Jim Brotz, set up the successful first-week sales promotion that saw over 80 students and teachers who acted quickly and purchased a TATLER during the first week receive the bonus of a meal at BURGER KING and a free copy of EXPRESSIONS. They also ran the home-room sale of books throughout the campaign, counting and banking money each night and distributing the envelopes each morning. They were helped on the record-keeping by Sue Pinter, Stacey Rice, Amy Moore, Emily O'Sullivan, Stephanie Green, Julie Pinter and Missy Dalby.

The Advertising Campaign was co-ordinated by Staff Advisor Arn Stover and brought in over $6,000.00 in advertising revenue. Notable for outstanding sales efforts were Jim Brotz and Lori Coppens who secured a total of $1,000.00 in four advertising forays. Josh Dewaele and Derek Tait took second-place honours selling $530.00 worth of advertising on two sales runs. Stacey Rice combined with two different sales partners (Alison Piron for $220.00 and another partner for $255.00) for a third-place total of $475.00 while Emily O'Sullivan and Amy Moore were partners for $470.00 worth of sales.

Some of the 35 students and teachers who sold advertising this year and made TATLER 89 possible are pictured above. Standing are Kate Koster, Arn Stover, Jennifer Freeman, Ron Nezezon, Norma de la Fuente, Tara de Ryk, Cheryl Vilez, Derek Nunn, Jim Brotz, Lori Coppens, Mandy Ketchabaw, Niki Rohrer, Cyndi Rushton, Brent Collins, Steve Gugeler. Sitting or kneeling are Chad Weiler, Ron Rohrer, Alan Gubesch, Emily O'Sullivan, Alison Piron, Josh Dewaele, Stacey Rice, Derek Tait, Amy Moore, Mark Hayes and Mike Pinter.

ANNETTE MUDGE

Putting together a yearbook demands long hours, hard work and much patience. There were times when I thought that we wouldn't meet our deadlines, but somehow we always did. This was because of the dedication of the yearbook staff. These people deserve a lot of credit.

I was honored to be chosen as a Tatler Editor along with Jenn Theissler and Annette Mudge. It meant a lot to me being able to share the Tatler with two of my closest friends. Although we did have our share of disagreements, we were able to put together an excellent book, which we were all pleased with and very proud of. We made a great team! Thank you so much for your care and support.

I would also like to thank the rest of the yearbook staff: Norma, Julie, Missy, Mike, Steve, and especially Tricia and Sue. Without your support Tatler '89 would never have become a reality.

A big thank-you goes to Lori and Jim, who worked hard selling advertisements, and to Kara and Jamie, who took countless pictures for us. We couldn't have done it without you.

Most of all, I would like to thank Mr. Stover. Thanks for giving me such a wonderful opportunity. It has been a terrific experience and I have learned a lot from it. I never realized how much work was actually involved in the Tatler until this year. Your support and patience with us was greatly appreciated. You were always there when we needed you, not only as a staff advisor, but as a friend too. You are a wonderful person and I will miss you a lot. Once again, Thank-you.

All in all, it's been a great year and I sincerely hope that everyone enjoys Tatler '89.

EDITORS'

Once again another year has come and gone, and with it, another yearbook has been sweated over and finally completed. At the beginning of the year, it didn't seem possible that we would ever get all 192 pages finished, but as usual we got them completed by our deadlines.

I'm glad that I was given the opportunity of being a Tatler Editor, along with Marilyn and Jenn. These two worked very hard, spending a great deal of time in Room 30, slaving over Grad. pictures, hunting down quotes and write-ups and typing copy. We worked as a team, and, as with all teams, we sometimes had our disagreements due to our own opinions, but we always managed to combine our ideas and turn out a page that satisfied us all.

Along with my fellow editors were the Tatler staff, who put in many hours of typing and doing layouts. Sue, Tricia, Julie, Missy, Norma, Mike and Steve helped a great deal in making this year's book a success. Without them, the Tatler would not have been possible. As well, Kara and Jamie took countless pictures of many school activities. These pictures are a great asset to the Tatler as they record us growing up at Annandale. Lori Ann and Jim were greatly involved in this book, as they sold many advertisements at the beginning of their summer holidays. To all of these people; Thank-you, for your time and effort.

Mr. Stover, it is impossible to say all the things that should be said so I'll just say it in simple terms. You are Tatler and you are the livelihood of this yearbook. You are our inspiration. The Tatler would not be possible if you didn't care for it the way that you do. I have grown to care for this yearbook and its future tremendously, because I know it means so much to Annandale.

The Tatler is a living, exciting record of our High School career and I hope it continues to be a great success forever. Good Luck to the staff next year. It will be a great challenge but with patience and a will to succeed, I know you will be victorious.

Once again, I would like to thank my close friends, and co-editors, Marilyn Miller and Jenn Theissler.

You guys are the greatest.

Thank you, Annandale, for the memories.

MARILYN MILLER

MESSAGES

Well, another year has come and gone and once again the TATLER has captured those memories forever in print. This year, the Tatler has undergone some unique changes as the graduating members of its staff decided to 'go out with a BANG instead of a whimper!'. We hope that you will enjoy these new changes as much as we do.

And now for the important stuff . . . the thank-you's.

There are many people that helped put this book together this year. Many nameless people that did many thankless jobs like advertising or donating helium. A collective thank you goes to all of you.

To Kara and Jamie, many thanks. Both of you and your photographic talents helped make the TATLER a true collection of the years events.

To Norma, who helped out in many different ways and gave us many different (and unique) ideas that helped with TATLER'S new image.

To Missy, Mike, Julie and Steve, you guys helped out more than you'll ever know. We've left you a whole set of footprints to follow and I hope and pray that you will. You are the future of TATLER and I hope that you will keep the tradition growing strong and the spirit of TALTER alive and well.

