Best Wishes TO THE STAFF AND PUPILS OF I.D.C.I.

INGERSOLL CLUB

On behalf of the Kiwanis Club of Ingersoll, I extend to you greetings and best wishes.

The years of adolescence bring many problems and frustrations. The constantly changing world adds burdens which we never experienced at your age. We cannot gift-wrap our heritage and pass it on to you, but we can point the way by presenting the principles which underlie freedom in every age.

Every great crusade began with an idea and reached fruition by personal dedication of an individual. We believe that every citizen, in what'er position in life he or she finds himself, will not only think but act for the betterment of his community, and act to oppose evil and to conserve that which is good.

THEME: FREEDOM — A CALL TO PERSONAL SERVICE

- A call to personal service to the creator of all mankind.
- A call to personal service to youth to whom the future belongs.
- A call to personal service to the world in which we live.
- A call to personal service to our nations — free men all.
- A call to personal service to our fellow citizens whom we serve.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

It is an extraordinary pleasure for me, and on behalf of the Town Council, to extend felicitations of the Town of Ingersoll to the teaching staff and pupils of the Ingersoll District Collegiate Institute.

Characteristic of our school for many years has been the success in all its various activities, which has brought honour to the pupils and the school area in general.

I suggest you be very jealous of the successes you have attained in your academic progress, cadet inspection, public speaking and sporting activities, all of which develops that spirit of friendly rivalry, a very necessary quality in your after-school years.

As the school or preparatory years move by swiftly, it is my sincere admonition to the pupils to avail yourselves of every opportunity afforded by your qualified teachers, thereby fitting yourselves for your respective places in contributing to mankind's welfare.

THOS. J. MORRISON, Mayor

In his well-respected theoretical thesis: 'The Aims of Education', Alfred North Whitehead stated: "Your learning is useless to you till you have lost your textbooks, burnt your lecture notes, and forgotten the minutiae which you learnt by heart for the examination . . . The function of education is to enable you to shed details in favour of principles."

The implication of this quotation would seem to be that the true purpose of education is to condition intellectual and human values in the student in preparation for the responsibilities of adulthood, rather than merely forcing him to memorize courses of study. And indeed, the development of whole human beings, capable of assimilating ideas, reasoning alternatives, and determining a course of action is vital to the future of our civilization.

Without this conditioning we receive during our years in the classrooms, we would degenerate to the level of a living death, an existence without motives, principles, and pleasures.

But in order to achieve the maximum results while in school, we must not be afraid to question, listen, and most important, to work to the limits of our capabilities. Otherwise, our classroom time is wasted and we are disregarding our responsibilities.

In the molding of principles which Whitehead describes, a substantial contribution is made by the extra-curricular activities we participate in during the school year. And it is the recording of these activities for future reminiscence that is the major purpose of our Volt. A large number of students and several staff members have zealously devoted time to the preparation of this magazine and it is my sincere hope that this Volt approaches the standards of its seventeen predecessors.

EDITORIAL — MARGARET EMERY

"To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield." These are the words of Lord Tennyson in his poem Ulysses. I believe that their meaning can be applied to all phases of school life. I say all phases because high school is not just passing into the next grade, not just attending the compulsory classes, and doing the necessary homework. Extra-curricular activities are equally important in our development. For it is during our school years that we strive to do our best, that we seek knowledge about ourselves and the world around us, and that, having done this, we are able to find personal satisfaction and a better understanding of life. We must never yield to the temptation to stop growing.

The Volt is a record of our attempts — both successes and failures. As you leaf through its pages you remember the hard work everyone did to make the year's activities the success that they were — the At Home, the Blue and White Review, cadet inspection, and many others.

As co-editor I would like to thank all those who so willingly gave their time in order that this book might be published.

The Volt is your book. We hope you enjoy it.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL
INGERSOLL DISTRICT
COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

It is a pleasure for me to extend congratulations and best wishes to our 1965 graduates.

Few periods in history have been as challenging and exciting as those in which we live. Knowledge is expanding rapidly and new courses are being introduced into our schools to prepare students for this changing world.

I believe our school provides the necessary opportunities, whether the goal of a student is to enter the professions or to prepare himself for employment at a skilled or semi-skilled trade.

While preparation for one's life work is of prime importance for students, one would expect that pupils would have acquired more than mere academic knowledge or skills during the four or five years at this school. To develop good moral attitudes, and healthy minds; to learn to co-operate with parents, teachers and fellow pupils; to respect authority and the rights of others; to put forth an honest, conscientious effort in every field of endeavour; to recognize the value of other people's opinions; to extend a helping hand to the unfortunate — these are more precious than a large bank account, and are qualities for which students should strive and work.

I should like to close with a challenge issued by Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, in her Christmas message. She said, in part: "You young people are needed; there is a great task ahead of you — the building of a new world. You have brains and courage, imagination and humanity; direct them to the things that have to be achieved in this century, if mankind is to live together in happiness and prosperity."

MESSAGE FROM CHAIRMAN OF BOARD TO I.D.C.I.

On behalf of the Board of your school, I extend greetings to you all. Especially, we want to express appreciation to the Volt staff for having again opened the doors of I.D.C.I. life to parents and friends. We enjoy it. Then, we wish continuing achievement to this year's graduates, and to every student who is working toward a graduation day.

The years roll on, and change has brought us face to face with these facts . . . We are a big school. We, the Board, have a big job to do in the mechanics of financing and management. The Staff has a big responsibility in teaching, counselling, disciplining . . . But you have the biggest part of all. You must make all our efforts and all your efforts pay off in terms of real living.

You live in fluctuating times, in unstable days, and all around you voices urge "Change . . . Advance . . . Expand." This is good advice in relations to the tools for living, and here at I.D.C.I. you are offered the best in education as a prime tool. But I urge you to be aware that your changing world has need of principles . . . of high moral principles. The eyes of many nations are on Canada and on Canadian standards. As you live under a new flag, be bold to see that the moral principles it stands for are not lowered, but raised higher and higher. We need more love and charity toward one another. We need more absolute honesty and integrity. We need more faith in God, and more peace among men.

Our hope is in you.

STUDENTS' COUNCIL

The Student Council for 1964-65 was elected in September after a brief campaign. The results of the voting were as follows:

- President Roger Coles
- Vice-President John Henderson
- 2nd Vice-President Bill Davey
- Secretary Susanne Hines
- Assistant Secretary Brenda Cole

These elected officers, along with the presidents of the other school organizations, form representatives, and representatives of the teaching staff, make up the Student Council.

Regular meetings are held throughout the year for the transaction of such business as the awarding of honour pins and the sale of Christmas cards and crests. The main purpose of the Council is to organize the school activities: Initiation Day, the Christmas Literary Programme, the "At Home" Dance, and the Blue and White Revue. The Student Council plays a vital role in stimulating the fine school spirit that prevails at I.D.C.I. and it is our sincere hope that the year 1964-65 will be a memorable one for both staff and students.

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement, November 13, 1964, again marked the end of high school life for the Grade XIII graduating class and recognized the various achievements of individual students in our school.

This year a hundred and twenty-nine graduates made the traditional processional march to the front of the auditorium, sixty-one to receive Secondary School Graduation diplomas, twenty-nine to receive honour diplomas and thirty-nine for commercial diplomas.

Marc Kilgour delivered the valedictory address. Among other awards, he received the John Wolfe McColl Scholarship, the Canadian Mathematical Prize for high standing on Grade XIII problems paper and an Ontario Scholarship. Other Ontario Scholars and high prize winners were Nora Oliver and Marilyn Moulton. Nora Oliver and Dan McInnis each won a Kiwanis Citizenship award which is one of the highest honours to be achieved at our school. Many other scholarships and bursaries were presented.

The Orchestra and Senior Girls' Glee Club provided a pleasant musical interlude before the final presentation of prizes for high academic standing, cadets and public speaking. A social hour and dance brought a memorable evening to a close.

JANE JANSEN, 13A

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS — 1964

The most significant aspect of our youth is the manner in which we grow out of it, and it is for the opportunity to do so in a healthful, stimulating, and disciplined environment that I, on behalf of the graduating class of 1963-64, wish to thank you all.

We have now grown old enough to realize that four or five years is not really a long time, but the few years which we spent here, in this school, are without equal in the development of our separate characters, and, as we go on, we will become more and more aware of the importance of this time in our lives. Now, each of us vividly remembers details of life in high school. As these memories grow faint, we ourselves will be living memorials to the years we spent here: the fine character traits, the honest and upright outlook, the higher calibre of our thought and conversation — all these qualities and more have been bred, nurtured, and developed here. We have grown and are near maturity. For this opportunity we offer thanks.

First we wish to say that we are proud and fortunate to have been born into a society in which every man has the right to be educated free of charge as far as we are now. No amount of gratitude can equal this privilege; we must do our best to ensure it for posterity.

We have been and still are proud of our school itself — the new building and spacious facilities. We would like to tell the people of the town that we think nothing could have been more worthwhile.

We are also indebted to the many opportunities for academic and athletic advancement within the bounds of the extra-curricular activities of the school.

We want to show our appreciation of the staff of the I.D.C.I., who were so proud of us in our victories, so understanding in our defeats, and who certainly worked as hard and as diligently and as willingly as any student. Our debt to you cannot be expressed in words.

For ourselves, all this — this room, this school, maybe even this town — is behind us now. We have reached a turning point in our lives; by ourselves, and by ourselves alone, can we shape it into the first of many climaxes. As we gather here tonight, all the glories and frustrations of the past years flash into our minds. For the first time we see them as an entity, not as a set of interchangeable incidents. For the first time we see that only from the Past can we gain our inspiration and our courage for the Future.

ALUMNI

The 1964 graduates of I.D.C.I. have disappeared from the corridors of our school and have climbed onto the next plateau of life, the world of advanced education or gainful employment.

Many of our alumni have embarked upon a quest of learning at the university level. Now attending the University of Western Ontario are Eunice Caffyn, Marilyn Moulton, Wayne Moulton, Rick Sales, Cherie Smith, Doreen Wilson, and Janet Moore (Brescia Hall). At the University of Toronto are two of our Ontario Scholars, Nora Oliver and Marc Kilgour. Enrolled at the University of Waterloo are Verna Connor, Carl Davey, Robert Gilbert, Gerry Kestle, and Keith Silcox. Elsewhere are Graem Atkinson at Queen's, Ron Haycock and Dan McInnis at Waterloo Lutheran, Peter Chipps at a Bible Institute in Chicago, and Fred Kean at Ryerson.

Six graduates have chosen the profession of elementary school teaching and are attending London Teachers' College. They are Mike Cope, Jean Fleming, Murray Jones, Jack MacPherson, Mary Pellow, and Mary Woods. In training for the rewarding field of nursing are Susan Blancher, at Woodstock General; Donna Clifton and Myrna Newcombe, at Hamilton General; and Carol Hepworth, at Sarnia General.

Grade 13 students who have accepted employment offers include Gary Bowman, at the London Flying Club; Martin Dendekker, working in Woodstock; and Ed Hogg, at Hogg's Feed Mill in Thamesford.

Returning to I.D.C.I. to continue studies were Pat Berdan, Margaret Berry, Dick Bowman, Harry Durham, Susanne Hines, Wayne Kittmer, Don Pirie, Ken Sutherland, Robert Thompson, Adrie Tuns, Allan Turton, Allan Warden and Gordon Wylie.

Our congratulations are extended to these students and may they enjoy increasing good fortune in their future endeavours.

COMMERCIAL ALUMNI

We wish the Commercial graduates of 1964 much success as they enter the world of business.

Those employed in Ingersoll are: Sandra Bourne and Ruth Minard, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce; Eleanor Whiteford, George Franklin and Gordon Pike, Bank of Montreal; John Nadalin and Dave Taylor, Royal Bank of Canada; Carol Bruce, Start & Marshall; Penny Blancher, Ingersoll Machine and Tool Company; Bonnie Baxter, Morrow Screw & Nut Company.

London: Darlene Fleming, Jean Fleming, Janet Guenette, Sheril Hansford, Mildred Pearson, Gloria Ritchie, Linda Edwards, Marilyn Graham, Barbara Moulton, Ann Mutsaers, Lorraine Todd, and Ruth Henderson are at the London Life Insurance Company. Evelyn Day, Premier Trust Company; Sandra Higgins, Canada Paints Company; Betty Verkuil, Emco; Grant Nunn, Ontario Department of Highways.

