THE PRESENTATION was made by H. O. Stockman, master of Thistle Lodge, AF&AM, Embro, (extreme right), to Mr. Munro. He was accompanied to

Veteran Member Embro Masonic Lodge Receives 50-Year Jewel

NORWICH: O. H. Stockman, Worshipful Master of Thistle Masonic Lodge in Embro; accompanied by Andrew E. Cody and A. G. McCorquodale, past masters in the same lodge, paid an interesting visit to Norwich to present Crandall Munro, one of their older and esteemed past masters with his 50 year membership jewel. W. Bro. McCorquodale, a friend of long standing, made the presentation and thanked W. Bro. Munro on the worthwhile contributions he and his late father before him had made to the progress of Thistle Lodge. W. Bro. Stockman added his own best wishes and those of all the members.

The Embro members would have preferred to make the presentation in lodge at Embro, or even in Norwich, but the aging man's health did not permit this. The presentation was made at the home of his daughter Mrs.

Wilfred Burrill and Mr. Burrill. W. Bro. Munro joined Thistle Lodge in 1908 and was its master in 1912-13. For many years he was an ardent worker among the Masons and continued active as long as he was in Embro. Now, when health permits, he attends meetings in St. John's Lodge, Norwich.
