

POSTCARD

Signalman
George Herbert Mole
1916-1944

Address

A Hero Lived Here

133 King Hiram Street

Ingersoll, ON

N5C 1L7

Sgn. George H. Mole Reported Killed In Italy

Official word was received on Wednesday, July 19, of the death in Italy of Signalman George H. Mole, on Saturday, July 15th, the message being received by his wife, Mrs. Lavina Mole, King Hiram street.

Born in Cambridge, England, 29 years ago, George Mole, accompanied his parents to Canada at the age of 5 years. After attending the public schools here, he was employed at the Morrow Screw and Nut Co. When war broke out, he with his father, the late Staff-Serjt Herbert Mole and his brother Donald, were the first father and two sons to enlist for active service in 1939.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn his passing his mother, Mrs. Annie Mole, a brother, Donald, of the R.C.A., who has been at home on furlough after a year at Labrador and three sisters, Mrs. C. Churcher, Ingersoll; Mrs. H. Crossett, Tillsonburg, and Miss Annie at home, to all of whom the sympathy of their scores of friends are extended in their sorrow.

Ingersoll Tribune
27 July 1944

Signalman George Herbert Mole was a son of Herbert Henry and Annie Mole; husband of Lavina Pearl Mole, of Ingersoll, Ontario.

George enlisted with the Oxford Rifles along with his father and brother immediately upon the war breaking out in September of 1939.

Signalman George Herbert Mole disembarked on 6 June 1944 at France, participating in the D-Day landing and was confirmed killed in action July 15, 1944. He rests at BENY-SUR-MER CANADIAN WAR CEMETERY Calvados, France.

In partnership, Oxford County Library and Ingersoll Cheese & Agricultural Museum recognize the service of Ingersoll veterans.

Did you get a postcard? We would love to hear from you: localhistory@ocl.net