Woodstock: Clarence Best, La France Textiles; Joanne Armstrong, Standard Tube Company; Margaret Ann Crawford, York Knitting Mills; Mary Dale, Unemployment Insurance Office; Greg Moon, Bank of Montreal.

GORDON ADAM. Gordon was an active member of the boys' volleyball school team this year. Maybe that's why his favourite personality is "our own honourable, esteemed, aristocratic," Roger Coles? who was one of his fellow team mates. Gordon hasn't decided what might follow his education at I.D.C.I.

SUSAN BARNETT. In spite of her objections to the long hours in 120, Susan hopes to pursue her mathematical talents at Waterloo next year. As president of the Red Cross Society and as a member of the Glee Club, Susan is never idle. Her interests also include a certain person at Stratford Collegiate.

PATRICIA BERDAN. Pat's great love for education leads her down the path to Teachers' College to become an educator. We have often wondered if Pat will discover a new kind of Math, because of her ardent interest in the Senior Math. Club.

MARGARET BERRY. When not telling jokes Marg. is occupied with French, Trigonometry, Algebra, Geometry and Physics. Marg's future ambition is to be an Airline Hostess. She especially enjoys her spares in 120 as well as nosey bus drivers.

SANDRA BLAND. We extend a welcome back to Sandi who took a leave of absence to study abroad "en Suisse" last year. We wish her success in her language studies at university next year. Sandra is active in Volleyball, Basketball and 'At Home' decorating.

KEN BONIFACE. Ken should be able to accept the nerve-racking pranks of his students when he becomes a teacher, as he seems to spend his leisure time teasing the girls of 13B.

DICK BOWMAN. When Dick is not playing volleyball, basketball or missing three-foot putts (his pet peeve) his normal serious nature shows through? ? ? Dick's ambition is U. of N.M. or U. of C. and his favourite personality is "REB".

MORLEY BOWMAN. Morley is one of I.D.C.I.'s more active athletes who takes part in football as well as inter-form sports. He hopes eventually to play in the Grey Cup. Morley wishes that teachers and a certain E.P. would grow.

BRYAN BRADFELD. Bryan (also "Satch") plans to attend Teachers' College next year. His many activities include Red Cross, Inter-form Sports, Mixed Glee Club and HHHNC. He also takes an interest in a certain M. C. from Grade 12. Satch's favourite personality is Cap'n Crunch.

ROBERT CAMPBELL. Next year Bob plans to take engineering at Waterloo University. As 13A's tallest member, Bob has been a valuable asset to the basketball team during his high school years. His interests also include cadets and a certain person named Wendy.

HELEN CARTER. Helen's happy-go-lucky nature will make all her students fall in love with her when she becomes a teacher. She admits that her happy nature is momentarily depressed when exposed to the evils of TV commercials. Helen's interests include everything from cadets and Volt to Pierre Burton.

WILLIAM CLOTHIER. Bill plans to attend U.W.O. next year. In addition to his work on the Volt, Bill participates in Inter-mural Sports and the French Club. His pet peeve seems to be algebraic equations with imaginary roots.

MICHAEL CLUDERAY. Mike is our recruit from England and is an active member of the Mixed Glee Club. Although he says he has a dislike for school, Mike plans to attend Teachers' College next year.

RONALD COOK. Ron's big smile brightens up those dull days which do occur sometimes. Ron tries to persuade people that he is bashful but we have become wise to this deception. He hasn't decided whether to go to Teachers' College or to Waterloo Lutheran College. Whatever his choice, we send our best.

STEVE COOPER. Music seems to have been the key to Steve's existence the past five years as he has taken part in Orchestra, Glee Club and Trumpet Band. Steve hopes to major in English at U. of T. next year. We wish you luck Steve — who knows — may be you will be another Henry Miller.

MARGARET CRYDERMAN. This member of 13B has the ability to smile through the worst, and for this reason she was an excellent cheerleader. Margaret also is the President of the French Club this year. Her future plans lead to either Western or Waterloo University.

ROBERT CUTHBERT. Bob is 13A's attendance sheet bearer. His future plans are to further his education in the fields of Engineering. Bob's activities include the Forestry Club and thinking up jokes to say at appropriate times in class.

WILLIAM DAVEY. Bill's first and foremost activity is curling; in fact his future ambition is to play and beat Ernie Richardson. His many other activities include Student Council, Interhouse Sports and volleyball. In spite of his difficulty in spelling, Bill plans to further his education at University.

HARRY DURHAM. Harry plans to attend the University of Waterloo next year. He is admired for his bashfulness and his chief activities include fixing his car and obeying his boss, B. D.

RUTH ELLIOTT. This year Ruth is 13A's Student Council representative as well as an avid worker for the Volt. She has achieved class recognition for her ability to do homework until 2:00 a.m. each night and still arrive at school at least half awake. In spite of her complaints about chemistry problems.

MARGARET EMERY. Marg. is 13A's "most industrious student". Her activities have included cheer-leading, curling, Trumpet Band and the Volt. Marg. plans to attend O.V.C. next year and her chief complaint seems to be homework.

ELAINE GRAYDON. Elaine's future plans are to attend Teachers' College. As social convener of the G.A.A., her other activities include volleyball, basketball, Red Cross and Volt Staff. She also shows an interest in a certain W. G. C.

JANET HACKER. "Sleepy" Janet's ambition to take languages at Western may have been a motive for her participation in one of the school's newer activities: the French Club. She has also been an active member of the library club throughout her years at I.D.C.I.

LANNY HARRIS. Lanny divides his time at school among D.C.R.A., football and inter-form sports. He is famous for his aptitudes in French and next year he hopes to take engineering at Waterloo. His favourite personality is Gypsy Rose Lee.

DONALD LEE. Following Grade 13, Don plans to attend Teachers' College and then on to teaching Grade 6. His interests include the Mixed Glee Club and the Library Club in which he is a faithful worker. His pet peeve seems to be school in general.

GRACE LEMMON. Being Ralph's sister is quite a job but we all agree that Grace does the job quite well. Grace hopes to become a teacher of the 'wee folk' in the kindergarten of some public school. Her interests are cadets, inter-form sports, and W. H. G. Best of luck, Grace.

MARGARET LINDSAY. Margaret plans to attend Western next year and then to Teachers' College to become another school "marm". Because of her ability to talk she will never lack words for a lesson. Her activities include cadets and glee clubs.

JAMES LONGFIELD. Although Jim says that he will attend the Banff School of Fine Arts, we feel that he would be a real success in a Photography Course at Ryerson as he is responsible for many of the fine pictures in the Volt. Our own Mr. Burke holds a place of high esteem as Jim's favourite personality.

JOHN HENDERSON. John is truly 13B's athletic star. He has played football and is outstanding in his feats of hockey with the Ingersoll Jr. B Marlands. John admits that his future ambition is to pass French — Keep trying John, we know you will make it.

SUSANNE HINES. Laboratory Technology seems to be in the future for Susanne. We hope that 'Lab' work doesn't involve too much homework for Susanne's sake, because according to her it's her only complaint. Susanne's list of activities include curling and Student Council.

ALLAN HOBBS. Allan's ambition is to be an Australian sheep rancher. As well as speaking French fluently, he adds a great deal to our annual cadet inspections and to the HNNHC. Allan's pet peeve is chemistry and his favourite personality is "Pete".

RONALD HORTON. Ron's school interests include football, Volt staff and inter-form sports. Ron's ambition is to take Engineering at Toronto; however, many people think that he would also make a fine lawyer.

PADDY LOUNSBURY. Paddy's choreography produced the Modern Jazz interpretation at last season's Blue and White and in this season's Christmas programme she took on the arduous task of directing 13B's Male Kick Line. Paddy hopes to follow Mr. Gutteridge's footsteps by studying English at Queen's.

ROSS MacDONALD. Ross' school activities are censored because of his shy, innocent and basically normal personality. Ross' ambition is to take Mathematics at Waterloo, if he can overcome his pet peeve of homework and other problems brought on by life.

VALERIE MacKAY. Valerie is our athlete who hopes to become a "sew and sew" at Ryerson. Because of her creative nature and her admiration of the famous works of Christian Dior, we have great confidence that she will succeed. We all wish her "good luck".

DANIEL MAHONEY. Dan has a slight problem in that he can't decide who he admires more, Simon Templar or James Bond. To remedy the situation he picked a character with both qualities — Simon Bond? Perhaps someday he will play football at university. Dan admits that his only fault is lousy exams.

PHYLLIS HOSSACK. Phyllis hopes to study nursing at the Florence Nightingale School of Nursing in Toronto next year. Her interests include cadets, glee clubs, and Martin Luther King.

JANE JANSEN. Upon graduating from Grade 13, Jane plans to enter the University of Western Ontario. This year she is an active participant in the Glee Club and she also serves on the Volt Staff. Her pet peeve seems to be the school cafeteria.

BRIAN KENNEDY. Brian is this year's top student in Grade 13. Next year he plans to attend Western University to prepare himself to be a high school teacher. He is an active participant in both the Mixed Glee Club and the Math. Club.

WAYNE KITTMER. Wayne's look of innocence may be deceiving, for we feel that there must be some other interest besides going to school. Although he is undecided about his future, his fondest wish is to drive a Thunderbird. "Bonne Chance" Wayne.

ROBERT McWILLIAMS. In the future, Robert hopes to be a dentist but at present he is engaged in only one activity and that is passing Grade 13. The love of his fellowman helps to overcome his pet peeve — Robert Guthbert.

RUTH MILLS. After graduating from I.D.C.I. Ruth hopes to enter the field of nursing. When not occupied with her duties on the French Club Executive, she is usually found doing homework. Her pet peeve is lamps that go out.

MARY ELLEN MITCHELL. Mlle. Mary Ellen is mad about French after having spent the summer "dans la Belle Province" and because of this she hopes to study "Français à l'université avec les garçons". She says that her favourite personality is Tom Jones but we know differently, don't we?

MIKE MOIR. Mike's main school activities are curling and cadets. He plans to take Engineering at Waterloo next year. Mike's pet peeve is work and his outstanding characteristic is silence. The person he is trying to be most like is Sterling Moss.

ROBERT MONTAGUE. Although Bob claims to have a warped sense of humour we feel that we can always count on him to brighten up a dull moment in any class. We hope Bob takes his humour on to university to cheer others. Bob's activities include Red Cross, Cadets and Volt.

ROGER PETTIT. During 5 long years at I.D.C.I., Roger's interests have included curling, Trumpet Band, Student Council, Volt Staff and of course, Susan. His future plans seem to be Dentistry at U. of T.

DON PIRIE. Don's outstanding quality of determination is a valuable asset in his numerous attempts to defeat Wylie at his favourite sport — curling. Mr. Herbert's announcements are his only peeve while Peter Yarrow is his favourite folk singer. His future plans are to attend O.A.C.

HUGH PONTING. Hugh's main interest in attending school is to get an education (so his teachers say). But his main activity is girls, girls, girls (especially one). Although his time is taken up with the football team and the duties of President of the Boys' Athletic Society, he still finds time for the odd poker game.

JUDY SHERLOCK. In the past Judy has taken part in Cadets and in the Modern Jazz number in last year's Blue and White production. Judy hopes to become a teacher, however, I don't know if her "ability to doctor up french fries to the dissatisfaction of her friends" will aid in this ambition.

MARLENE SHEWAN. Another hopeful teacher, Marlene is interested in French and this year she finds amusement on the French Club executive. Marlene has given outstanding leadership in I.D.C.I.'s Girl Cadets. Mr. Magoo is Marlene's favourite personality and perhaps that is why she is able to laugh at Ron's jokes.

DONNA SINDÉN. Donna claims that 'reading' n 'writin' n 'rithmetic' are her pet peeves. However, her exceptional marks disprove this. Perhaps future pupils will grasp the same pet peeve with the same result. Her activities include cadets and Mixed Glee Club.

JOYCE SMITH. Joyce is our lively blonde who belongs to the French Club and Girls' Athletic Society. We hope that among her future pupils there won't be any who like to crack their knuckles, because they might discover that their easy going teacher has a temper.

