That the said David Brakenridge, Elijah Bottem, James Campbell, and Alexander Campbell Esquires, as reduced officers from the late Loyal Rangers, were, by order of Lord Dorchester in Council, located for their additional lands in the Township of Oxford, in the District of Johnstown, about the year 1786, but received no certificates; the number of lots, & quantity of acres of which location, appear in the margin. - That your Memorialist has obtained from the Surveyor General, under a general order, descriptions of the said several lots mentioned in the margin, and lodged these descriptions with His Majesty's Attorney general who has informed your Memorialist that he is not authorized to make out feets
