His Excellency Peter Hunter Esquire
Lieut. Governor of the Province of Upper Canada

In Council

The Petition of Seth Putman of the Township of Oxford, in the County of Kent, in the District of London Esq. &c.

Humbly sheweth

That your Petitioner has been settled some years on Lot n^o. 27 in front on the River Thomas in the western Division of Oxford, and has entered a plat for the same - that he is desirous to occupy the reserved Lot opposite thereto, nearly on the said River, in the northern Division of Oxford, known by the booked Lot n^o. 3- in the 5th Concession, and to erect thereon a Dwelling House. Your petitioner humbly prays your Excellency would be pleased to grant him a Lease of said Reserve and your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

July 15 June 1802.
