In Council

The Petition of John Ross late Corporal in His Majesty's 42nd Highlanders Most Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioner arrived in this Country some time ago with a view of providing for a numerous family (of Children) and without any knowledge of the Country as to the soil or locality of any place.

Petitioner accompanied several of his Countrymen to Lora and being so poor ever since that he has not the means of removing. Petitioner most humbly prays that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to grant to Petitioner the East half of No. 20 or 22. 7 concessions in Lora and by so doing this would enable Petitioner to provide for an indigent Family and Petitioner as his duty bound will ever pray

John Ross