PAT PRESSWELL. During her years at I.D.C.I. Pat has participated in almost every activity in the school. She has a particular liking for acting and singing which she has displayed in many Blue and White productions. She hopes to enter nursing at Toronto General Hospital and eventually take a position with Dr. Kildare.

SHARON QUIGLEY. "People who ask ridiculous questions" seem to be Sharon's pet peeve. However, if her favourite personality, James Bond, were to pose the silly questions we feel that she would answer them anyway. Her ambition is teaching and her interests include athletics, Volt advertising, and tennis.

VILMA RAFFIN. In past years Vilma has taken part in cadets and inter-form sports. We feel that her amiability will make her a popular teacher with her wards. The only complaint Vilma has is that she wishes all her French Authors periods were in the morning when she is awake.

LEW ROBERTS. Lew, although appearing to be a calm boy, has much to say concerning his daily work in English class. This industrious farm lad from Salford plans to attend the University of Guelph if he succeeds at I.D.C.I. His activities vary from the football team to walking up and down the corridors at noon.

KAREN SMITH. This quiet girl who possesses an artistic ability lends her hand at decorating for the 'At Home'. No doubt her artistic ability has led her towards a career as a Home Economist, at Ryerson.

PETER STALEY. Pete's chief activity seems to be football but he is also interested in hunting. His pet peeve is school in general and he hopes to eventually attend U. of W. where he will probably be too busy to enjoy his favourite personality — Red Skeleton.

LOIS SMITH. Lois helps keep up the moral of 13B by "looking alive" and belonging to the French Club. Her pet peeve seems to be people who think they can ski. We hope she doesn't encounter any such people at Teachers' College next year.

MARILYN STEELE. Next year Marilyn hopes to train as a nurse at Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto. During her high school years she has taken an active interest in sports, and is this year's President of the Girls' Athletic Society. Marilyn's favourite past time is starrng at the fish aquarium in chemistry class.

BARRY RUSSELL. Barry informs us that life is just a bowl of cherries and that he likes 'anything n' everything.' We congratulate him on an optimistic attitude and hope that he keeps this attitude when he enters university next year.

JOAN SACKRIDER. Joan plans to enter the field of nursing after graduating from 13A. At the present time she is interested in the Mixed Glee Club and she participates in inter-form sports. She hopes to own her own car some day — a red Mustang.

JANET SADLIER. Janet's love for music will be an asset to her future teaching profession. According to Janet her pet peeve is Monday but unfortunately we can't cut the Mondays out of the week for her. Janet takes part in the French Club.

MARGARET SANDALL. Volt advertising and cadets have kept Margaret busy throughout her years at I.D.C.I. She hopes to enter the 'wild' life of Western University and then become a teacher.

WENDY SUHR. Wendy plans to train as a Laboratory Technician following Grade 13. Her biggest difficulty, however, seems to be "chemistry problems", which gives our two future technicians a mutual problem. Her chief activities are the Glee Club and the Volt.

KEN SUTHERLAND. Ken has contributed much of his time and talent to the school Trumpet Band and Orchestra. His immediate ambition is to get out of high school and into a university. He has the reputation (among the girls) of being a sharp dresser and wearing "Old Spice".

MARTHA SWIATEK. Sports and cadets lead Martha's extra-curricular school activities. Martha's pet peeve seems to be universal: Grade 13. However, we are confident that she will conquer it and go on to Teachers' College.

ROBERT THOMPSON. Bob (Knob) is the renowned centre of the school football team. His many activities include football, soccer, cadets and HNNHC. His favourite pastime is talking to the boys about the short noon hours, and he always manages to win his share in the daily poker game.

ADRIE TUNS. Adrie's ambition will take him down the winding road to that same Teachers' College along with many of our other graduates. He has taken part in Library Club and Cadets.

ALAN TURTON. Curling and Library Club have been special interest to Al during his term at I.D.C.I. He hopes to become a teacher which may help him step out of his "farouch" character.

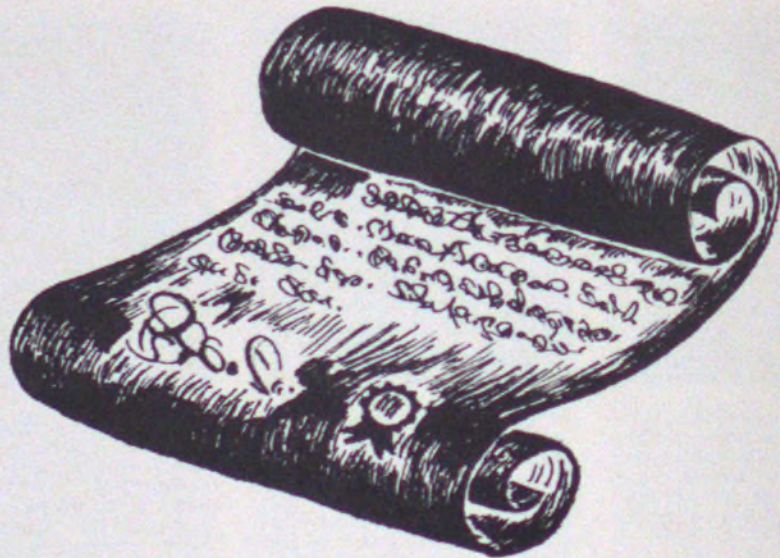

EDWARD VAN REES. Ed informs us that he has no outstanding qualities but we know this isn't so because Ed uses one of his qualities in Mixed Glee Club. No doubt Ed will be using his musical ability a great deal in his future teaching career.

ALLAN WARDEN. Allan hopes to become an officer in the R.C.A.F. and thus his chief activity is cadets. Although his outstanding quality is silence, this is left behind when mention is made of Klu Klux Klan or a certain Governor of Alabama. His favourite personality is Bob Dylan.

GORDON WYLIE. This skilful artist of 13A has many varied activities. He is an industrious curler, while also excelling in cadet work. Although he claims his ambition is Dentistry at Toronto, he is sure to spend a few more years reading James Bond novels in French class, and designing the cover of the Volt.

BEVERLEY BARBER. Beverley wants to become a secretary. She enjoys playing volleyball and generally is always good. She is interested in a certain someone.

DELORES BLANCHER. Delores is the lively redhead of 12D who wants to become an IBM machine operator. Her school activities consist of anything she can get her hands on. Her favourite personality is the Good Humour Man, but we all know she is only fascinated with the bell on his truck.

DIANNA BOYSE. Dianna has a lot of trouble trying to keep track of her speed tests. They don't seem to want to stay put. Her school activities consist of homework, homework, and more homework.

PEGGY CANNON. Peggy spends most of her time doing shorthand in order to become a good secretary. Peggy is quite content just wandering from class to class and trying to be good. As a matter of fact, she is still trying.

BRENDA COLE. Brenda is better known as "fleet-fingers" to the girls of 12D. Brenda is Assistant Secretary of the Student Council. She plays basketball and participates in the Mixed Glee Club. Brenda wishes she were like the Moon Maid on Dick Tracy.

MYRNA CLIFFORD. Myrna spends most of her precious time making out attendance slips. Myrna plans to graduate and has some very nice plans for the future. Her outstanding qualities are her wonderful personality and her alertness on Monday morning.

BRENDA DEMPSEY. Brenda is cute in every way. She is the Student Council Representative. She wishes to become a receptionist. Herman, on the Munsters show, is a fine example of the kind of man she would like to take care of her.

ANN MARIE HALTER. Ann Marie's ambition is to teach singing and piano. Her school activities are Senior Girls and Mixed Glee Clubs, Volt staff, volleyball and basketball. Her favourite personality is Danny Kaye and she regrets that there are only 24 hours in one day.

BETTY JEAN JACKLIN. Betty Jean's past time is spent livening up 12D. She says she wants to be a good secretary, but who in 12D doesn't? Betty Jean has a craving for fellows with long hair. We don't know why, but there must be some reason.

LAURINE MILNE. Lauraine has many plans for the future, but for the present time she is working on graduating. She wants to become a secretary and is getting some good experience working on the Volt.

BRENDA NASH. Brenda's main interest in life is to stay single and enjoy life — but then who doesn't? She goes to almost all the games to help out the Marlands. Brenda just loves sitting in the counting house counting all the money.

DOROTHY RITCHIE. Dorothy's school activities consist of homework, Volt advertising and more homework. Dorothy wants to become a Physio-therapist. She spends her spare time sending in old teeth to Big Al in exchange for shiny new dimes.

SUSAN STORY. Susan's activities consist of spending her lunch time with R. P. No one objects to this — especially not Susan. Susan plans to find a good job and have lots of fun in her spare time.

ANN SWANCE. Ann's ambition at the moment is to learn to drive, and she wants to make Mr. Brown feel that he was successful with at least one of his students. Her outstanding quality is her ability to look up in the bigger world.

BONNIE HAWLEY. Bonnie is going to be a secretary after graduation. She is one of the quietest people in our form, and is, as a result, a relief to our teachers. Bonnie's time is spent mostly with Fred.

BARBARA HILL. Barb wishes to be her own boss upon graduating, and being able to do many things at once, we feel sure she will be successful. However, she hasn't met with the same success in her attempts to reinstate gum-chewing in Business Correspondence. Barb spends much of her time in Woodstock.

JOYCE JORDAN. Joyce's ambition is to become a domestic engineer. Joyce is engaged to a certain "Express Truck Driver" and we all wish her luck in the future. Joyce is well-known for her gum-chewing activities.

BETTY RINE. Betty wants to work at London Life after graduation. She draws wonderful circles in penmanship class and is our pride and joy. You'll find Betty in front of her TV every Saturday morning watching Steve Zodiac on Fireball XLS instead of doing that Math. homework.

SHARYN THIBIDEAU. Many of Sharyn's interests are centred around a certain mailman. Her pet peeve is bucket seats but then you can't win them all. Sharyn is the Girls' Athletic Representative and is working on the Volt. Her ambition is to become a stenographer.

MARY WEIR. Her school activities are the Mixed Glee Club and someone from 12C. She wants to become a Certified Nursing Assistant. She can't think of any of her outstanding qualities but she claims she has a dislike for mathematics.

ANNA MARIE WEST. Anna Marie's activities consist of moving from class to class, and that's just about all you could ask of a student. Her favourite personality is Sal Mineo. She wants to become a secretary and earn lots of green stuff.

NORAH CHAMBERS. Norah is the star volleyball player of 12E. Norah's future ambition is to graduate and to receive her M.R.S. degree. She would rather spend her time with Paul than go to school.

SHERRY SADLER. Sherry enjoys taking spares. In the future, she wants to work at the Carling Brewery, and perhaps she'll be the bookkeeper. Sherry dislikes "fights" of all kinds, but enjoys the company of a certain person.

ANN SHELTON. Ann is a very busy member of the decorating committee for the "At Home". Ann's future ambition is to receive her M.R.S. degree. She dislikes "blackeyes" but greatly admires Ringo.

BETTY SIMMONS. Betty wants to graduate and to get a job. Betty enjoys swimming, skating and school. Betty doesn't like the Beatles, but feels that Wayne is tops.

CAROL TODD. Carol is another star volleyball player. In the future, Carol wants to graduate and find a job that meets her specifications of 2 hours a day and $100.00 a week. Carol seems to have the knack of being bad down pat. Perhaps this is because she dislikes school.

MONICA COSTIN. Being a cheerleader, Monica is well-known to everyone at I.D.C.I. We feel she'll be an excellent private secretary, as she can read backwards when she's thinking. Monica feels that the attendants at the 401, especially a certain someone, don't get enough free time.

ROSE MARIE DANIEL. Rose Marie, being an avid member of the Girls' Glee Club, warbles her way through her "favourite" class, Home Economics, every day. Upon graduating, she wants "to get somewhere". Maybe she'll meet Salty, her favourite boy, in her travels.

LOIS GEDDIE. Lois, one of the few quiet people in 12D-E, wishes to go to Business College after graduating. Lois feels that exercise is stressed too much (especially in gym class.)

LYNN GRAHAM. Lynn is interested in doing nothing of importance. If she keeps on eating the way she does, a certain "by" says she will have the strongest ham on this side of Woodstock. Lynn's plans are to graduate and find a job and then . . . ? ?

