In the Surrogate Court

The Petition of Julia Quaker to administer to the Estate of her late husband

To His Honor William Laperriere Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Oxford.

The Petition of Julia Penation of the Township of Dechem in the County of Oxford. Widow of Edward Penation late of the said Township of Dechem deceased

Assembly Sheweth

That the said Edward Penation departed this life at the City of London in the County of Middlesex in the Province of Lancashire whilst the said Edward Penation was on a journey to London on business. That the said deceased was killed by the engine by a Locomotive on the Great Western Rail Way on or about the Seventeenth day of February last past. That the said deceased died intestate. That she has looked amongst the papers of the said deceased but has found no will. and that she has good reasons to believe that the said deceased did not make any will. That the said deceased was at the time of his death possessed of or entitled to divers goods and Chattels, rights and credits all within the said County amounting to the sum of £ twenty seven pounds and three shillings. so far as she has been enabled to ascertain. That no letters of administration of the said personal estate of the said deceased have as yet been granted. Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that you should issue the petition to her letters of administration of the said personal estate of the said deceased as such Widow & Your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.