A big, huge thank you goes to Lori Ann and Jim. You two were an extremely vital part of TATLER because you were the ones who kept us afloat on the business end of things. The book wouldn't have been possible without you.

To Tricia and Sue, two very special friends that were graceful enough to 'hand over the reins' and allowed Mar, Annette and I to 'wreak our own havoc'. You guys were always there to help us out and give us advice but you were kind enough to let us make our own mistakes. Thank you, for everything.

To Mr. Stover. What can I say except that your friendship has meant a great deal to me in the five years we've known each other and worked together. Thank you for giving me this opportunity to be a Co-Editor. It was a wonderful (although sometimes exasperating) experience. I pray that you will always be "constantly risking absurdity". You are an inspirational character and I hope that Tatler will continue to be your inspiration.

JENN THEISSLER

And, finally, a thank you to my co-editors. Being able to work with two of my closest friends made this book special. We had our rough times . . . but we also had our good times. You guys taught me a lot about dedication, friendship and the meaning of the word "compromise". It has been quite an experience and I thank you for it.

In closing, I would just like to say good luck to the graduating class of '89. May you find success in every avenue and may the Tatler serve your memory in time.

. . . from a little room

Thank you to JENN and ANNETTE and MARILYN for completing the marathon. Five years of TATLER is probably too much for anyone, but you fulfilled your responsibilities and left a smaller number of pages to be completed in July than is usually the case.

I wish that you could have enlisted more help from other students. I fear TATLER '89 was a chore at times; it should be a joy or it shouldn't have to be done.

I wish you much happiness at university; we walked a long road together in PERFORMANCE and TATLER; at times a lonely one. May the reading of "your" book bring you the sense of fulfillment and satisfaction that your weariness robbed you of while it was being produced.

Simply, thank you.

To TRICIA and SUE: last year and your accomplishments still overwhelm me. I will never forget that sense of a trust fulfilled. TATLER '89 would never have had a chance to live in the same form if you had not delivered TATLER '88 with so much effort and so little publicity. However, I knew what each of you had done. And maybe that's the important thing. For this year, thanks for being there when the editors . . . and I . . . needed you.

Sincerely, thank you.

To MELISSA and JULIE and MIKE and STEVE and EMILY and STACEY and AMY and CAROLINE and STEPHANIE hold onto your hats! You, along with a lot of kids who have never worked on TATLER at all, are the hope of next year if we are to have a book.

Believe it . . . there will be a TATLER '90 . . . and it will be good. We'll all make it so!

To JAMIE, & JAMIE, to KARA, to ALLEN, thanks for the photos without which this book would have lost much of its lustre and much of its completeness.

To FRED MEULEMEESTER of FRED'S PHOTOGRAPHY, full recognition of the fact that there would be no yearbook in the sense that it exists without him. Your good humour and immense talent have helped so greatly that thanks seem inadequate.

To JEFF TRIBE who followed the tradition of MARK SMITH so fully at THE TILLSONBURG NEWS. We miss you. Every success at your new position (Just as we wished Mark earlier!), but we really wish that you could have stayed. Thanks for everything.

To LORI and JIM and all the students who accomplished the impossible - selling over $6,000.00 worth of Advertising to keep TATLER afloat for another year. Those not involved with the "money end" of TATLER do not understand the sacrifices and effort made. Thank you.

Finally, my thanks to two very special ladies who allowed me to maintain my sanity and my health this year.

To MARY MARRIN, the Jostens representative, who gave us such good, common-sense advice when our imaginations became a bit alarming and who spurred us on to better layouts when the time schedule had persuaded us to "make do" . . . thank you very, very much.

To BECKY STOVER, without whom there would be no Arn Stover. Not thanks, but love.

Loose Ends!!!

Mrs. Irene Vandermeersch was absent on maternity leave when the group photo of the staff was taken. Congratulations to Mrs. Vandermeersch and husband John on the safe, healthy birth of a second son.

Mr. Stover said to include this picture of Mr. Armstrong on his last day of classes because he liked it better than any other picture we had of Mr. Armstrong. Who are we to argue?

Mr. Jim Donaldson had a fine Tennis Squad this year. Pictured above in a group photo are the winners of championships at Oxford-Elgin. We knew he would like this photo.

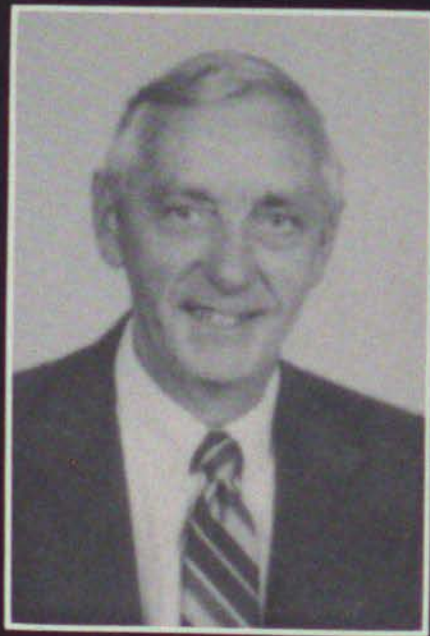

Mr. Fred Meuelemeester, OUR photographer. Thanks so much!

Jamie Pattyn, who enjoyed himself so much taking pictures of PERFORMANCE that he kept right on.

Mr. Richard Nemeth, graduate of Annandale and one of the finest athletes ever to come out of the Tillsonburg Schools, who was guest speaker at our Athletic Banquet. Thank you, Mr. Nemeth.

MR. J. ARMSTRONG