NANCY VYSE. Nancy's future ambition is to be the private secretary of Bobby Vinton, perhaps. While Nancy excels in skating, she just can't understand Math.

ADRENE WILSON. Adrene, like the rest of us, wants to travel, especially "way up north". Adrene is active in the Students' Council and also spends much of her time dreaming up convenient illnesses. While Adrene holds the Forest Rangers in high esteem, Munster just doesn't rate.

LINDA WOOLCOX. Linda's favourite activity is taking spares. We wonder why, like her friend, she never becomes ill, unless it is convenient. Linda's future ambition is to move to London; possibly she wants to get away from school or maybe Scotty hails from London? ? ?

BRENDA NASH. Brenda's main interest in life is to stay single and enjoy life — but then who doesn't? She goes to almost all the games to help out the Marlands. Brenda just loves sitting in the counting house counting all the money.

DOROTHY RITCHIE. Dorothy's school activities consist of homework, Volt advertising and more homework. Dorothy wants to become a Physio-therapist. She spends her spare time sending in old teeth to Big Al in exchange for shiny new dimes.

ROSE MARIE DANIEL. Rose Marie, being an avid member of the Girls' Glee Club, warbles her way through her "favourite" class, Home Economics, every day. Upon graduating, she wants "to get somewhere". Maybe she'll meet Salty, her favourite boy, in her travels.

LOIS GEDDIE. Lois, one of the few quiet people in 12D-E, wishes to go to Business College after graduating. Lois feels that exercise is stressed too much (especially in gym class.)

LYNN GRAHAM. Lynn is interested in doing nothing of importance. If she keeps on eating the way she does, a certain "gg" says she will have the strongest hair this side of Woodstock. Lynn's plans are to graduate and find a job and then . . . ? ?

NANCY VYSE. Nancy's future ambition is to be the private secretary of Bobby Vinton, perhaps. While Nancy excels in skating, she just can't understand Math.

ADRENE WILSON. Adrene, like the rest of us, wants to travel, especially "way up north". Adrene is active in the Students' Council and also spends much of her time dreaming up convenient illnesses. While Adrene holds the Forest Rangers in high esteem, Munster just doesn't rate.

LINDA WOOLCOX. Linda's favourite activity is taking spares. We wonder why, like her friend, she never becomes ill, unless it is convenient. Linda's future ambition is to move to London; possibly she wants to get away from school or maybe Scotty hails from London? ? ?

ROBERT BAIGENT. Robert is one of the many students who has the idea of graduating this year — just for a change of routine. Robert's favourite pastime is trying to catch the school bus, and we all wish him luck. He likes Brenda Lee's music.

KEVIN BENNETT. What would we do without Kevin in the school orchestra to add charm and appeal. Although Kevin has been trying to introduce the Mersey Beat for some time, he has been unsuccessful. Kevin wants to become the biggest disc-jockey of all times.

WARREN BUTTERWORTH. Warren, another Beetle Bailey, enjoys wearing out the corridors and "goofing off". We also know that he has a special shine for Miss Hamilton. His talents in the art of penmanship are amazing.

LARRY DAWSON. Larry has been having a little trouble with closets lately, so he has decided to invent a fire-proof closet. Larry does have one pet peeve — he doesn't like going in for extra typing classes.

BILL BOYD. Bill's school activities include inter-form football, basketball and soccer. Bill seems to be having a little trouble with those quadratic surds, but we are confident that he will overcome them by the end of the year. Bill hopes to graduate from Ridgetown and then become a farmer.

TECHNICAL GRADS

GRAEME CRELLIN. It seems that Graeme's activities are centred around Fran and his "55". It is Graeme's ambition to drive to the electronics plant in his new Corvette.

BILL HARLOW. Bill is a take-off on Johnny Winters here at I.D.C.I. He would like to be like Sargeant Preston, although he claims to be serious and timid. His pet peeve is girls, but we know differently, don't we?

GRANT HUNTLEY. Grant is known as Miss Hamilton's handyman. He moves typewriters and does little things around Room 239. We all know how he enjoys working in the technical rooms.

JACOB JANSEN. Jacob is the shy lad of 12F. He doesn't participate in many school activities but is more interested in getting his homework done. Jacob can always be found doing such interesting things as walking up and down the corridors.

FRED McSHERRY. Fred's only wish is to graduate. Fred has no school activities and claims he has no outstanding quality or a favourite personality. Let's face it, he's just going to be an all-round educated boy!

RANDY FARES. Randy's main interests seem to be centred around a certain receptionist in Toronto. His school activities have ranged from football to figures and he plans to become a diesel technician.

JOHN HANLON. John is an active member of all inter-form sports such as basketball, volleyball, football and soccer. John's future ambition is to enter the electronics field.

HANS HANSEN. It seems that Hans spends all his spare time either wrestling or putting in a little extra time in the Auto Shop. Hans is quite mechanically inclined and it is his future ambition to win three features at the Nilstown Speedway.

FRANK HOUGHTON. Frank plays basketball and is an ardent member of the stage crew. Frank hopes to graduate from Ryerson and enter into the field of electronics as an electronics engineer.

GARY PETRIE. Gary has a different type of career in mind — that of a burlesque theatre owner. His theatre is going to have smoking lounges unlike I.D.C.I. We know that Al Hirt will entertain at every performance.

JEAN THORNE. Jean has her future all lined up. She wants to graduate and then marry Bill. Jean's outstanding quality is keeping up with the news. Her favourite personality along with many others is MMH.

DOREEN ULCH. Doreen's activities in school include Girls Athletic Representative and being a good girl. We understand that Doreen's outstanding quality is horseback riding. Doreen wants to graduate and go into the business world.

WAYNE KISH. Wayne is an active soccer and inter-form basketball player. Wayne's pet peeve seems to be one of his academic subjects but we all hope that he will overcome it by the end of the year. His future ambition is to own and service his own fleet of trucks.

ED KRUPA. Ed is a member of the football and basketball teams and his future ambition is to be a graduate of Ryerson. It seems that Ed's spare time is taken up by a certain Susanne.

BOB McCLINTOCK. It seems that Bob spends all his spare time in the shop. It is Bob's hope to graduate from I.D.C.I. and become an officer in the army.

IAN MacKENZIE. This ardent member of the stage crew and Student Council will leave this year to develop his talents in the field of electronics. Ian's pet peeve seems to be drafting but we hope he will conquer it by the end of this year.

GLEN MEATHERALL. Glen's school activities seem to be centred around inter-form soccer and his spare time after school is occupied by Fimmie. Glen wants to attend Ridgetown and then become a civil servant.

GLENN MESSENGER. It seems that Glenn does not participate in any school activities and as yet has not decided upon a future occupation.

LARRY REATH. Larry is a member of the volleyball team and an active participant on the gymnastic team. Larry's spare time is taken up by his car and his girl. His future ambition is to become an auto mechanic.

JAMES RITCHIE. Jim's main interests are centred around Joan. His school activities consist of tumbling, basketball and football. Jim hopes to become an electrical technician and his pet peeve is money.

STEVE SHARP. Most of Steve's spare time is devoted to making money at I.G.A. but he occasionally takes time to get in a little basketball. His pet peeve is homework and it is his wish to be employed by the Bell Telephone Company.

FORBES SMITH. Forbes is a former member of the Forestry Club. He leaves us this year to be one of our nation's future draftsmen. His "calmness" in class is admired by fellow students and teachers alike. A certain person in Woodstock seems to be his favourite personality.

JOHN STAPLES A very active member of the athletic program at the school. John has his mind up to become a graduate of Ryerson and to escape the clutches of any female. From this we surmise that John will be a very successful electronics engineer and confirmed bachelor.

ALEX STEELE. Alex is hard pressed for time between running the farm and going to school and so does not participate in too many school activities. His future ambition is to attend Ridgetown and from there on to run the farm full time.

TOM STOCKMAN. Tom is making sure of his future ambition of owning a garage by excelling in everything he undertakes. Tom seems to feel longer lunch hours would be in order.

JOHN TARDIE. Cadet Officer John Tardie has also taken avid interests in the stage crew and managing our football team. All five feet of John are concentrating on his goal in life — becoming an officer in the R.C.N.

BERT VAN REES. Bert is a member of the stage crew and a member of 12G's soccer team. It is Bert's ambition to graduate from I.D.C.I. and become a civil servant.

MIKE WATSON. Mike's major subject is electricity. We think that this subject has made him a first class member of the stage crew. It is Mike's future ambition to work for Bell Telaphones or I.B.M. as an electrical technician.

IVAN YOUNG. Ivan left us for a while and ventured out to Saskatchewan but returned here to finish his schooling. His future ambition is to return to the western province of Saskatchewan and start up a farm of his own.

GLEN ZAVITZ. Glen's school activities consist of inter-form football, basketball and soccer. His spare time after school is taken up completely by Ruby. Glen hopes to enter into the field of mechanics and become a specialist in carburetors.

The May Walley Prize Essay

The May Walley Prize for an original essay on a Shakespearean character.

The staff and students are grateful to the family of the late May Walley for donating this prize.

"FALSTAFF"

Three threads are woven in and out to make up the fabric of the play, Henry the Fourth, Part One. The first is the thread of kingship, introducing King Henry the Fourth and his willful, wayful heir, Prince Hal. The second is the thread of honour and tells of Hotspur, a warrior who lives for military glory and dies for it. The third is the thread of Prince Hal's desolate companions, introducing that most wonderful fellow, Sir John Falstaff.

This "fat knight" is Shakespeare's most famous comic character. He stands out in the throng of clowns and fools created in Shakespeare's imagination like a fine oak in a forest of pines. Although his character is as complex as Hamlet or Macbeth, he appears immensely real. In his youth, he has been page to the Duke of Gaunt but later has become a fallen gentleman.

He is a thief, a drunkard, a liar and a libertine. No one ever thinks of admiring him. He is never meant to be admired, only to be loved. The following passage from Ulrici describes Falstaff's reason for this type of life.

"He is so to say, the symbol, the personification of that general state of human frailty, which, without being actually wicked — that is, without doing evil for the sake of evil, in order to find satisfaction in it — nevertheless perpetually does evil (to a certain extent against his will) simply because it happens to be the most direct means of attaining what he calls life and happiness, this, he believes is not actually arrived at by everyone, but ought to be allowed to be the aim of everyone."

He is even called a liar and a coward. Sir John is neither a liar or a coward in the typical sense of the word. He tells his lies either for their own humour or to get himself out of a difficulty. He doesn't expect to be believed and rarely is. He can abandon a statement or contradict it the moment he has said it. After the robbery on Gadshill, he turned two men in buckram into eleven and later fifty.

"All, I know not what you call all; but if I fought not with fifty of them I am a bunch of radishes."
(Henry the Fourth, Part 1, Act 11, Scene 4, 184-5)

It is ridiculous that a person with the intelligence of this man would utter such open lies with an intention to deceive. It has been so dark on that night that he could hardly see a foot in front of him, least of all the men he says he has viewed.

He is also considered a coward. He doesn't have a reputation of a coward. Shallow remembers him, five and fifty years ago breaking Scogan's head and later as a good backwardsman. He is still remembered as a person of consideration in the army. He leads his hundred and fifty men into battle where only three return, he does not send them. The messenger reports to Northumberland, the death of Sir John Falstaff. Yet, he runs away on Gadshill and when Douglas attacks him he falls down and feigns death. The reason: he wants to live and be merry, not to have an honourable death. He has given up honour to live an ideal life. As he himself frankly says, when asked about honour,

"Can honour set to a leg? no: or an arm? no: can it take away the grief of a wound? no. Honour hath no skill in surgery, then? no. What is honour? a word. What is in that word honour? what is that honour? air. A trim reckoning! Who hath it? he that does it? Wednesday. Doth he feel it? No. Doth he hear it? No. 'Tis insensible then? Yea, to the dead. But will it not live with the living? no. Why? Detraction will not suffer it. Therefore I'll none of it. Honour is a mere scutcheon".
(Henry the Fourth, Part 1, Act V, Scene 1, 131-141)

No wonder he runs away. Without honour he has no reason to stay.

