Rules and Regulations of Library.

The Library shall be open every night from 7 o'clock to 9 o'clock, and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons from 2 o'clock till 4 o'clock.

No book shall be kept out longer than four weeks, under a fine of five cents for the first week, and ten cents for each succeeding week, until four weeks beyond the time allowed have expired; after which time any further detention shall render the holder liable to be sued for the first cost of the volume—or the whole set, if the work comprises more than one volume—together with the accumulated fines.

Members shall be responsible for the loss, soiling, tearing or defacing of books while in their care, and shall pay for such damage or loss as the Library Committee shall decide—no penalty to exceed the first cost of the book, or series of books, as the case may be.

The Librarian has authority to refuse any book presented to him, which he has reason to suppose has been in any way damaged in the hands of the holder—until the Library Committee shall have investigated and reported on the case to the General Committee. No member in arrears for fines, or whose case is under consideration by the Library Committee in regard to the loss or damage of a book, shall be allowed to take any volume from the library.

Any member returning a book after having had it for four weeks, may again take it out provided that no other member of the Institute desires the same volume.

Members' subscription $1 a year for one book; 25 cents for each additional book. Members resident more than one mile from Village to have the privilege of one extra book.

-----	------------------	-------

Memorandum of Agreement made this 15th. day of January, 1912, between the Board of Management of the Embro Public Library Association in the village of Embro, and Miss Lena Rutherford of the village of Embro.

1. The Board of Management hereby employ as Chief Librarian for their Library the said Miss Lena Rutherford at a yearly salary of Fifty Dollars for the term of one year from the 1st. day of January, 1912; and further agree that they will pay such salary quarterly.
2. The said Miss Lena Rutherford agrees with the said Board of Management to conduct the said Public Library and Free Reading Rooms according to the Public Library Act and the Regulations in that behalf, and the Instructions issued by the said Board of Management.
3. The said Miss Lena Rutherford further agrees to sweep and dust said Reading Rooms and Library regularly, at least once a week, and oftener if so directed by the said Board of Management.
4. The said Miss Lena Rutherford further agrees with the said Board of Management to give careful and close attention to the following Library Rules and to use all necessary diligence in the carrying out and fulfilling of the same, viz. -
 - (a). The Library and Reading Rooms are to be open every night - excepting Sunday and Public Holidays - from 7¹⁵ to 9 o'clock. The Librarian is to see that the Rooms are opened sharp on time and kept open the full time.
 - (b). The Librarian is to be in charge the full time above mentioned, unless she has previously arranged otherwise with the knowledge and consent of the Board of Management communicated through the President. During this time she is to give her undivided attention to the Library.
 - (c). Books returned must be replaced on the shelves by the Librarian, and as soon as returned.
 - (d). The shelves must be carefully watched to see that books are in their proper places; the Librarian will be held responsible for all books not in their proper shelf and section.
 - (e). No meetings are to be held in the Library or Reading Rooms unless with the express consent of the Board of Management communicated in writing.
 - (f). No one, except the caretaker or members of the Board, shall be given or allowed entrance to the Rooms outside of Library hours.

19. No one, except a member of the Board, shall be allowed into the shelves unless engaged in selecting a book.
20. Books and magazines are not to be lent to non-members under any circumstances; provided, however, that non-members may be allowed the magazines while in the Reading Rooms.
21. All magazines, weekly and monthly, are to be kept on a shelf in the rear of the Librarian's desk - not on the reading tables - and treated exactly as books. No magazine is to be lent to anyone - whether member or non-member, without first securing a receipt for the same.
22. All newspapers and magazines must be carefully preserved throughout the entire year. At the end of the year the Board expect to find all copies on file, or a proper receipt to show where the missing copies are.
23. The Librarian shall give all due assistance to members in the selecting of books desired for reading, either from the Catalogue or from the shelves.
24. The Librarian shall keep careful and correct records of all books lent, to which records the Board shall have access at all times.
25. The Librarian shall duly classify, enter, and catalogue all new books purchased before the same are put into circulation.
26. Any violation of the rules of the Library is to be at once reported to the Board of Management for their action.
