The Petition of Levi Luddington.

late of the State of New York, Farmer.

Humbly sheweth.

That your Petitioner came into the Province in March last with his family, consisting of a wife and three children, who are now in the neighbourhood of the Grand River, upon land he has rented for the season - That your Petitioner is desirous to settle in this Province where he has relations - therefore humbly prays your Excellency for a grant of Lot 11:23 on Dundas Street, in the Township of Blenheim or such other lot on that communication, which may be vacant, upon the usual terms of settlement, under the new Regulations - and your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray

Yours Truly
1800 -