In addition he has many endearing qualities. His pride, his intelligence and wit, his gaiety and keen insight, his attractiveness and, lastly, his affectionate self make him lovable, not repellent.

Indeed Falstaff has pride. The Prince calls him a "proud Jack". He is not indifferent to reputation and is stung by a serious implication on his courage. "I'm not John of Gaunt, your grandfather but a coward, Hal".
(Henry the Fourth, Part 1, Act 11, Scene 2, 66)

When he has lied himself into a corner and there is no visual means of escape, his intelligence and wit help him to rise above anything so sordid as fact. When Hal says that he and Points robbed Falstaff the captive, remarks beamingly to the Prince that of course he has recognized him.

"I am as valiant as Hercules: but beware instinct: the lion will not touch the true prince. Instinct is a great matter; I was not a coward on instinct: I shall think the better of myself and thee during my life; I for a valiant lion, and thou for a true prince. But by the Lord, lads, I am glad you have the money".
(Henry the Fourth, Part 1, Act 11, Scene 4, 270-275)

He is always gay, always enjoying life. He chuckles over cheating the government and anyone on whom he has successfully played a joke. He even jokes about himself, whether in company or alone. It was he who says that "his skin hangs around him like an old lady's loose gown", and that "he walks before his page like a sow that hath o'erwhelmed all her litter but one"

He doesn't take anything or anyone serious, including Justice Shallow and Justice Silence. He doesn't see their goodness, only their foolish weaknesses. It is this insight which helps him to use whatever is foolish for the purpose of making life gay.

Yet these men and others are attracted to him. Mrs. Quickly and Bardolsh are his slaves although he owes a large debt to the former. Poins and the prince are delighted with him. They enjoy cornering him for the sole purpose of having the pleasure of seeing his various means of escape.

He returns the affection. He has affection for Poins and certainly for the Prince. This is something he can not jest out of existence. When Hal rejects him, the result shows that he is not invulnerable. Sir John is in Gloucestershire engaged in borrowing a thousand pounds from Justice Shallow. When Pistol arrives announcing the death of the king and the ascension of Harry, Sir John, in wild excitement rushes to London taking Shallow with him, for he longs to reward his old friends. He stands with his friends outside Westminster Abby awaiting the arrival of the King. He is dirty from travel and has had no time to spend any of his money to buy clean clothes for himself or his men. But what of this! This poor show only proves the earnestness of his affection and devotion. He could not remember of having patience to shift himself but rode day and night, putting all other obligations aside. Now he stands, waiting with one desire in his heart, "to see him." The moment arrives. There is a blare of trumpets, the doors open and the procession streams out.

Falstaff: God save thee, my sweet boy!

King: My Lord Chief Justice, speak to that vain man.

Chief Justice: Have you your wits? Know you what 'tis you speak?

Falstaff: My King! My Jove! I speak to thee, my heart!

King: I know thee not, old man: fall to thy prayers. How ill white hairs become a fool and jester.

(Henry the Fourth, Part II, Act V, Scene V, 44-49)

The procession passes on, but Falstaff and his friends remain. He shows no resentment. He comforts himself at first, with the thought that he has Shallow's money and then more seriously with another. The King must look thus to the world but he will be sent for in private, when night falls. Even as he speaks, the Chief Justice returns and orders.

"Go carry Sir John Falstaff to the fleet
Take all his company along with him."

(Henry the Fourth, Part II, Act V, Scene V, 92-3)

Falstaff breaks in, "My lord, my lord" but he is cut short and hurried away.

What are one's feelings during this scene? If one has regarded Sir John chiefly as an old reprobate and ruffian, one would enjoy his discomfort and consider that the King behaved magnificently. But, if one has enjoyed the Falstaff scenes as Shakespeare meant them to be enjoyed, Falstaff is not chiefly a reprobate or ruffian. During this scene one might feel pain and resentment. Falstaff's dismissal to the fleet and his subsequent death prove beyond doubt that his rejection is a catastrophe which not even his humour can enable him to surmount. Later he dies in Mrs. Quickly's presence. Despite his previous life she truthfully says, "he's not in hell, he's in Arthur's bosom".

Thus as a requiem to a "fat knight" whom one grows to love in two short plays, one repeats with Hal on the field of Salsbury.

"I could have better spared a better man."

SEPARATISM AND QUEBEC

In this twentieth century it is a fact that former colonies have prided themselves from foreign domination just as the Separatists are trying to make French Canadians masters of their own destiny.

Canada, as a nation, has been struggling since its birth on July 1, 1867. Confederation joined together Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario and Quebec. An anti-Confederate force was in power in New Brunswick and the British governor was instructed to call a new election for a more favourable government. Nova Scotia opposed Confederation and threatened to secede. British Columbia entered Confederation unwillingly. Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland did not join until much later. Louis Riel, a staunch defender of French rights led a rebellion in the West to set up a republic free from English Canada.

These and other examples prove that separatism as a sentiment in Canada is not new.

The desire of some French-Canadians in Quebec to be free from the rest of Canada has made headlines in the past two years. Their reasons for secession are many.

Historically, it is a fact that Quebec has been prey to Anglo-Saxon "colonialism" ever since it was conquered by the British in 1760.

The British North America Act in 1867 was imposed by a decree of parliament at Westminster. Thus it did not represent the free choice of the majority of French-Canadians. Rather, it provided terms which have prevented Quebec from serving her best interests.

Article 10 of this Act gave the Federal government the power of disallowance — the right to annul provincial legislation. Yet when it should have exercised this right — i.e. Manitoba School Question, Ontario Rule 17 — it did not.

The Supreme Court, consisting of English-speaking judges does not fairly judge Quebec when she appears before it.

Provincial powers are insufficient for Quebec. She has theoretical rights which she cannot exercise since the purse-strings, the means which would make the legislation reality, are controlled by Ottawa.

Grievances against provincial governments of English Canada, centre upon the treatment the provinces have given their French-Canadian minorities. Growth of French Population did not incite the English-speaking majority to allow for cultural development, i.e. — New Brunswick has forty per cent of its population French, yet the government refused to establish a French Teachers' College whereas in Quebec, with a twenty per cent English speaking population, there are three English universities and a complete educational system subsidized with public funds.

Dr. Marcel Chaput, active president of the Rassemblement pour l'Independence Nationale (Assemblée for National Independence) describes French Canadians as "a people in bondage". This is true politically, economically and culturally.

Officially Canada is a bilingual and bicultural country but in practice, central authorities are undeniably English. Of the two hundred and sixty-five members of the House of Commons, only seventy-five are French-speaking. Political decisions of importance to all Canada are made by the Parliament or Cabinet where French-Canadians are a minority. Ottawa legislates in direct taxation, education, pension plans, trade policy, tariffs, natural resources, housing and so on.

In the economic aspect, French-Canadians make up eighty-three per cent of Quebec's population yet they own but a small percentage (about twenty per cent) of its business and industry. They provide nearly all the manpower while only a minute portion of the management. They hold few jobs of importance.

In the federal civil service, a report by the "Conseil de la Vie Française" states that "French-Canadians are almost totally absent from all Commissions and Departments in realms of finance, industry and commerce. There are scarcely any in the Crown corporations such as national railways, air transport, Bank of Canada and absolutely none in the Department of Commerce and Finance." Out of seventeen directors of the Bank of Canada, one is French-Canadian, out of seventeen vice-presidents of the C.N.R., none is French-Canadian, out of seven top officials in the Federal ministry of forests, none is French-Canadian although Quebec has twenty-five per cent of Canada's forest area.

In the Canadian army French-Canadians make up twenty-six per cent of the privates, eight per cent sergeant-majors, twenty-one per cent lieutenants, eight per cent colonel and higher ranks. The situation is worse in the navy and air force.

In the cultural aspect, English is the language of labour and thought. In order to earn a living, most French-Canadians must take off like their hat and coat, their mother tongue each working morning.

Magazines and books are primarily French translations of English ones. Newspaper articles are also translations. Schools use mainly English and American textbooks. Dr. Chaput describes the situation aptly when he says "It is a paradox of French-Canadian life that the more bilingual we become, the less need there is to be bilingual."

The evils of Anglification can only be overcome by proclaiming French the only official language.

making it necessary in business, by freeing French-Canadian magazines and newspapers from Anglo-American sources and by making the education system French again.

These above points form firm and valid reasons why some French-Canadians, especially the "Freedom Fighters of Quebec" desire independence. Yet there are many English-Canadians who still ask WHY!

Perhaps they cannot see that independence is the only answer. But what other solutions exist? Total assimilation? To this Separatists say, "Since our loyalty prevents us from becoming totally English, then let us become totally French in a country all our own."

A union of the two groups in management of affairs? This would only create a stronger central government and make Quebec a province like the other nine. Quebec is NOT a province like the others — it alone is the National State of French-Canadians.

True Confederation? By definition it means "a union of states with each state preserving its sovereignty." Separatists agree that this would be an improvement over existing conditions, but would it ever become a reality? They think not because English-Canadians would stand to lose their domination and be on an equal basis with French-Canadians.

Thus, French-Canadians must either bow to the majority and stop complaining or withdraw from Confederation. Separatists believe that a minority people which wants to go on living cannot surrender the guidance or its destiny to a foreign majority. In doing this it would be voluntarily accepting its own extinction.

English-Canadians may argue that independence would be unconstitutional. The B.N.A. Act contains no clause concerning the withdrawal of a province nor the procedure to follow in case one did. The United Nations Charter signed for Canada by William Lyon Mackenzie King and Louis Saint Laurent, recognizes in Article 1, paragraph 2 "the rights of people to self-determination." Independence is legitimate and Separatists believe that should Quebec secede, Ottawa would honour the signatures.

English Canadians argue that secession would mean economic recession and isolation for Quebec. On the contrary. Separatists believe that a country like Quebec which is three times the size of France, five times the size of Italy, thirteen times the size of Cuba, that such a country which is near the top in world production of hydro-electric power, lumber, paper, asbestos, and iron ore, that a country whose principal city, Montreal, is the world's largest inland port, that a country linked to the ocean by one of the main waterways in the world, can live on its own and prosper.

Secessionists realize that in order to gain control of Quebec's riches, they must have political independence first. Then, a government could apply measures for economic progress. Among these would be — bringing back to Quebec the two billion dollars paid out in taxes each year to Ottawa, nationalizing key industries, encouraging secondary enterprises, organizing co-operative between State and private corporations.

But this economic independence will remain only a dream as long as Ottawa holds the reins of command.

According to popular belief, an independent Quebec would be completely isolated from all outside trade. This is a grave misconception. Neither Quebec nor any other country could live under such conditions.

A sovereign Quebec must remain open to outside commercial trade and investment of foreign capital, BUT only insofar as foreign capital would contribute to French-Canadian national life, i.e. — not destructive to political cultural and social aspects of it.

Quebec secessionists are internationalists. They want Quebec recognized in the eyes of the world as an independent French-speaking nation. They want an independent Quebec to participate in world affairs, to establish cultural links with the twenty-five French-speaking countries of the world, to be represented by French-Canadian ambassadors in all capitals, to speak for herself at U.N. assemblies, to sign treaties favourable to the nation, and to belong to all the commonwealths, communities, common markets, and organizations that may benefit her.

Is this independence, the isolation that English-Canadians speak of? Rather, separatists believe that Confederation is isolating Quebec. Is it not true that after almost one hundred years French-Canadians in nine provinces are still fighting for French teaching and religion in schools? Is it not also true that the French language has no official status and that French-Canadians are held at the lower echelons of Canadian life?

An independent Quebec would be desirable in all aspects. Historically it would mean liberation for French-Canadians after years of domination.

Economically it would place French-Canadians "Maitres chez eux". Politically it would mean a Quebec free to negotiate treaties or whatever her interests demanded. Culturally it would raise French-Canadians to higher levels in life.

At the present time, French-Canadians form an isolated island of five million people speaking one language, in the midst of a sea of two hundred million who all speak one other language. There is the constant fear of a tidal wave which would destroy their culture, language and religion.

Perhaps the key to the entire French-Canadian Separatist movement is in the three small words of Quebec's motto — "Je me souviens." What do French-Canadians remember? — that they were the first Europeans to settle in Canada one hundred and fifty years before the British? that they constituted the majority of the population until the middle of the nineteenth century? or that once they did not lead a fairy-tale existence?

