

Bushville 18th March 1824

My dear Sir

May I trouble you to lay the inclosed before His Excellency and favor me with an answer as soon duly as possible —
I was through Oxford the other day on an Electioneering excursion, and was requested to assist the inhabitants in procuring a survey of four of their boroughs which would have been very soon — The business was readily undertaken because if I fail it can do me no harm, and if I succeed it will be of great service to me in the election — If it can possibly be done may I beg you to interest yourself in having the business of the petition granted? — Yrs truly
James Bruce
