

To His Honor Peter Russell, Esquire, President of the Government of the Province of 107 Upper Canada &c — &c — &c —

In Council —

The Petition of Elisha Haskin

Humbly sheweth —

That your petitioner came into this Province in June 1796 as a settler on the Township of Oxford, that he located lot N^o 6 in the broken front of the said Township and brought in his two sons and one Daughter — that the said lot has been marked in the map, through mistake, to David Thompson, — that the said Thompson gives up all claim to the said lot. your petitioner, having taken the Oath of Allegiance to sign the Declaration, prays your Honor to be pleased to confirm him in the said lot. and as in duty bound will ever pray
Elisha Haskin