No. 109 CADET CORPS RIFLE TEAM

For the tenth consecutive year, the Rifle Range rang out with the accurate shots of the D.C.R.A. team. The team's average of 91.5% and George Franklin's fine showing at Bisley, England, should make members of No. 109 C.C. Ingersoll District Collegiate Institute proud to know that it has one of the finest rifle teams in the Western Ontario Area.

Last summer, Donald Shier and John Garland gained proficiency in the Rifle Coaching Course at Camp Borden. They are using their knowledge and experience to coach the new marksmen from Grades 9 and 10.

The team fired the following competitions during the 1964-65 year: (1) The Dominion of Canada Rifle Association Competition, (2) The Royal Military College Competition, (3) Youth of the Empire Competition, (4) The Dept. of Education, Province of Ontario, Competition, (5) The Strathcona .303 Service Rifle Match at Cedar Springs Range. George Franklin received the Best Shot award for the Corps, while Doug Nash placed highest in D.C.R.A. with an average of 94.3%. Members of the team were: Donald Shier, Doug Nash, John Garland, George Nadalin, Gary Moggach, Terry Bannon, Hugh Ponting, George Franklin, Jim Fryer, John Nadalin, Bill Fitzmorris, Lanny Harris, Richard Law, Ralph Lemmon, Robert Stephenson, Bruce Mitchell, Paul Cade and Phillip Eckhardt.

CADET INSPECTION

On Friday, May 8, 1964, at 1330 hours the Ingersoll District Collegiate Cadet Corps No. 109 was formed up awaiting the beginning of the 60th annual inspection.

The inspecting party was composed of Maj. W. E. Lee, C.D., G.S.O. II, W.O.A.; Maj. G. F. Pirie (Ret.), Board of Education; and Capt. C. L. Scott-Brown, Area Cadet Officer.

Following addresses by His Worship, Mayor Thomas Morrison; Maj. Lee; Mr. J. C. McBride, Chairman of I.D.C.I. Board; and Maj. J. C. Herbert, Capt. Scott-Brown presented the shooting awards.

Mr. A. Clark, of the Ingersoll Y.M.C.A., presented the Teen Town Trophy to C/Lt.-Col. Ralph Lemmon.

Although Ingersoll narrowly missed winning the Strathcona Shield, it was thought by many of the instructors that this was one of the best inspections the Corps had ever put on.

Officers of the Corps were as follows:

REMEMBRANCE DAY

On Tuesday, November 10, 1964 the staff students of I.D.C.I. assembled in the auditorium to pay tribute to those who gave their lives in the cause of freedom.

With Mr. Herbert as Chairman, the Service opened with the singing of "O God Our Help In Ages Past" followed by a Scripture Reading by Rev. J. D. Gordon. After the singing of the hymn "Unto The Hills", Mr. G. F. Pirie read the names of those who paid the supreme sacrifice. After the ceremony was concluded Rev. H. J. Kwantes lead the school in prayer. Colour Party of No. 109 Cadet Corps then placed a wreath at the Memorial Plaque and thereafter Rev. Lucyk delivered the address. The Service was concluded with the hymn "Abide With Me", the Benediction given by Rev. R. R. Sadleir, and the singing of "God Save The Queen".

ALLAN HOBBS,

BISLEY, ENGLAND

The National Rifle Team comprising Lieut.-Colonel H. B. Stewart as Commandant, Captain F. A. Davies as Adjutant, Sergeant J. R. Hedger as coach, and twelve Royal Canadian Army Cadets from all over Canada proceeded to Britain July 2nd, 1964. The purpose was to participate in the National Rifle Association Annual Meeting in Bisley, England, from July 6th to 22nd, 1964.

The team met at Montreal for one week of practice before proceeding to England. In Montreal, the team was fitted with equipment for use during practice and while in Britain.

On July 2, 1964 we were transported to Trenton to embark for Marville, France where we switched planes and flew to Gatwick Airport, near London. A taxi took us to Bisley where rooms were ready for us.

The team commenced shooting on July 6th and carried through to July 22nd. The best results came from these twelve days of shooting. The team excelled in every shoot and broke all records of any other Cadet Team that has even been to Bisley. A party followed the shoot.

The next four days were spent in London where we did as we pleased and had a very good time shopping and participating in some night life.

After our engagement in London, where we met many dignitaries, we proceeded to Paris where we visited several tourist attractions and carried on to Soest, Germany. This was a most enjoyable tour, for Germany is a very beautiful country. The Canadian Army gave us a complete tour of their forces in Germany. We also visited many tourist attractions there and ended our stay on July 31st.

Travelling through Germany and down through France back to Marville, we embarked and arrived in Ottawa on August 1, 1964.

Ending our summer was a seven day competition in Ottawa at the Connaught Ranges where the team kept up its good shooting to end a successful summer.

JUNIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Again this year, the Junior Girls' Glee Club played a significant role in the activities of the school. The excellent teaching and direction of our leaders, Mr. Riddolls and Mrs. B. C. Fidler, was appreciated by all who participated in the Glee Club's activities. Faithfully we practiced every Monday and Thursday at noon and Wednesday in activity periods.

This small but well established Girls' Glee Club took part in the Commencement, where we sang "Through All the Country Round" and "Welcome Sweet Pleasure". At the Christmas "Lit" we sang "What Child Is This?" and "Low How A Rose". We also participated in the Blue and White Revue singing "Carmena" — arranged by Ross Hilton. We participated in various other assemblies as well.

On behalf of the Girls' Glee Club we would like to thank our loyal leaders for the time and patience they gave in helping us.

THE SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

This year the Senior Girls' Glee Club sang at Commencement, the Christmas Literary programme the Blue and White Revue. Many thanks to Riddolls for his patient instructions. Without him would not have been able to succeed.

MARGARET LIND

MIXED GLEE CLUB

This year has been the most productive yet for the Mixed Glee Club. Meeting once a week, we have worked hard on "Trial By Jury", a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, which we intend to present at the Blue and White Review. Thanks to the talent, guidance and patience of Mr. Riddolls, it will be a great success. A special thanks goes also to Mrs. Fidler for her assistance in its production.

Pat Presswell is our president, with Emerson Hunt assisting as secretary.

I.D.C.I. TRUMPET BAND

This year, the wheels of progress have hit the Trumpet Band with full force. With the aid of the Student Council funds, we were able to purchase new flags and form a five member colour party. A new routine was innovated in which the band formed the letters I.D.C.I. and performed various other marching drills. In November, the band captured the Tri-County Band Competition in Woodstock and was rewarded for its long hours of practice. Preparation for the Cadet Inspection in May is already underway.

We extend our thanks to our faithful leaders: Mr. H. A. Riddolls, Mr. Finn MacDongall, and Mr. Larry King. Without them, our success this year would never have been possible.

QUEEN of the BALL

AT HOME

By nine thirty on the cold, frigid evening of January 29, 1965, the annual I.D.C.I. "At Home" was already underway.

Guests were welcomed by Principal J. C. Herbert and Mrs. Herbert; Mr. Roger Coles, President of the Student Council; Miss Linda Laver, and Mr. and Mrs. Leaper.

A capacity crowd came to dance to the music of Lionel Thornton and his Casa Royal Orchestra in the auditorium which had been beautifully decorated in keeping with the theme, "Moonlight and Roses". In the centre of the dance floor was the traditional fountain surrounded by ferns.

The highlight of the evening came at eleven o'clock when Miss Susan Storey was crowned "Queen of the Ball" by last year's queen, Miss Mary Pellow. Mr. Roger Coles presented gifts to the Queen and her attendants, Miss Linda Carey, Miss Lonnie Clark, Miss Susanne Hines and Miss Karen Smith. Miss Storey was then led from the stage by her escort, Mr. Roger Petitt while her attendants followed.

One o'clock saw the end of a most wonderful evening made possibly only by the committees and individuals who had worked so hard to make our "At Home" the success it was.

RED CROSS SOCIETY 1964 - 1965

The Red Cross Society includes, in its membership, one student at I.D.C.I. Elected representatives from each class meet monthly to discuss plans for the year's program of the Red Cross.

Each month a silver collection is taken. The proceeds are used to support our foster child in the Philippines, and to send delegates to the Study Camp during the summer. Donations are often made to different societies in the community.

On November 20 the "Sadie Hawkins" Dance was sponsored by the Red Cross. In former years, the dance proved to be a success.

The executive for 1964-65 is as follows: President, Susan Beckett; Vice-president, Ellis Roddick; Secretary, Barbara Beckett; Treasurer, Brenda Nash; Assistant Treasurer, Hans Harlow; Publicity, Tom Patience, K. Stephenson; Social Convenor, B. Harlow.

THE FORESTRY CLUB

Due to the lack of response for members it was decided that we would not form a Forestry Club in 1965. This to me seems a great pity because through the past years our Forestry Club has contributed to the natural beauty of the Collegiate and the surrounding district by the planting of trees. I sincerely hope that a Forestry Club will be formed next year.

The achievement night was held June 2 and resulted in Robert Cuthbert placing first, Anne Marie Kemp second, and Eleanor Smith third in the club standings. The standings in the projects were: tied for first, Lloyd Swance and Eleanor Smith; third, Robert Cuthbert; and fourth, Anne Marie Kemp. Many projects were excellent and very original.

At this time the prize money was presented and the club year was concluded (a successful year in the minds of all who completed their year).

In conclusion I would like to thank the Ingersoll Kiwanis Club for sponsoring this club during the past year and to also thank our club leaders Mr. McLagan, Mr. Scales, the Zone Forester, and Forbes Smith, assistant leader for their help in making the club projects enjoyable for all.

The I.D.C.I. Library Club was organized in September under Mrs. Revell who has replaced Miss Simpson as Librarian. The officers for this year are:

President Joan Butterworth
 Vice-President Connie Kilgour
 Secretary-Treasurer Sharon Bland

The club was enlarged this year to approximately forty-five members including several boys. The students have been divided into various committees such as shelving, circulation, and processing. In addition to this, they each take a weekly noon-hour shift at the desk.

We plan further activities in the coming year.

INITIATION DAY

The initiation day this year started off with a bang. At eight fifteen, Friday morning, the seniors descended in battalions on the unwashed hordes of frosh, who were desperately trying to get to school, unnoticed, even though they were dressed in the most conspicuous costumes ever designed by the almighty seniors. All the while the I.D.C.I. Ministry of Propaganda vehicle patrolled the streets blaring slogans and urging the seniors to exercise their prerogative of "welcoming the little people".

The afternoon was the time of the great parade

when the juniors were given a chance to show off their beautiful (?) costumes. The I.D.C.I. Trumpet Band had the dubious honour of leading little beasties past the judging stand.

The frolic continued that evening with the Initiation Dance. The highlight of the party was the penalty time, when the impersonators were purged for their indulgence in a sport reserved for seniors only. This ended the day of a high note and everyone went home happy. Mr. Herbert was so pleased, that he said we might even have another initiation day next year.

INITIATION DAY

UNITED NATIONS SEMINAR

On June 23, 1964, Paddy Lounsbury and I registered at the University of Western Ontario for the annual United Nations Seminar.

We were welcomed by Dr. Gwyne-Timothy, a member of U.W.O.'s History Department and the chairman of the Seminar. He introduced Mr. Michael Clague, Canadian Youth and Education Secretary of the U.N., who reminded us of the important role of to-day's youth in the world. Mr. John Harbron delivered two lectures on Latin America. He impressed on us the great need of this country for foreign aid. That evening Dr. Gwyne-Timothy spoke on the history of universities and later we toured the campus.

Next morning a geography professor at Western, Dr. Nicholson, lectured on Brazil and urged Canadians to take an active interest in this country and its people.

Throughout each day there were several discussion groups in which we discussed the previous lectures. This was extremely interesting as we were encouraged to give any ideas or opinions we had.

That night the City of London sponsored a banquet at Huron College for the seminar delegates. The speaker was Rev. Carter, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of London. He spoke on the church's work in the modern world. The evening closed with a dance and sing-song.

Thursday morning lectures were opened by George Neswick who spoke on the seminar he attended last year at the United Nations in New York. Hugh Bremner showed films and spoke on his recent trip to Africa and the Middle East. After lunch John Elliott, present editor of the London Free Press, lectured on his visit to England. That evening we attended a performance of King Lear at Stratford.

