TILLSONBURG CEMETERY

THE CEMETERY - PRIVATE, CORPORATE, COMMUNITY

The history of the Tillsonburg Cemetery reflects accurately changes in public attitude. The first cemetery, opened in 1030, was the property of the Tillson family. It was on the top of Graveyard Hill where today Simcoe and Cedar street intersect. Although privately owned, it was the general burying ground until the late 1070s. It was then overcrowded and other provision had to be made,

In June 1860, The Tillsonburg Cemetery Company was set up. It was a joint-stock organization, made possible by recent legislation of the Ontario parliament to encourage the formation of cemetery companies, in other words, of corporations. In the late summer of 1860, the company secured land from E. D. Tillson, virtually the site of the present Tillsonburg Cemetery. Clearing and grading were begun, roads and paths were laid out to make the cemetery an object of beauty as well as utility.

Corporate management lasted fifteen years. Then the directors of the Tillsonburg Cemetery Company began to grow weary of well-doing. Certainly the day-to-day management of the cemetery must have been burdensome for men who had their businesses or professions to attend to. (An unfriendly critic described the cemetery as "a cow pasture.") In 1905, a by-law authorized the purchase of the cemetery by the municipality. It became a community enterprise,

 Dearest Children "Farewell, be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, liv'e in peace, and the God of Love and peace shall be with you" 2 Cor, 13 XI/
 Jesus has called the Mother home
 Her flesh lies mouldering in the tomb
 God grant her offspring may be bleat
 And meet her in eternal rest
 She's gon!', and left us here to weep,
 To joys beyond our view
 And when like her we fall asleep
 May we be happy too
 P,C, Like one above
 A loving friend, a husband dear,
 A tender parent laeth here
 Great is the loss we here sustain
 But hope in heaven to meet again
 The race appointed, I have run
 The combats o'er, the prize is won,
 And now my witness is on h gh
 Now my record in Kind friends beware as you pass by
 As you are now, so once was I
 As I am now, so you must be,
 Prepare, therefore, to follow me.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The text notes that any discrepancies or errors in the records can lead to significant complications during an audit and may result in the disallowance of certain expenses.

2. The second part of the document addresses the issue of proper documentation. It states that all receipts and invoices must be properly filed and indexed to facilitate the audit process. The document also highlights the need for clear and legible handwriting on all documents, as well as the importance of retaining original copies of all records for a sufficient period of time.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of timely reporting. It notes that all transactions should be recorded and reported in a timely manner to avoid any potential issues with the accuracy of the financial statements. The text also emphasizes the need for regular communication and coordination between the accounting department and the audit team to ensure that all necessary information is provided in a timely and accurate manner.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining a clear and concise audit trail. It notes that all transactions should be supported by appropriate documentation, and that the audit trail should be clearly defined and easy to follow. The text also emphasizes the need for regular reviews and updates of the audit trail to ensure that it remains accurate and up-to-date.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring the integrity of the financial statements and for providing a clear audit trail. The text notes that any discrepancies or errors in the records can lead to significant complications during an audit and may result in the disallowance of certain expenses.
