

To His Honor Peter Russell Esquire
President of the Government of Upper Canada &c &c &c In Council
The Petition of Ebenezer Still

Humbly shews

That your Petitioner is one of those ^{7th Jan. 1799} who, through the invitation of Mr. Ingersol, have disposed of their property in the U. States, and remained into this Province. That your Petitioner has brought in Cattle and implements of Husbandry and being desirous of settling in the Province, and in the Township of Oxford, Humbly prays your Honor would be pleased to grant him 200 acres of Land as a Settler, or that the same may be appropriated for him, and as in duty bound your Petitioner will ever pray

Ebenezer Still