Our last day at the seminar began with a lecture by Dr. Gwyne-Timothy. He spoke on nationalism as a powerful force in the world to-day. The last lecturer was Dr. Angus MacQueen, who favours the admittance of Red China to the U.N.

Dr. Gwyne-Timothy conducted the closing exercises and delegates left for home.

Both Paddy and I have greatly benefited from this experience, and we hope the Lions Club will continue to offer this opportunity to other students, such as ourselves. It is through seminars such as this one that we arrive at a partial understanding of world problems.

DONNA SINDEN, 13B

PUBLIC SPEAKING

As usual, the school held its annual public speaking competitions in October, and at that time one boy and one girl were chosen to represent their class. For the first time at I.D.C.I., however, because of the many new rooms, a preliminary contest was necessary for each grade.

These were the speakers who took first place in the finals: Senior Boys, James Newell of Grade 12; Senior Girls, Ruth Douglas of Grade 11; Junior Boys, Bruce Mulligan of Grade 10; and Junior Girls, Mary Daniel of Grade 10.

On Friday, November 13, at Commencement, each winner received a ten dollar cheque and a cup. Senior and junior champions were awarded the Coventry and Robins trophies respectively. For them, at least, it was not an unlucky date.

After the New Year, two students participated in regional contests: Alexandra Robins, to the Industrial Accident Prevention Association; and James Newell, to the Ontario School Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association.

Finally, the Volt would like to congratulate all who took part in public speaking this year on their excellent work.

JAMES NEWELL, 12B

VISITES INTERPROVINCIALES

Last summer, I was fortunate enough to attend the University of Western Ontario's Summer School in Trois-Pistoles, Québec. Trois-Pistoles is a small town situated about 160 miles north of Quebec City, on the south shore of the St. Lawrence River.

The school, open to both university and high school students, offered a six weeks course in French, English (strictly for French speaking students) and art.

The practice of the school of having students board in French homes, proved equally as helpful in learning French as attending the classes which were held daily. Here we learned French expressions, grammar points and phonetics. A recreation period between the two morning classes provided an opportunity of meeting new people and learning old French songs.

Conversation classes, consisting of four English and four French speaking students, were held for an hour each weekday afternoon. These increased vocabulary and were informative in that we had first hand discussions on the separatists, the new flag, differences in French and English Canadians, etc.

There were many activities in which students could participate — a choir (which sang on the radio in Rivière-du-Loup), boat trips to L'île des Basques, a Scottish dancing group, dances, movies, tennis and ping-pong.

The language barrier which at first seems too great to conquer, is overcome before you actually realize it. The ears are accustomed to hearing French everywhere — in classes, in the home, radio, television, movies, stores and on the streets. This not only makes assignments and final exams easier, but also makes you feel like a "habitant" before six weeks have passed.

I am indeed very grateful to the Ingersoll Milk Foundation for giving me this opportunity to visit Quebec, thus gaining a better understanding of the language and of the people themselves. The warmth and friendliness of the French, which we often hear about, are by no means exaggerated.

My summer in "la belle province de Québec" was truly the warmest and most wonderful experience that I have ever had. It is with all these thoughts in mind that I sincerely hope to return again soon.

BLUE AND WHITE REVUE

Although the weather failed to co-operate, we managed to stage two Blue and White performances this year. One was on Friday, the other one was on Saturday, February 26 and 27. This year it was divided into two parts.

The first part was a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta — Trial by Jury. This was the first time that our school had attempted the production of an operetta and the student response was sufficient to permit different casts for each night.

The second part was entitled "Southern Varieties" and took place on a dock located on the southern Mississippi River. Members of the crew, passengers and townsfolk all combined their talents to provide a concert for the tourists.

To begin, the Junior Girls' Glee Club sang "Carmena". This was followed by Bill Davey, the ship's captain, who did an impersonation of Bob Newhart. To add to the festivities the American Folk Dancers danced to the tune of "Steppin' Out". The trumpet selection by Gordon Underwood — "A Bugler's Holiday" and various selections by our own Trumpet Band soon changed the pace. A Vocal Trio by the Halter Sisters — "I Feel Pretty" — was followed by the Senior Girls' Glee Club which sang "Sad and Lonely" and "Nelly Bly". The Modern Jazz Trio of Joan McFarlane, Julie Stone and Brenda Wilson preceeded the Jansen Sisters who sang "Gotta Have Rain". The tumblers then bounced onto the stage to perform their gymnastic stunts. The Cellar Singers, namely Allan Warden and Gordon Wylie, sang various vocal medleys. A dance by the I.D.C.I. Rockettes, a piano solo by Bonnie Shewan and an accordin solo by Jerry Holatko brought a most enjoyable evening to a close.

The entire cast and chorus joined in singing the Finale.

ANNUAL SPRING TEA AND FASHION SHOW

On May 15 the Girls' Athletic Society presented their annual Spring Tea and Fashion Show.

Mothers and friends of the students were received by Mrs. J. Roe, Miss S. Muddiman, Mrs. I. Ward, Mrs. J. Cryderman, Mrs. J. McBride, Mrs. W. C. Wilson, and Miss Nora Oliver.

The Cafeteria was decorated with numerous bouquets of spring flowers and apple blossoms with a single floral spray on every table. The great variety of fashions, ranging from sleepwear and sportswear to suits and party dresses, were designed and made by the student models themselves.

Commentators for the show were Miss Jane Jansen and Miss Pat Presswell, while Miss Barbara Beckett and Miss Bonnie Shewen provided a light musical background. During intermission the guests were entertained by a vocal duet by Kathy and Jane Jansen, singing "April Showers".

All committees were composed of Girls' Athletic Society form representatives. Much credit goes to Miss Sandra Blashill, in charge of publicity; and Miss Valerie MacKay, who directed the decorating and modelling. This year's theme was "Fashions in Flower".

STAGE CREW

This year the Stage Crew grew to twenty-three members. The executive consists of: Ian Mackenzie, president; Bob Thompson, vice-president; and Ed Learn, secretary.

This year is proving to be a very busy one, which accounts for the expansion in our membership. A training course was given to the new members and an examination was given at its conclusion. On Friday, December 18, 1964, we sponsored a dance which proved to be very successful and we are hoping it will become an annual event. The money that was raised is being used to purchase records and equipment so we may more efficiently serve the students of our school.

Our usual services consist of setting up and operating the sound and lighting equipment for football games, assemblies, commencement, dances, the "At Home", and the school musical production, the latter being our biggest job of the year.

BOYS' ATHLETIC SOCIETY

The executive of the Boys' Athletic Society was elected early in the fall and consisted of: President, Hugh Ponting; Vice-President, Ed Krupa; Secretary, Paul Henderson; Treasurer, Mr. James; Staff Adviser, Mr. Desborough.

This year's programme included the sponsorship of a golf tournament and a wrestling tournament for the surrounding schools. The Athletic Society purchased sweaters for the senior football team and assisted at the "At Home" and various dances held at the school. This year inter-mural sports were carried on in soccer and basketball. The senior football team carried on a dance under the auspices of the Boys' Athletic Society and its proceeds went to the Athletic Society.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The activities of the G.A.A. thus far this year have included a "Basketball Rally." This was so that persons from the W.O.S.S.A. area might try their test to qualify as referees. We have also worked on schemes for the improvement of school spirit.

For the near future, we are planning for our annual "Spring Tea and Fashion Show". We would also like to arrange for a "Junior Prom" with a Junior Queen.

The members of the 1964-65 executive include: Staff Adviser, Miss Muddiman; President, Marilyn Steele; Vice-President, Pat Krupa; Secretary, Susan Story; Social Convenor, Elaine Graydon; Publicity, Jennifer Silcox.

The form representatives include: 13A, Marilyn Steele; 13B, Joyce Smith; 12A, Sandra Cromwell; 12B, Jennifer Silcox; 12C, Sandra Blashill; 12D, Susan Story; 12E, Pat Krupa; 12F, Kathy Ulch; 11A, Christine Perrow; 11B, Daye Conell; 11C, Cathy Patterson; 11D, Janet Wheeler; 11E, Linda Boynton; 11F, Nora Noonan; 10A, Mabel Steele; 10B, Mary Lou Kestle; 10C, Cathy Stephenson; 10D, Joanne Elliott; 10F, Janet Quinn; 10G, Sylvia McSherry; 10J, Sylvia Daniels; 9B, Carol Ann Staley; 9C, Julie Stone; 9D, Brenda Echart; 9E, Sue Sharp; 9F, Marlene Empey; 9G, Linda Metcalfe; 9J, Joan Neve.

ONTARIO ATHLETIC LEADERSHIP CAMP BOYS

During the first two weeks of August, I had the pleasure of attending the O.A.L.C. on Lake Couchiching. Student leaders for the four comps are selected from athletically-inclined Grade 11 students in Ontario High Schools.

After arriving at the camp on August 1, we were shown the camp layout and introduced to the activities. On a typical day, we arose at 7:30, dressed in our gym uniforms, ate breakfast, and we were ready to begin our sports at 9:00 a.m. In the morning we participated in our compulsory subjects: track and field, gymnastics, wrestling and basketball; and our choice of electives including weight training, rugger, lacrosse and archery. In the afternoon swimming classes, with the students arranged in groups according to ability, were held, followed by lectures on sports leadership. After free-time and supper, we enjoyed tournaments organized by cabin leaders. Before retiring, we ran about 4 miles to help get in shape.

On the final Sunday, a large tournament was put on for the benefit of visiting parents and our group won by a landslide, despite our lack of success in the evening tournaments.

The main purpose of the camp was to train us in leadership and to give us ideas so we could help our school physical education teachers. So if you like sports, this is the place to go!

ED KRUPA

ONTARIO ATHLETIC LEADERSHIP CAMP GIRLS

Last July I had the privilege of attending O.A.L.C. on Lake Couchiching for two weeks. This camp is operated by the Department of Education and its purpose is to develop leadership qualities in the participants through athletics. Each camper was compelled to take gymnastics, aquatics, basketball officiating and two option topics, including badminton, tennis, field hockey, volleyball, archery, track, and folk dancing.

A typical day started at 7:00 with the clang of the rising bell. Breakfast was at 7:45 and was followed by cabin clean-up. At 9:10 classes started. Each class lasted 50 minutes. There were two classes in the morning and two in the afternoon. Between classes there was a ten-minute break which was spent running from one end of camp to the other in an effort to arrive at the next class on time. Before and after lunch there was a free period. After classes in the afternoon the campers attended Leader Planning Sessions in which they organized various activities. There was one of these in the afternoon and two in the evening. They were the most important part of the program at camp because the sessions were run by the campers and evaluated by the campers. At 9:30 there was a snack and at 10:30 the lights went out and all talking ceased.

I would like to thank all those who made it possible for me to attend this camp. I fully appreciate the opportunity I received and I learned a great deal that will help me in my school life as well as my future life.

SENIOR FOOTBALL TEAM, 1964

Another year of football ended in defeat but for the first time in many years the turn out of players was the best. We had a bad year in the win and loss department. But the spirit and the desire to play was a big winner. The coaches worked as hard or even harder than the players. Their spare hours after school were well appreciated. "Thank you Mr. Desborough and Mr. Barker".

In our first encounter against W.C.I. we scored two touchdowns. Hugh Ponting raced around the left end to make the scoreboard read 6-0 for the Bombers. Later on in the game Phil Echardt raced down the gridiron after raking a pass to score the major. The game ended in a win for W.C.I.

In our other games we did not score a touchdown. Both the offense and the defense played well throughout the season with the latter helping to keep the scoring down on various occasions.

Injuries to the team did not help and those who remained played all out.

Next year the team will have more experience but the loss of the nucleus will be felt as they further their education.

On behalf of the team I would like to give my thanks to the students of I.D.C.I. who helped to cheer us on.

BRIAN FOSTER

SENIOR SOCCER

This year soccer blossomed into a varsity sport because of the keen interest illustrated by several I.D.C.I. lads in forming a school team to compete against other area schools. During these games our school team fared well and b righter things are seen in the future.

Now for the local scene. The Red House, as was expected, took on all comers on route to winning the Campbell Cup (denotes the champions of soccer in the school). During the course of the season the participation in soccer showed a great interest in the game. In the finals the Red House defeated the lowly Blue House 1-0. Many thanks go out to Mr. Desborough for his active role in making soccer so popular in the school in the last two years.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

Another season of football has been completed at good old I.D.C.I. and players eagerly await another shot at the gridiron next season.

1964 saw the entrance of College Avenue to the league. The Junior Bombers split their home and home series with the newcomers. The first game with them might well have been termed the "Mud Bowl", but despite the playing conditions we managed to come out on top. Halfback Bill Quait scampered for 6 points to even the score at 6-6; later a safety was added to end the scoring at 8-6 for Ingersoll. The season was wound up on our own home field against W.C.I. This was one of our better played games although the scoresheet did not indicate it. With quarterback Paul Hominick being our "Mr. T. D." the team managed to keep the scoring of W.C.I. down to a 6 point lead. Unfortunately, late in the second half, W.C.I. succeeded in scoring twice, thereby drowning our hopes of victory.

The team would like to express sincere thanks to the coaches, Mr. James and Mr. Newbould and to the managers, Brian Bellemare and Allan MacKenzie for their time and efforts in forming this year's team.

JUNIOR SOCCER

Despite the fact that it was only the second year for school soccer and the first year under the House system soccer was given fairly good support. The season started off quite well with each House fielding at least one team. But with cold weather coming on, lack of players caused the games to be discontinued until the spring. In the not too distant future soccer will have an active part in school life.

SENIOR VOLLEYBALL

This year's volleyball team did moderately well. It had more players than it had in previous years and this made for better practise sessions under the enthusiastic leadership of our coach, Mr. Hillis. The team had a great will to win and I feel sorry that their dreams and wishes didn't always come true. In the exhibition games which were played before the Tri-County tournament, the team showed great promise and steady improvement. The tournament was held at I.D.C.I. this year and it was our misfortune to lose our first match of two out of three games to the Simcoe Squad. I must add that although we lost our first match, we were able to come back with a win over Woodstock and enter into the Semi-Finals. Here we were once again face to face with Simcoe and it was their skill and good luck which earned them the victory. Our team was not outstanding but we had a great deal of fun and fine volleyball. On behalf of the team I would like to thank Mr. Hillis, the cheerleaders, and all the students who helped us in our performance. I feel that with experience, next year's team will be a winner.

CROSS COUNTRY

A large number of students took part in our annual Cross Country activities. A course was laid out around the creek adjacent to the school.

I.D.C.I. was unable to field a Senior Cross Country team this year, but Len Elliot, Don Martin and Gerald Smith practiced every evening and took part in some meets.

The Juniors had a good year and entered the Tri-County meet at Port Dover.

Meets were also held with College Ave., Woodstock and G. A. Wheable Collegiate, London.

One of the highlights of the year was the winning of the Senior Race by Gerald Smith against College Ave. at a meet held at I.D.C.I.

The School Cross Country races were held this fall. The Senior Trophy was won by Red House; Phillip Eckhardt, the individual winner. The Junior Race was a tie between Blue and Red Houses. George Hogg won the individual trophy.

I.D.C.I. GOLF TEAM, 1964

This year seven teams from the Tri-County area participated in the Tri-County Golf Tournament which was held at the Ingersoll Golf and Country Club on Saturday, October 3, 1964. W.C.I. repeated as winners of the team trophy with a combined score of 343. Central Elgin, of St. Thomas, placed second with their score of 351. I.D.C.I. and S.T.C.I. tied for third with identical score of 362. Dick Bowman, of I.D.C.I., won the low gross honours shooting a 77.

We of the I.D.C.I. Golf Team — Allan MacKenzie, Mac Wilson, John Wilcox and Dick Bowman would like to thank Mr. Lord for giving up his time to support and to coach us.

DICK BOWMAN, 13A

CURLING, 1965

Again this year curling was held regularly on Mondays and Wednesdays. Roger Pettit's team of Ruth Ann Songhurst, Pat Berdan and Carol Ann Knott won the first draw. It is during this time that new curlers are taught how to play. New curlers are always welcome.

Ingersoll teams were very successful in mixed curling this year. They won first prize at the Highland (London) and Stratford, and second at Tillsonburg. Our own bonspiel was won by Roger Pettit's team with 27½ points and Denny Garratt's team placed second.

Ingersoll was host to the girls' tri-county competition. St. Thomas won the spiel and our team consisting of Karen Marr, Ruth Ann Songhurst, Margaret Emery and Susan Hines placed second. This enabled the girls to go to WOSSA again this year.

CURLING CLUB EXECUTIVE

The boys' team retained the tri-county trophy through default. However, the team whose members are Alan Turton, Bill Davey, Roger Pettit and Denny Garratt beat two Woodstock teams in a playdown for a place at WOSSA. In the "School Boy Playdowns" Bob Greer, Gord Wylie, Roger Pettit and Denny Garratt placed second at Brantford.

Last April the Boys' team was fortunate enough to represent our area in the Junior Tankard in Toronto. In a straight "knockout" series among the eight best teams in Ontario, our rink was defeated in their second game by the team that went on to win the tankard.

On behalf of the curling club I would like to express our thanks to Mr. Lord and Mr. MacLagan for their very active interest in our curling.

SENIOR BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Senior Boys' Basketball team this season ended the year with five wins and three losses. The Season started with a loss to Huron Park and then to W.C.I. The team then came back and won the next five games straight with Simcoe and C.A.S.S. being defeated twice and W.C.I. once. The last game of the year was lost to Huron Park.

The team would like to express its thanks for the support given by the students and by the cheerleaders throughout the season. We would also like to thank Mr. Newbould for the time and energy devoted to the team as its coach, also to Frank Houghton, our capable manager.

PHILLIP ECKHARDT, 11C

SENIOR BOYS' INTER-HOUSE BASKETBALL

The Boys' Inter-House Basketball League had four teams this year — one from Red, Blue, Green, and Gold houses. At this stage of the schedule, both Red and Blue teams, captained by "Nip" Henderson and Denny Garrett, respectively, are tied for first place with Green, captained by Paul Henderson, and Gold, by Brian Foster, trailing. The teams all play a very vigorous brand of ball and it is virtually impossible to say who will wind up as champions.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

This year's team did not lack talent or desire, and as a result ended a fairly successful season with four wins and four losses.

The team started its schedule with a decisive win over Huron Park only to be defeated in the next game by a tall Simcoe team. A win over College Avenue and a loss to W.C.I. finished the first half of the schedule. The second half was just a repeat as the team again lost to both Simcoe and W.C.I. by narrow margins but coming out on top against Huron Park and C.A.S.S.

On behalf of the team I would like to thank Mr. Berghuis for the time and effort he put into the season and Ernie Harris, our manager, along with any other scorers for their strong support.

JUNIOR BOYS' INTER-HOUSE BASKETBALL

This season Junior Boys' Inter-House Basketball was very successful. The league this year was composed of two teams from each house. The houses were: Red, Blue, Gold, and Green.

At the three-quarter mark of the schedule the Blue Beatles, Red Devile and the Golden Flyers, this promises to be a tight final.

We thank all of the players for making this season a success. The players appreciate to the fullest the efforts of Mr. Newbould, Terry Parker and all of the boys who helped to referee the noon-hour games.

The Junior Girls' Volleyball Team played a series of three sets. The team lost against Annandale, Woodstock and Simcoe Collegiates but won two games against St. Thomas. Although we were not the final victors, we had an enjoyable season.

GIRLS' GYM CLUB

Several girls from grades 9-13, under the guidance of Mrs. Roe, gather on Wednesdays and Fridays to participate in and learn the art of gymnastics with the goal of taking part in a school night and entering in a Tri-County competition in the Spring. Last year we joined the Boys' Gymn Club in performing at the Blue and White. The members join with me in thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Roe who has given us her devoted time during the past year.

THE VOLT

SENIOR GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL TEAM

This year we started our Volleyball season with an exhibition game against Aylmer, who proved themselves to be the better team. The rest of the season was a series of home and away games. Those participating were Woodstock, St. Thomas, Tillsonburg, Simcoe and Ingersoll. Though the team practised hard, it was defeated.

The members of the team were: Marge Minogue, Sandra Bland, Anne Marie Halter, Martha Swiatek, Daye Connell, Nora Noonan, Jennifer Silcox, Janet Wheeler, Pat Patterson, Betty Thomas and Valerie MacKay (captain). Officials for the games were: Marie Richardson, Kathy Jansen, Diane Barber, and Helen Lockhart.

The team would like to thank Miss Muddiman and all the spectators who supported it.

VALERIE MacKAY, 13B

SENIOR GIRLS' HOUSE LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

This year Inter-Form Volleyball was carried out on a house league basis, with each house, Blue, Red, Gold and Green entering a team.

We had two tournaments. The first one was won by the Gold House consisting of Carol Todd (Captain), Beverly Barker, Dorothy Bell, Dina Dona, Marsha Lou Little, Marie Richardson.

The second tournament was won by the Red House. The players on this team were as follows: Judy Freeman (Captain), Jacqueline Perrow, Elaine Graydon, Sandra Blashill, June Erry, Joan McWilliam and Dianne Barker.

JUDY FREEMAN, 12C

JUNIOR GIRLS' INTER-HOUSE VOLLEYBALL

The 1964-65 Junior Inter-House Volleyball was won by the Blue House. Their team consisted of: Sandra Locky (Captain), Mable Steele, Penny Pearson, Joanne Elliott, Karen Freeman, Joanne McGinnis, Kathy Sales, and Joan Ostenbrug.

Out of the six games we played, we were defeated only once by the Green House.

CHEERLEADING

After the initial confusion and excitement of starting back to school in September, many girls became eager to begin the cheerleading try-outs. Even those who had participated on the team before were excited. One afternoon, we had our final performance in front of the judges: Miss Muddiman, Mrs. Roe, Mr. Newbould, and Mr. Brown. The girls chosen were Monica Costin, Mary Daniel, Ruth Downham, Judy Jowett, Martha Mitchell and Alexandra Robins. In all weather, the squad cheered hard to support our football players. Later in the season, we led the cheers to help the basketball teams on to victory. There were two highlights during the year. In the first of these, the Tri-County competition, the squad's performance was one of the first four out of the twelve. Miss Cheerleader, Martha Mitchell, was the first runner-up for "Miss Tri-County". The second highlight was the fun of cheering for the men teachers when they defeated the I.D.C.I. seniors in a basketball game.

Much credit goes to Miss Marsden for her enthusiasm and cheerfulness in training us.

ANONYMOUS

I.D.C.I. WRESTLING

Few workouts and practices accounted for infrequent victories in this sport which is relatively new to I.D.C.I. Anxiety mounted on the way to the first match at Arthur Voaden in St. Thomas but it fell to discouragement with only three wins. A few exhibition matches with C.A.S.S. and Glendale preceded the tri-county championships, held at I.D.C.I. on Saturday, February 20. Of the three finalists from Ingersoll (Severino Dona, Jeff Reynolds and Gerald Smith), only the latter grappler was successful in attaining victory.

Next year, the team will not lack experience, and expectations are high with the excellent coaching of Mr. Desborough.

LOOKING FOR A JOB?

CONSIDER THESE FACTS ABOUT LONDON LIFE:

Last year, over 100 people at head office were promoted. There is a set policy of promotion from within the organization.

London Life sells more life insurance to Canadians than any other company. An educational program covering all phases of the life insurance business is provided to new staff members. Each staff member's progress is reviewed at definite intervals.

There are job opportunities at London Life for high school graduates — both men and women. For more information telephone or write to the Personnel Department, Head Office, London.

WOODSTOCK IS MORE THAN JUST AN ADDRESS

It would be hard to find a city or town in Canada that does not receive shipments from York Knitting Mills, Limited, WOODSTOCK, Ontario. We like to think that the York brands are synonymous with quality, with good honest value for your dollar; and if this is so it means that Woodstock too, is known as a city of honour and integrity.

We would like to thank all who have held to this concept and who have helped us build on a basis of sincerity and honest effort. In a world that's changing as quickly as ours it is perhaps the one constant factor in the future success of us all.
